Louisiana Tech President Dr. Dan Reneau is known as one of the top collegiate presidents in the country and a staunch supporter of both academics and athletics.

"Louisiana Tech is an institution of excellence and is considered a model of leadership."

-- James Fisher, national educational consultant

QUARTER SYSTEM – BIG ADVANTAGE FOR THE STUDENT-ATHLETE

Louisiana Tech has a unique advantage of being on the quarter system as opposed to the semester system. The quarter system provides significant advantages for the students, including:

- Lighter workload (take 3 classes instead of 5)
- Shorter academic sessions (12 weeks instead of 18)
- More frequent breaks during and between academic sessions
- More opportunities to withdraw or drop a class and still remain TOPS eligible

HELPING PUT THE STUDENT INTO STUDENT-ATHLETE

PROGRAMS PROVIDED BY BARC

- Tutoring and group help sessions in all subjects
- Supplemental instruction from students who have already successfully completed a certain course
- Writing assistance
- Advising opportunities
- Referral program for students needing additional assistance
- Computer labs and study hall space

"I've always felt like I've gotten the support I need from my teachers, coaches and other support personnel. There are a lot of great people at Louisiana Tech who want to make your college experience a positive one. You really couldn't ask for anything more."

– Meghan Krieg

RECENT SUCCESS STORIES

ANTOINETTE COBB

Track standout Antoinette Cobb earned the 22nd Annual Honda Inspiration Award in 2010 after overcoming colon cancer at age 19 and going on to lead the Lady Techsters to eight WAC titles in her career. She graduated cum laude in the May and is currently pursuing her master's degree in biology with aspirations of attending medical school.

CLINT EWING

Louisiana Tech baseball letterwinner Clint Ewing became the 14th LA Tech student-athlete to ever earn Academic All-American honors this year when he was named third team ESPN The Magazine's Academic All-American. Ewing held a 4.0 grade point average in civil engineering.

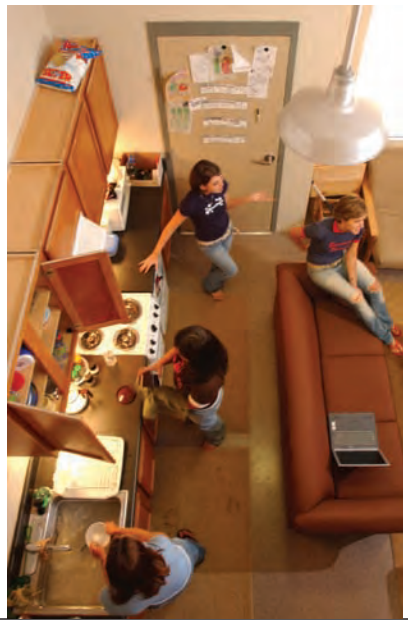
- boasts the ULS' highest average freshman ACT scores at 23.5.

LOUISIANA TECH CAMPUS LIFE

WELCOME TO UNIVERSITY PARK
YOUR HOME AWAY FROM HOME

It's a community of Tech students who want the convenience of on-campus living and the privacy and sophistication of high-tech, spacious apartments and townhouses with a signature Louisiana Tech view.



UNIVERSITY PARK AMENITIES

- 2- and 4-bedroom designs
- Townhouse features a spiral staircase to a loft with two bedrooms and a bath
- Private bedroom phone and cable television
- Kitchen equipped with range and refrigerator
- High speed internet access
- A pedestrian bridge provides easy, direct access from UP to the heart of campus

MORE THAN 11,000 STUDENTS CALL THE LOUISIANA TECH CAMPUS HOME DURING THE YEAR AND FIND MORE THAN ENOUGH TO KEEP THEM ENTERTAINED WHEN NOT ATTENDING CLASSES. SOME OF THE TOP HOT SPOTS ON CAMPUS INCLUDE:

TOLLIVER HALL
a cyber café with plasma TVs, webcams and wireless internet

STUDENT CENTER
a large cafeteria-style area that allows students to choose from a variety of eating establishments including Chick-Fil-A and Burger King as well as a cafeteria

LOCAL RESTAURANTS
students get plenty of Louisiana flavor as Ruston is full of local restaurants that range from a little Cajun spice to southern down-home cooking

QUADRANGLE
one of the most frequented areas of campus where students hang out under century-old oak trees to study and socialize

LAMBRIGHT INTRAMURAL CENTER
a recreational facility complete with basketball courts, racquetball courts, a bowling alley, men's and women's weightrooms, an indoor track, saunas, steamrooms and plenty of cardio equipment

LOUISIANA TECH STUDENT ACTIVITIES

RECENT ENTERTAINERS ON CAMPUS INCLUDE:

- The Wallflowers
- Goo Goo Dolls
- Better Than Ezra
- 3 Doors Down
- Three Days Grace
- Puddle of Mudd
- Motion City Soundtrack
- Ben Folds

The MISS TECH pageant is just one of many annual student events on campus, including unity step shows, Greek Week, Spring Fling, homecoming, talent shows, theatrical and musical productions and more.

M.S. CARROLL NATATORIUM

Construction has begun on the $12.5 million M.S. Carroll Natatorium begins this summer. The facility will be built onto the existing Lambright Intramural Center as part of a $50 million recreational construction project on campus that also includes new tennis courts, a new track and a new bowling alley – all of which have been completed. The swimming pool part of the project will include:

- 2 pools including a 25-yard indoor completion pool and an outdoor recreational pool with 3-50 meter lanes
- An outdoor whirlpool
- A rock-climbing wall
- An atrium
- An outdoor café

Tech students are some of the best fans in the South as all of the University's athletic teams have great followings on game days whether football, basketball or any of the 16 NCAA Division I sanctioned programs.

LOUISIANA TECH WAS ONE OF ONLY FIVE SCHOOLS IN THE COUNTRY TO HAVE A STUDENT-ATHLETE SELECTED IN THE NFL, NBA, WNBA, MLB AND NPF DRAFTS DURING THIS PAST YEAR – JOINING TEXAS, FLORIDA STATE, OKLAHOMA AND STANFORD.

LOUISIANA TECH'S ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT:

- won the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Awards, given to the college that best exemplifies development in the four categories of Marketing/Branding, Fan Development, Community Relations, and Customer/Client Service.
- ranked eighth in the country in the Excellence in Management Cup, one of only four programs in the country to earn a top 10 spot in each of the last two years.
- won the NCAA Pack the House Challenge for the WAC for the third straight year, one of only two schools in the country to win it three straight years (Hartford of America East Conference).

ON THE PLAYING FIELDS:

- Bulldog football averaged 20,000 fans for home games for only the second time in program history, including season-high crowds for nationally televised games against Hawaii and Top 10 Boise State.
- Lady Techster volleyball completed an 11-game turnaround, and its 15 wins tied for the most since 2005, including a program record-tying number of Western Athletic Conference wins.
- Lady Techster soccer set a program record with 12 victories, including its first ever win in Western Athletic Conference play. Tech will host the WAC Championships this fall.
- Bulldog basketball won 24 games, the most in 25 years, and advanced to the second round of the Collegeinsider.com Invitational Tournament win a win over CUSA foe Southern Miss.
- Lady Techster basketball won the 2010 WAC Tournament title and participated in its first NCAA Tournament since 2006.
- Lady Techster bowling set a school record with 44 wins and also earned its highest ranking ever at 14th in the country.
- Bulldog golf earned its highest ranking in more than two decades despite having a squad that featured only one senior.
- Lady Techster tennis registered its first ever Western Athletic Conference victory win it defeated San Jose State during the spring.
- Bulldog baseball played the first ever game at Target Field, the new Minnesota Twins ballpark as they defeated the University of Minnesota in the contest.
- Lady Techster softball recorded its third straight winning season and played its first nationally televised game in program history.
- Lady Techster and Bulldog indoor track and field teams combined for 17 WAC titles during the conference championship meet while the ladies won their fifth team title in the last six years.
- Lady Techster and Bulldog outdoor track and field combined to outscore all other schools in the WAC championships while the women captured their sixth consecutive title.

QUEST for EXCELLENCE

The Campaign for Louisiana Tech Athletics

QUEST FOR EXCELLENCE – Meeting the Needs of Tech's Student-Athletes

The construction of a 90,000-plus square-foot multipurpose facility in the south end zone of Joe Aillet Stadium will benefit every student-athlete at Louisiana Tech University.

STUDENT-ATHLETE BENEFITS INCLUDE:

- New academic center
- New state-of-the-art sports medicine facility
- New strength and conditioning complex
- New coaches offices and locker rooms for football, baseball, soccer, tennis, softball, golf and track and field
- Video room with state-of-the-art capabilities
- New auditorium for team and departmental meetings

More than $9 million of the projected $20 million was already committed when the press conference was held to announce the capital campaign in late June. Tech alums Steve Davison, Terry Bradshaw and Drake Mills form the Leadership Team that is spearheading the fundraising for the facility, along with Tech Athletics Director Bruce Van De Velde.

LOUISIANA TECH already ranks among the state and conference leaders in student-athlete graduation rate and in Academic Progress Report rate, and the new academic center will further enhance and emphasize the University's commitment to the classroom.

Since Louisiana Tech joined the WAC in 2001, its athletic programs have captured 25 team championships and dozens of individual titles.

Louisiana Tech has contracted with renowned sports architectural firm Populous to develop a master facility plan. Populous has created some of the most recognizable professional sports venues in the country, including :

- Yankee Stadium
- Busch Stadium
- AT&T Park
- Pepsi Center
- PNC Park
- PETCO Park
- Oriole Park at Camden Yards
- Reliant Stadium

"This project addresses many of the needs of our student-athletes, enhances recruiting and provides a source of pride for our alumni and fans. Our vision is a quest for excellence and a desire, focus and commitment to be an institution that values academic and athletic excellence."

– Tech Athletics Director Bruce Van De Velde

"Quest for Excellence is a watershed event in the history of our athletics program and, through the private contributions of our friends and supporters, will put our University shoulder-to-shoulder with some of the most progressive and respected programs in the nation."

-- Tech President Dr. Dan Reneau

BULLDOGS IN THE COMMUNITY

Interacting with area elementary school children is one of the priorities for the Bulldog football players each year.

Assistant AD for marketing Leah Beasley joins forces with local members of the Northeast Louisiana branch of the Susan G. Komen Foundation to spearhead Bulldogs Tackling Breast Cancer, a fundraising effort that has made over $30,000 the last three years for the fight against breast cancer.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS

Louisiana Tech's student-athletes and administration are committed to the NCAA's CHAMPS/Life Skills program which helps better prepare the young men for the challenges of the real world.

Through CHAMPS (Challenging Athletes Minds for Personal Success), Louisiana Tech's student-athletes are introduced to numerous facets of life through service projects, workshops and social events.

JOE AILLET STADIUM

The college football atmosphere in Ruston is filled with energetic fans, beautiful women and spicy food ... a taste of Louisiana and the South that all Bulldog fans have come to know and love.

SPIRIT OF '88

An icon at Joe Aillet Stadium, the Spirit of '88 is a bronze Bulldog statue in the south endzone of the stadium that commemorates the blood, sweat and tears of the 1988 Louisiana Tech team that blazed the path into Division I-A football. As a salute to that 1988 team, every Louisiana Tech player and coach touches the Spirit of '88 upon entrance onto the field prior to every home game.

THE WALK OF PRIDE

One of the newer traditions started in 2007 was the Walk of Pride, where Bulldog fans line the street and welcome the players as Tech arrives at Joe Aillet Stadium two hours prior to kickoff.

DAWGZILLA

The 1,400 square foot high definition video board – the largest in the WAC – has improved the fans' game-day experiences at Joe Aillet Stadium.

TECH XX

How about them Dawgs! Tech XX is the mascot of the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs and patrols the Joe Aillet Stadium sidelines each Saturday night during the fall.

ESPN IS IN THE HOUSE!

ESPN Radio produces a 2-hour pre-game show live from tailgating alley for every Bulldog home game. The talent analyzes the contest while conducting interviews with representatives from both teams.

BAND OF PRIDE

Led by one of the all-time great band directors in Jim Robken, Louisiana Tech's Band of Pride brings the true sound of college football to Ruston with pre-game, halftime and post-game performances.

TAILGATING

Over the last decade, tailgating on game days at Joe Aillet Stadium has become the thing to do as Bulldog fans donned in blue start firing up the grills in preparation for kickoff. Bar-B-Q cook-offs, face painting, Tailgate Alley, the Kids Zone and all-around family fun exists for Bulldog fans of all ages.

THE BLUE

Louisiana Tech's super-rabid student organization that paint themselves blue from head to toe on game day helping make Joe Aillet Stadium a tough place for visitors to play.

DENNIS MORRIS' two-yard TD reception on the final play of the first half against LSU in Tiger Stadium in 2009 was a Top 10 Play of the Day on ESPN.

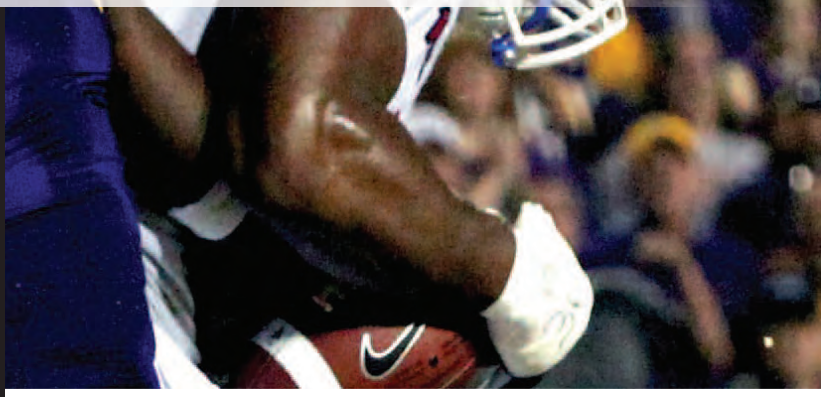
LOUISIANA TECH'S football program has experienced numerous highs during the course of its 100-plus year history, claiming 22 conference titles, numerous bowl berths and a plethora of All-Americans and NFL players.

From the very first win in the program's history (a 6-0 victory over LSU in 1904) to winning the 2001 Western Athletic Conference title in the first year as a member of the league, Louisiana Tech football has always made its fans proud.

And since making the move from I-AA to I-A in 1989, Louisiana Tech has proven time after time it belongs among the big boys of college football defeating the likes of Alabama (twice), Michigan State, Oklahoma State, Mississippi State (twice) and California since the mid 90s.

From big wins to great performances to spectacular plays, Louisiana Tech football has always shown the heart of a champion.



THE 2001 WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS after their league-clinching 19-7 win over Tulsa earned them a berth in the Humanitarian Bowl.

The BULLDOG DEFENSE held Mississippi State scoreless in the second half of its 22-14 come-from-behind victory in the season opener in 2008.

QUINCY STEWART and the Bulldog defense gave Andrew Zow and the Crimson Tide offense fits as Tech defeated the eventual Southeastern Conference Champions 29-28 in 1999.

NFL Hall of Fame tackle WILLIE ROAF opened the national media's collective eyes with his performance against top-ranked Alabama and All-American DE Eric Curry in 1992.

DEFENSE

TOUGHNESS : GATA : RELENTLESS

TECH'S DEFENSE ranked eighth in the nation in interception return yardage, scoring four touchdowns including Josh Victorian's 75-yard interception return for a score against No. 5 Boise State.

- Louisiana Tech ranked 19th in turnover margin in 2009 as the Bulldog defense recovered seven of the eight fumbles forced last season.
- LA Tech ranked 40th in the country in pass defense and pass efficiency defense last year, allowing 205.5 passing yards per game.
- Cornerbacks Josh Victorian and Deon Young both ranked 49th in the nation in interceptions last season, as each of them picked off three interceptions.
- Adrien Cole ranked 50th in the country in tackles last season, making 93 total stops on the year.

SPECIAL TEAMS

AGGRESSIVE : GAME-CHANGING : SWARMING

TECH'S SPECIAL TEAMS UNIT ranked No. 1 in the nation in 2008 in the culmination of net punting, punt returns, kickoff return defense and kickoff returns.

- Phillip Livas scored twice on special teams in 2009 running an 85-yard punt return back for a touchdown and going coast-to-coast at Utah State with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown.

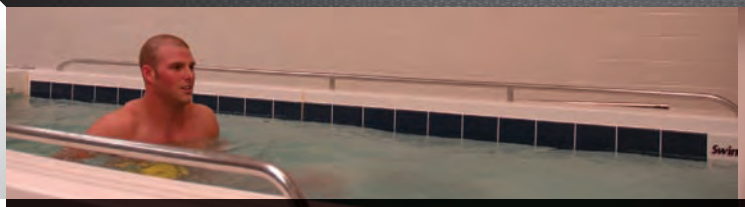
LOUISIANA TECH'S OFFENSE ranked 29th in the country in rushing in 2009, averaging 184.17 yards per game on the ground.

- Daniel Porter became the school's all-time leading rusher with 3,352 career rushing yards. Porter became only the second player in school history to record back-to-back 1,000 yard rushing seasons.
- New in 2010: Head coach Sonny Dykes and offensive coordinator Tony Franklin are installing a high-octane, no-huddle offense that will put the best defenses in the country on their heels.
- Wide receiver Phillip Livas is the only player in the country to return to the gridiron in 2010 having already scored touchdowns of 70-yards or longer in four different ways (reception, rush, kick return, punt return).

- Phillip Livas potency on special teams is among the best in the nation as he has set the school record for punt/kick returns for a touchdown and is only two return touchdowns shy of tying the national record for a career.
- Louisiana Tech ranked 25th in the nation in punt returns last season, averaging 12.33 yards per return.
- Phillip Livas ranked 17th in the nation in kickoff returns, averaging 27.04 yards per return.
- Lyle Fitte ranked 53rd in the nation in kickoff returns, averaging 22.19 yards per return.



DR. WILLIAM BUNDRICK SPORTS MEDICINE CENTER

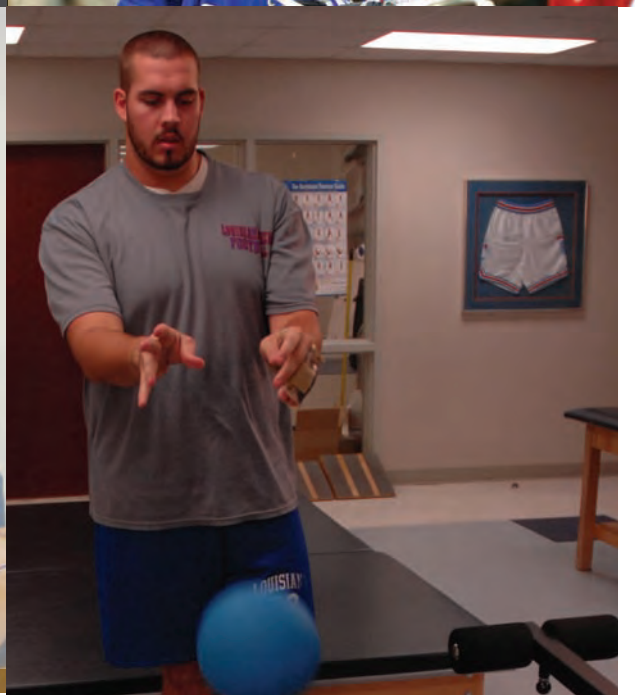
CONTAINS:

- swimex therapy pool
- cardiovascular equipment
- training tables
- private staff offices
- physicians examination room

KEITH BUNCH is the head athletic trainer at Louisiana Tech University and is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association and the Louisiana Athletic Trainers' Association. He is in charge of the Dr. William Bundrick Sports Medicine Center and taking care of the Bulldog football players.



Louisiana Tech football can claim one of the top orthopedic surgeons in the country as one of its own. Dr. William Bundrick lettered for the Bulldogs in the late 1950s before graduating and moving on to the LSU Medical School in New Orleans. Today, he is not only the Bulldogs team physician, but he is also the benefactor of the Sports Medicine Department located in the Charles Wyly Athletic Center – home of the Tech football program.

KARL MALONE WEIGHTROOM

DAMON HARRINGTON is the head strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech and is a certified member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association. During his five years at LA Tech, 23 of the Bulldogs strength and conditioning records have been broken.

NEW STATE-OF-THE-ART EQUIPMENT

- 8 powerlift nine-foot combo power racks with platforms
- 8 powerlift glute ham machines
- 15 hammer strength machines
- 2 sets of iron grip GX dumb bells (5 to 150 lbs)

Louisiana Tech legend Karl Malone recently funded the new state-of-the-art equipment in the Karl Malone Weightroom. Malone was considered one of the most well-conditioned athletes in the history of the NBA. He returned to Louisiana Tech in 2007 as a member of the strength and conditioning staff while also assisting with marketing the university's athletic programs.

The WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE is known for boasting some of the nation's top statistical leaders. During Tech's nine-year membership in the league, numerous Bulldogs have registered impressive numbers including former tight end Dennis Morris who led the conference and nation in touchdown receptions among tight ends last year.

IN ITS 49TH YEAR, THE WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE CONTINUES TO EVOLVE AND FEATURES SOME OF THE NATION'S BEST INTERCOLLEGIATE COMPETITION.

The WAC provides its student-athletes the opportunity to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation's most diverse markets, including two trips every four years to Hawai'i.

The Western Athletic Conference has sent a team to a BCS bowl game in three of the last four years. Boise State brought the eyes of the nation to the WAC in the 2006 Fiesta Bowl with their improbable come-from-behind victory over Oklahoma while Hawai'I played in the 2007 Sugar Bowl. Boise State claimed another Fiesta Bowl title in 2009 with a 17-10 win over TCU. Since the BCS' inception in 1998, only five non-BCS programs have played in a BCS game.

ALL-TIME BOWL SUCCESS

The WAC is just one of four FBS conferences that boasts a winning record in bowl games and it ranks ahead of such conferences as the Big East, Big 12, Big Ten, Mountain West and Conference USA. The WAC has sent a total of 31 teams to bowl games since 2001, including a record-tying five teams in 2008.

LOUISIANA TECH HAD NINE OF ITS 12 GAMES ON TELEVISION LAST YEAR WITH SIX OF THE NINE GAMES AIRED ON NATIONAL NETWORKS SUCH AS ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU AND CBS COLLEGE SPORTS.

NATIONAL MEDIA EXPOSURE

In 2001, the WAC partnered with ESPN for coverage of football and basketball giving the conference national exposure from one of the most respected broadcast entities in the country. An extension was signed in 2008 that guarantees over 300 regular season WAC contests and 45 championship events will be aired on the ESPN networks through the spring of 2017.

Louisiana Tech has played 21 times on national television in the past 11 years, including 13 times on either ESPN or ESPN2. Last year, Tech had nine of its 12 games broadcast on television with six games on national TV. ESPN2 came to Ruston twice during the 2009 season, broadcasting the Bulldogs' games against Boise State on a Friday night and airing Tech's dominating RED OUT game against Hawai'i as Rece Davis, Mark May and Lou Holtz broadcasted the 27-6 win.

PRO DAY gives NFL scouts an opportunity to view potential Louisiana Tech pro prospects each year by putting them through a series of strength, speed and agility tests prior to April's NFL Draft. The Karl Malone Weightroom and FieldTurf surface of Joe Aillet Stadium are the perfect settings, giving both the scouts and the participants an ideal environment to conduct the session.

Louisiana Tech head coach Sonny Dykes strongly believes that providing the opportunity for NFL scouts to get a firsthand look at Bulldog players ready to make the next step is an important factor in furthering playing careers on the next level.

EDUCATION PROGRAM

ANDREW WHITWORTH

NFL EDUCATION PROGRAM

As part of Louisiana Tech's commitment to educating its football players about managing the NFL Draft, the program has developed a top-rated NFL Education Program.

As part of this program, one day each spring Andrew Whitworth talks to the Bulldog seniors-to-be and their family members about his experiences during his time at LSU leading up to the NFL Draft.

DR. SELWYN ELLIS is the Senior Faculty Advisor for the Bulldog players and assists in mentoring, counseling and directing the young men on such things as agents, finances and other important issues.

In addition to Whitworth's talk, Tech brings in an NFL player agent to speak to the Bulldogs, addressing the player-agent relationships and the correct timetable for establishing it. The agents brought in stress the importance of college players following the correct timetable for signing with an agent and the severe eligibility penalties that can occur if they get involved too early.

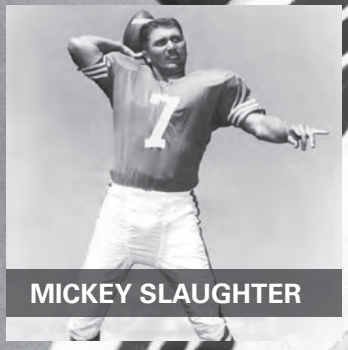
QUARTERBACK UNIVERSITY

LOUISIANA TECH has a long history of producing professional quarterbacks, including Hall of Famers Terry Bradshaw, Matt Dunigan, Mickey Slaughter and Tim Rattay. Most recently, Tech has boasted two NFL quarterbacks in Jacksonville's Luke McCown and the recently retired Tim Rattay.

TERRY BRADSHAW

MATT DUNIGAN



MICKEY SLAUGHTER

TIM RATTAY

LUKE MCCOWN

TERRY BRADSHAW is one of only two quarterbacks to win four Super Bowl titles as the Blonde Bomber led the Pittsburgh Steelers during the 1970s and 80s. He is a member of the NFL and College Football Halls of Fame.

MATT DUNIGAN was inducted into the Canadian Football League Football Hall of Fame in 2006 after a stellar 14-year professional career. He finished his career with 43,857 passing yards and 306 touchdowns.

MICKEY SLAUGHTER played for the Denver Broncos from 1963 through 1966 after being selected as the 50th overall pick in the 1963 draft. He is a member of the Louisiana Tech Hall of Fame.

TIM RATTAY spent nine years in the NFL with the San Francisco 49ers, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Arizona Cardinals following a record-setting career at Louisiana Tech. Rattay ended his Bulldog career ranked in the Top 5 in NCAA history in passing yards and total offense.

LUKE MCCOWN begins his seventh season in the NFL, his second with the Jacksonville Jaguars. McCown was one of the most prolific passers in NFL history, ending his career ranked in the Top 10 in NCAA history in passing yards, total offense and passing touchdowns.

LOUISIANA TECH LEGEND
TERRY BRADSHAW

LOUISIANA TECH LEGEND

Terry Bradshaw, one of only two quarterbacks in NFL history to win four Super Bowls, donated priceless items of personal memorabilia to his alma mater. He also serves as one of the chairman for the Quest For Excellence campaign.

- Super Bowl championship rings from Super Bowls IX, X, XIII, XIV
- Miniature replica trophies from the four Super Bowls
- Professional Football Hall of Fame bust
- College Football and Professional Football Hall of Fame rings
- Helmet and jersey from Super Bowl victory

All of these items are secured and on display at the Charles Wyly Athletic Center, home of the Bulldog football program.

"I want recruits to see that they can get a good education and great competition here, just like I did. My four years of playing college football were by far the best in my entire athletic career, and I'm just so proud of Tech and the fact that I spent those years here."

-- Terry Bradshaw

FOX NFL Today Show host TERRY BRADSHAW, who returns to his alma mater every April to play in a golf fundraiser bearing his name, addresses the local media about his excitement over the direction of the Bulldog football program and the University.

Terry Bradshaw continues to support his alma mater, currently serving as a co-chairman for the Quest for Excellence capital campaign that is raising $20 million to elevate Tech's athletic facilities.

DAN RENEAU is the President of Louisiana Tech University and a member of the Executive Committee of the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

FAITH JENKINS was the first runner-up in the 2001 Miss America Pageant and now is an attorney at Milbank, Tweed, Hadley and McCloy in New York.

Former Bulldog basketball All-American KARL MALONE is a two-time NBA MVP and was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in August.

LOUISIANA TECHíS PROMINENT ALUMNI

WHILE LOUISIANA TECH CONTINUES TO EXCEL on the playing fields, the University consistently turns out some of the world's top politicians, businessmen, entertainers and professional athletes. A degree from Louisiana Tech University is more than just a diploma to hang on the wall … it's a door opening to a world of opportunities.

OFFENSE

DEFENSE

Tommy Spangler's GATA defense has been a thorn in the side of Bulldog opponents over the last three years and with the core of last year's defense returning, opposing offenses have an even tougher challenge in front of them. The linebackers have four players talented enough to start while the secondary is as talented as it has been in years. The defensive line needs to replace the loss of three starters but all four starters on this year's depth chart have significant playing experience.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Over the last three years, there has been one constant in college football: It's incredibly tough to stop Phillip Livas when returning kicks as he has a school record six kick/punt returns for touchdowns, only two away from matching the NCAA record. Don't want to kick it to Livas? Then let us introduce you to Lyle Fitte who was nationally ranked in kickoff returns last year and recorded several 50-plus yard returns last season. The kicking game is just as good for the Bulldogs with Matt Nelson returning for his sophomore season as the team's kicker.

SONNY DYKES
HEAD COACH

Sonny Dykes was introduced as the 32nd head coach in Louisiana Tech history on Jan. 20, 2010 in front of an overflowing Jarrell Room filled with Bulldog fans at the Charles Wyly Athletic Center.

Dykes, son of Texas Tech coaching legend Spike Dykes, has coached in the Pac-10, Southeastern Conference and Big 12 during his 16 years in the college football profession while also serving under some very successful head coaches including Mike Leach and Mike Stoops.

He won the 2006 Mike Campbell Top Assistant Award, presented by the All-American Football Foundation, and was a nominee for the 2009 Broyles Award, which goes to the nation's top assistant coach.

Dykes comes to Louisiana Tech after completing his third season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arizona, leading the Wildcats to an 8-5 record and an appearance in the Holiday Bowl. That Holiday Bowl appearance marked Dykes' 10th bowl appearance as a coach with all 10 appearances coming within the last 11 years.

A spread-offense specialist, Dykes' offensive attack set at least five single-season records at Arizona while also racking up a pile of single-game marks in the UA record book. Former Wildcat quarterback Willie Tuitama, a disciple of Dykes, notched career numbers that are among Arizona's best.

"We are thrilled to have the opportunity to name coach Sonny Dykes as the next head football coach at Louisiana Tech University," said acting athletics director Bruce Van De Velde. "Coach Dykes has demonstrated throughout his coaching career all the leadership qualifications we are looking for in the next leader for our football program. His coaching success has been achieved at the highest level of competition, from the SEC to the Big 12 to the Pac-10."

Rivals.com cited Dykes as one of the countries brightest offensive minds and top ten college recruiters in the country.

"I want to start out by letting everyone know how honored I am to be named the head football coach at Louisiana Tech," said Dykes. "I have worked my entire life to get to this point and I have had lots of great mentors that have worked with me and taught me and brought me along. I am very fortunate to be here."

Dykes' Arizona team went 6-3 in the Pac-10 Conference during the 2009 campaign, finishing tied for second in the league with Oregon State and Stanford.

Fond of the passing attack, Dykes' Arizona offense in 2008 ranked 16th in scoring and 33rd in total offense while developing an outstanding run-pass balance.

Dykes orchestrated an Arizona offense that was ranked 10th nationally in passing yards per game in 2007 as he coached then-junior Tuitama to honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors that year. That same season, he helped develop the offensive scheme that pushed receiver Mike Thomas to first-team all-league status as a junior and senior ('08).

Prior to his tenure at Arizona, Dykes was co-offensive coordinator with then-head coach Mike Leach and inside receivers coach Dana Holgorsen running Texas Tech's wide-open passing attach in 2005-06 after having been Texas Tech's wide receivers coach since 2000. The Red Raiders were among the national top six in total offense and passing during the span.

Texas Tech was No. 3 in passing and No. 6 in total offense in 2006 under his co-direction, throwing for 370 yards and accumulating nearly 450 overall. He directed an offense that scored 32 points per game in 2006 with two receivers ranked top three in the nation and a third in the top 20 in receptions per game.

While in Lubbock, Dykes helped develop Joel Filani into a two-time first team All-Big 12 honoree and a sixth-round NFL draft selection by the Tennessee Titans in 2007. Receiver Jarrett Hicks also signed a free-agent deal with the San Diego Chargers that year.

Dykes also worked with quarterback Graham Harrell who completed 412 passes for 4,555 yards and 38 touchdowns in 2006, ranking Texas Tech third nationally in total offense that season.

Prior to his five seasons at Texas Tech, Dykes spent two non-consecutive seasons at Kentucky, first coaching tight ends as a graduate assistant in 1997 and then coaching special teams and wide receivers in 1999 under the "Air Raid" attack of former UK coach Hal Mumme. Dykes coached Kentucky's James Whalen to AP All-America honors after his Division I-A record for receptions by a tight end.

Sandwiched in between his two stints in Lexington, Dykes was the wide receivers coach at Northeast Louisiana where he helped receiver Marty Booker set school season and career records and earn Blue-Gray and Shrine Game spots before getting drafted in the third round by the Chicago Bears in 1999.

A 1993 graduate of Texas Tech, Dykes lettered for three years as a baseball player for the Red Raiders.

At age 40, Dykes becomes one of the nation's youngest coaches in the Football Bowl Subdivision joining Tennessee head coach Derek Dooley and Temple coach Al Golden as the fourth-youngest coach in FBS.

Dykes is married to the former Kate Golding and the two have a daughter, Alta Caroline (Ally), who was born in 2008.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT SONNY DYKES

MIKE STOOPS

Head Coach, University of Arizona

"Coaches aspire to be head coaches, and it's a great opportunity at Louisiana Tech for Sonny. He did some awfully good things here, helping change our offense dramatically in his first season and taking it farther each step afterward. He comes from a coaching family and worked in some outstanding offensive systems. I'm eager to see how it goes in Ruston and won't be surprised if points and yards are one feature for his new program."

TOM DIENHART

Yahoo! Sports/Rivals.com Writer

"Sonny Dykes is one of the top offensive minds in college football and has built some dynamic attacks. He also is a tireless worker whose terrific personality makes him a magnetic recruiter. I expect Sonny to have great success."

MACK BROWN

Head Coach, University of Texas

"Sonny Dykes is a perfect fit at LA Tech. His dad, Spike, was one of the best coaches of all time, and Sonny is a chip off the old block. He has a great smile and super personality, but has also become a master of offensive football. He has been able to beat teams with better personnel because of his offensive expertise."

TED MILLER

ESPN.com Writer

"It wasn't just that Arizona's offense ranked 115th in the nation the year before Dykes came aboard as offensive coordinator. It was the Wildcats entrenched tradition of lousy offenses. Yet Dykes immediately transformed that beleaguered unit. First, he made it competent. Then he made it good. Then he made it pretty darn scary. It was about more than Xs and Os. It was about leadership and inspiring confidence. You know, stuff good head coaches do."

BILL SNYDER

Head Coach, Kansas State University

"If he is anything like his father, and I truly believe he is, he will endear the entire University and its constituency to him. Sonny is an excellent coach and a loyal and caring person."

KEVIN CURTIS
CORNERBACKS

Kevin Curtis joined the LA Tech staff for the 2010 season, coaching the cornerbacks after serving two years at Navarro Junior College where he coached the secondary.

"I am very pleased to bring Kevin Curtis on our staff," Dykes said. "I had an opportunity to work with and get to know him at Texas Tech where he was a great player. Kevin is an outstanding person whom I had the chance to see coach when I recruited the Navarro area and I knew it wouldn't be long before he was a highly sought-after coach on the Division I level. He is a great recruiter and will be a very strong, positive role model for our players."

While at Navarro, Curtis' teams went 21-2, won two conference championships and were the 2009 C.H.A.M.P.S. Heart of Texas Bowl champions. Curtis' teams were ranked first in the country in interceptions and had five all-conference honorees while he recruited the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex and West Texas areas.

Curtis was a two-time All-American and three-time All-Big 12 safety at Texas Tech, playing for the Red Raiders when Dykes was on the Texas Tech staff. After a successful collegiate career, Curtis was drafted in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers, where he spent three seasons.

After one year with the Houston Texans, Curtis played two years as the team captain for the Cologne Centurions of NFL Europe before returning to the United States to coach.

STAN EGGEN

RECRUITING COORDINATOR DEFENSIVE LINE

Long-time college coach Stan Eggen begins his third season as part of the Louisiana Tech staff and his first as coach of the defensive line.

In addition to 28 years of college coaching experience, Eggen has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the country, a reputation that has earned him the recruiting coordinator title beginning in the spring of 2010.

During Eggen's second season with LA Tech and as coach of the linebackers, he oversaw a unit that ranked 40th in the nation in both pass defense and pass efficiency defense. Linebacker Adrien Cole garnered first team all-WAC honors as he led LA Tech with 93 total tackles, a mark that ranked him 50th in the nation.

In his first season with the Bulldogs, Eggen helped coach a defensive unit that ranked 13th nationally against the run, allowing only 103.9 yards per game, the fewest by a Tech team since the program joined the Football Bowl Subdivision in 1989.

Tech also allowed only 23.7 points per game, the best by a Bulldog team since 1992. The Bulldogs also posted a 21-0 shutout over San Jose State during the season, the first shutout by a LA Tech team since 1996 (a span of 148 games). It was also the first road shutout since 1988 (a span of 225 games).

The Bulldogs success defensively led the program to the 2008 Independence Bowl title as LA Tech defeated Northern Illinois 17-10, the first bowl victory in more than three decades.

A large part of the Bulldogs success was due to the performance of a linebacking corps coached by Eggen. In 2008, the unit showed perseverance throughout the season overcoming injuries to starters Quin Harris, Brian White and Nolan Darby.

Due to the injuries to the unit, nine different players saw significant time at the position with six different players earning starts, including underclassmen such as Dominique Faust, Adrien Cole, Kiamni Washington and Dusty Rust.

Not only did Eggen's linebackers succeed on the field in 2008, but off the field as well as Harris was named one of 15 National Scholar-Athletes, the first in Louisiana Tech history. Harris was also named a Draddy Award finalist and one of 13 Wuerffel Award Finalists.

Prior to coming to Ruston, Eggen served as the defensive line coach at Texas A&M under coach Dennis Franchione from 2003-2007. During his time with the Aggies, Texas A&M participated in three bowl games, including the 2005 Cotton Bowl, the 2006 Holiday Bowl and the 2007 Alamo Bowl.

Eggen has been named as one of the Top 20 recruiters in the country multiple times by Rivals.com and was named as one of the Top 10 recruiters in the country by Scout.com. Prior to his stint at Texas A&M, Eggen served as the defensive line coach at Alabama under Franchione in both 2001 and 2002. The 2001 Crimson Tide squad participated in the Independence Bowl.

He also served under Franchione at TCU (1998-00) and New Mexico (1997) where he worked as the defensive line coach. He helped lead the Horned Frogs to three straight bowl appearances, including the 1998 Sun Bowl and the 1999 and 2000 Mobile Bowl. Eggen was an integral part of helping lead a TCU defense in 2000 that ranked first in scoring defense and first in total defense in the country.

Eggen and the Lobos participated in the 1997 Insight.com Bowl.

He had two stints at UNLV (1991-92, 1994-96) sandwiched around one year at Nevada in 1993. He was the defensive coordinator at UNLV from 1994 through 1996, gaining valuable experience and helping the Rebels to the 1994 Las Vegas Bowl.

Prior to that, he coached at Utah State (1986-90), Drake (1984-85), Memphis (1982-83), Southeast Missouri State (1981) and North Dakota (1979-80). While at Utah State, three of his players that he recruited or coached earned Big West Defensive Player of the Year honors.

His postseason resume speaks for itself. He has been a part of nine bowl games, including three in a row with the Aggies over the past three seasons. Two of his defensive linemen from the 2007 A&M squad - Red Bryant and Chris Harrington - were selected in the 2008 NFL Draft.

Over his last three coaching stops, Eggen has coached more than a dozen defensive lineman who were selected in the NFL Draft and more than a total of 20 who signed NFL contracts.

He has mentored the likes of the Tennessee Titans' Antwan Odom, Green Bay Packers' Johnny Jolly, Buffalo Bills' Aaron Schobel and Baltimore Ravens' Jarrett Johnson.

Eggen, a native of Dilworth, Minn., earned his bachelor's degree in education from Moorhead State (Minn.) in 1977 and his master's degree in education from North Dakota in 1981.

He and his wife, Christina, have three daughters, Sloane, Paige and Shelby. Sloane and Paige are Louisiana Tech students.

TONY FRANKLIN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR QUARTERBACKS

Tony Franklin joined the Louisiana Tech staff as the offensive coordinator in February 2010, bringing an exciting offensive attack back to Joe Aillet Stadium. Franklin joins the LA Tech family after spending one season as the offensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee.

At Middle Tennessee, Franklin's offense generated 421.7 yards and 32.0 points per game, the fourth and seventh highest totals in school history. The Blue Raider offense, which produced three all-Sun Belt Conference players, had 30 or more points nine times and topped the 400-yard mark on eight occasions. Franklin's 2009 unit set school records in total yards, passing yards, and total points, while finishing 23rd nationally in scoring and 27th in total offense.

The end result was a 10-3 season that witnessed a 32-31 win over Maryland early in the season and a year capped off by a 42-32 win over Southern Miss in the New Orleans Bowl, the school's first bowl in the FBS era. The 10-win season was the most by any Blue Raider team since 1992.

Quarterback Dwight Dasher came of age in Franklin's offensive schemes. Dasher, a second team all-conference performer and MVP of the New Orleans Bowl, ranked 7th in the nation in total offense, threw for a school record 23 TD passes, and was named the SBC Player of the Week three times.

Franklin made his way to Middle Tennessee after a brief stint as the offensive coordinator at Auburn in 2008 and the previous two seasons in the same capacity at Troy.

In his two seasons at Troy, the Trojans went 16-9 overall and 12-2 in the Sun Belt Conference while collecting two conference championships. During that span his offense scored 30 or more points 11 times, including games against Florida, Georgia, and Oklahoma State.

In his first season at Troy, in addition to helping the Trojans to their first Sun Belt Conference title and a victory in the New Orleans Bowl, Franklin also helped engineer the second-ranked offensive unit in the Sun Belt just one year after the team ranked last in the league in total offense. The Trojans ranked first in the league in passing offense, again one year after ranking last, despite having faced three of the top 20 ranked passing defense teams in the country during the season, and improved in conference scoring from 12 points to 25 points per game.

Franklin also recruited 2006 Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year Omar Haugabook who swept the top conference honors at season's end. Haugabook also led the league in passing yards per game, completions, and passing efficiency.

In 2007, the Trojans ranked 16th nationally in total offense and 25th in scoring offense.

Franklin joined the University of Kentucky football staff in 1997 following 16 years as a high school football coach. During his four-year tenure at UK, the Wildcats enjoyed unprecedented success on the offensive side of the ball, including setting several NCAA, SEC, and school records.

After coaching running backs for three seasons, Franklin was named offensive coordinator for the 2000 season and led the Wildcats to success as the nation's second-best passing offense as well as the nation's 11th-best team in total offense.

Franklin's two-back combinations at Kentucky outgained any two-back combinations in the SEC in total yards from scrimmage for three straight seasons. Quarterbacks Tim Couch, Dusty Bonner, and Jared Lorenzen each led the SEC in passing during their time as UKs quarterbacks, and Couch was the first player selected in the 1999 NFL draft. Several other UK players reached their goals in making NFL teams after their experience in the high-powered offense.

Franklin was also named one of the top 10 recruiters in the South during his four years at Kentucky as he helped lead the Wildcats to their first back-to-back bowl appearances in 15 years and their first New Year's Bowl game appearance in 50 seasons.

In 2001, Franklin authored a nationally acclaimed book, Fourth Down and Life To Go, which chronicled the good, bad, and ugly experiences of his college football journey.

In 2003, Franklin was chosen to lead the expansion franchise Lexington Horsemen football team in their inaugural season in the NIFL. The Horsemen exceeded expectations for an expansion franchise and earned a birth in the playoffs with a 9-5 record, while setting records for attendance and leading the Atlantic Division in scoring at more than 50 points per game.

USA Today took notice of Franklin's football coaching and teaching abilities in a feature story in 2005 which detailed his consulting successes as a nationally sought-after offensive football coach.

Franklin also received rave reviews for his second book, Victor's Victory, which chronicled the tragic death and spectacular life of 15-year-old Hoover High football player Victor Dionte Hill. Hill died from sudden cardiac arrest on the football practice field during one of Franklin's consulting sessions. The book has helped to continue the mission of Cheryl Hill, Victor's mother, to make teachers, coaches, and parents aware of the need for automatic external defibrillators (AED's) in every school and youth organization in Alabama.

Franklin achieved both his bachelor's and master's degrees in education from Murray State University, where he was a two-year starter as a running back. He is married to Laura Franklin, and they have three girls: Chelsea, Caroline, and Caitlin.

DAMON HARRINGTON

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Damon Harrington developed a reputation as a fierce competitor during his playing days as a linebacker for Louisiana Tech during the late 1990s.

Harrington still has the same hard-nosed reputation among the Bulldog players but it comes as the head strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech.

Harrington was hired as the head strength and conditioning coach at Tech in January, 2006, his second stint in the role after he spent the previous two years as the assistant director for player development at Georgia Tech working with all aspects of the Yellow Jackets football strength and conditioning program alongside another former Bulldog coach, Eric Ciano.

Before taking the position at Georgia Tech, Harrington served as the head strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech in 2002 and 2003, overseeing a program which serves all 16 of the university's NCAA sanctioned sports.

He also spent two years as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech under Ciano in 2000 and 2001.

Since returning to his alma mater, Harrington has been instrumental in improving the strength and conditioning program at Louisiana Tech.

One of the many improvements during Harrington's regime has been the implementation of supplements for the Tech student-athletes, including chocolate milk and muscle milk, which helps with the recovery period after workouts.

Harrington's regiment workout program has helped the Bulldog football players break 21 strength records (by position) in the last three years and ultimately has helped lead to a number of fourth-quarter come-from-behind wins.

Under the direction of Dooley, Harrington and his staff have implemented the Dawg Fight Program, which incorporates ATTITUDE, TEAM, DISCIPLINE, TOUGHNESS and EFFORT. This program is designed to prepare the players to be as physically and mentally tough as possible in order to play hard for four quarters and make the plays at the end of games that will ultimately lead to victory.

In the past two seasons, Louisiana Tech has posted five fourth quarter come-from-behind wins. In the four seasons prior, the Bulldogs had posted a total of five fourth quarter come-from-behind wins.

Harrington began his playing career at Louisiana Tech as a walk-on to the Bulldog football program in 1995 before earning a scholarship his sophomore season. He started every game at linebacker during his junior and senior seasons, leading the team in tackles both years with 121 in 1998 and 122 in 1999.

The Elkton, Md., native earned All-Louisiana honors in 1998 and 1999 while also being named to the All-Independent team by Football News in 1999.

Harrington earned his bachelor's degree from Tech in fitness and wellness in 2000 and completed his master's degree in sports science in 2002.

He is Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified by the College Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA).

Harrington is married to the former Meg Everett of Alexandria, and the couple have a three-year-old son, Luke, and a one-year-old daughter, Addison.

PIERRE INGRAM
RUNNING BACKS

Pierre Ingram joined the Louisiana Tech staff in March of 2010 as Tech's running backs coach.

Ingram joins the Bulldogs after winning a national championship at Villanova, where he coached the tight ends as an offensive assistant. In addition to working with the tight ends, Ingram was responsible for recruiting in Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee.

"Pierre [Ingram] comes from a winning program and he will bring tremendous energy to our program," said Dykes. "He loves the game and I'm looking forward to him bringing his energy and passion to the program. He will also be a great recruiting asset for us."

Prior to joining the Villanova staff in May 2009, Ingram served as the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at Texas A&M-Commerce from January 2009 to June 2009. Before his short stint at Texas A&M Commerce, he was the assistant wide receivers coach at Cortland State. During his stay at Cortland State, Ingram helped the team reach the NCAA quarterfinal round for the first time in school history and he coached the second wide receiver in school history to a 1,000 yard receiving season.

Ingram is a 2006 graduate of Middle Tennessee State University where he was a four-year lettermen in football as a wide receiver. In 2006, he garnered the team's Most Dependable Receiver Award. After earning a Bachelor of Liberal Arts from Middle Tennessee, he went on to obtain a masters of science in sport management from Cortland State.

ED JACKSON

CHARACTER EDUCATION COORDINATOR

Long-time Louisiana Tech assistant coach Ed Jackson is now in his third year as the Bulldogs character education coordinator and assistant strength and conditioning coach and is beginning his 18th season as a part of the Tech staff.

Jackson also works with the character education program for the Louisiana Tech athletics department.

For years Jackson has been actively involved as the counselor and sponsor for the university's Fellowship of Christian Athletes and his new role will enable him to continue to mold the lives of Tech student-athletes.

Jackson played collegiately for Louisiana Tech in the early 1980s, but he never dreamed that a quarter of a century later he would still be a part of the Bulldog program.

In addition to his role as the character education coordinator, Jackson will also be working with the team as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

He will be trying to instill the same life lessons he learned as a player at Tech that helped him achieve so many years of success as a player, coach, husband, father and man of strong faith.

During his playing days at Tech, Jackson earned All-Southland Conference honors and first team All-Louisiana honors and was a member of the 1977 and 1978 Independence Bowl teams.

Jackson played professionally in the NFL for the Oakland Raiders, in the USFL for the Tampa Bay Bandits and Orlando Renegades and in the CFL for the Toronto Argonauts.

After his professional playing career ended in 1985, Jackson began his coaching career at Hinds Community College where he served as the defensive line coach from 1987 to 1991 and the defensive coordinator in 1992. During those six years, Jackson coached eventual NFL stars in Leon Lett, Marvin Washington, John Copeland, Pervis Hunt, Grady Jackson and Gary Walker.

Jackson returned to his alma mater in 1993 when he was hired by Joe Raymond Peace as the defensive ends coach. After four years at that position, Jackson was promoted prior to the 1997 season to assistant head coach by Bulldog head coach Gary Crowton while also moving to the Tech linebackers.

The father of five returned to the Bulldog defensive line in 2000 where he spent the past seven years.

During his 16 seasons as a coach at Tech, Jackson helped lead the Bulldog football program into the 21st century, including a trip into the Associated Press Top 25 in 1999 and a Western Athletic Conference championship title and subsequent bowl berth in 2001.

Jackson was also a finalist for the 1999 American Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year award.

He earned his bachelor's degree in education from Tech in 1983, and his master's in education administration from Mississippi College in 1989.

Jackson has five daughters: Ashley, Adrianna, Andrea, Aisha and Alexis.

JEFF
LINEBACKERS

Jeff Koonz joins the Louisiana Tech family as the Bulldogs linebackers coach after serving as a defensive quality control assistant at Texas last season, helping lead the Longhorns to a Big 12 title and appearance in the BCS National Championship game against Alabama.

"I am really excited to have Jeff [Koonz]] join our staff," said Dykes. "He comes very highly recommended and has worked under some great defensive-minded coaches like Gene Chizik and Will Muschamp. He brings a lot of knowledge and will be a tremendous asset to the program. He has great experience for a young coach, coming from top programs and learning from successful people."

Prior to his one-year stint at Texas, Koonz was the secondary coach at Iowa State for two seasons under Chizik while also assisting with special teams. Koonz's year as overseeing the defensive quality control at Texas was his second stint with the Longhorns having previously served as a graduate assistant coach in Austin during the 2005-06 seasons, coaching the linebackers.

"What a great opportunity this is to be a part of a wonderful program like Tech's," Koonz said. "Coach Dykes' reputation in the football profession is phenomenal and to be a part of what he is doing at Louisiana Tech is exciting."

Koonz was also a graduate assistant coach at Auburn during the 2004 campaign, coaching the secondary, and was a student assistant coach at Auburn for over a year.

Koonz graduated from Auburn in 2004 with a Bachelor's of science degree in physical education and received his master's degree in educational administration from Texas in 2006.

ROB LIKENS

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH
WIDE RECEIVERS

After having led Central Connecticut State as offensive coordinator to more wins than any other four year period in school history, Rob Likens joined the Louisiana Tech family for the 2010 season as the Bulldogs wide receivers coach and assistant head coach.

Likens has coached the Northeast Conference's top rushing offense for each of the last four seasons. CCSU's ground game has also ranked in the nation's top-10 every year during under Likens. The Blue Devils averaged 239.18 yards per game on the ground in 2008. It was the seventh best team effort in the FCS. Central Connecticut also paced the NEC in scoring offense, averaging 30.0 points per game.

"Rob is a great addition to our staff," said Dykes. "I have known him for a while and have wanted to work with him for a long time. He has a great knowledge of the offense we want to install and as a Brookhaven, Miss. native, he brings a tremendous recruiting base, connections and experience."

Likens coached CCSU's ground game to a ranking in the nation's top-10 among FCS schools every year during his tenure as well as a winning record in all four seasons, capping off the 2009 season with a 9-3 mark. The CCSU rushing offense was tops among FCS schools in 2006.

"I am really excited to be here at Louisiana Tech," Likens said. "I have known Sonny for over 10 years and we have very similar offensive philosophies. I know he is going to build a program the right way and I know he is going to succeed - I have no doubt in my mind about that. Louisiana Tech has a history of having an offense that is exciting and puts fans on the edge of their seats and I am excited to be involved with this program."

Under Likens' guidance, the Blue Devils led the conference in scoring offense in two seasons, had three undefeated home records, averaged just under 30 points per game in four seasons (29.1) and won more games in a four-year span than any collection of teams in school history. Likens coached two 1,000-yard rushers, two Walter Payton finalists and two All-America running backs in Justise Hairston and James Mallory.

Likens also coached the school's all-time leader in passing efficiency (Aubrey Norris, 139.4) and two NEC Offensive Players of the Year in Hairston and Mallory. In all, Likens had 13 all-conference selections in his four seasons.

James Mallory earned second team All-NEC honors in 2008. With 1,520 yards, he became the second player in school history to crack the 1,500 mark in rushing. Mallory was also the fourth player to go over 1,000 career rushing yards under Likens. Aubrey Norris, who enters this season as the top-rated passer in program history, also accomplished the feat last season. That duo joins Jo Jo Freeman and Justise Hairston on the list of four. Also under Likens's tutelage in 2008, Nick Colagiovanni became the program's 11th receiver to eclipse 1,000 career yards.

In 2007, Likens's offense was number one in total and rushing offense in the Northeast Conference. The Blue Devils posted 387.7 yards per game, including 257.6 yards per game on the ground. CCSU ranked 10th in the nation in rushing offense.

The Blue Devil offense set numerous school records in 2006, including total yards and rushing yards in a single season. CCSU led the country in rushing yards per game (284.9) and finished 10th in total offense at 386.8 yards per game. As a team, CCSU set a new school mark with 42 rushing touchdowns and scored a school-record 51 touchdowns in 11 games. Likens coached Hairston, the nation's leading rusher, to AP All-America, AFCA All-America and Sports Network Mid-Major All-America honors. He also accompanied the NEC Offensive Player of the Year to the Hula Bowl. Hairston, who finished eighth in the Walter Payton Award voting, also appeared in the Texas vs. the Nation game.

In all, CCSU's offense has rewritten eight team records and six individual and game records under Likens. He has coached four first team All-NEC selections, four second team All-NEC selections and five NEC Offensive Player of the Week honorees. Prior to joining Central Connecticut State, Likens spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator at Southeast Missouri State. He was the wide receivers coach at Temple University in the Big East Conference from 1998-2003. Before Temple, Likens was an assistant coach at North Alabama where he helped guide the Lions to become the first program in NCAA scholarship football to three consecutive playoff championships, a feat that has only been replicated by Appalachian State (2005-06-07) since.

Likens returns home to the south as hew as a former wide receiver at Mississippi State, earned his bachelor's degree in 1990. He earned his master's degree from North Alabama in 1995.

"I am excited to get back down south," said Likens. "The northeast is different. Down here, people are just football crazy. It is so good to be around people that love football, that are excited about football and are ready for some winning football."

Likens and his wife, Soni, have a five-month old son, Nicolas Cutter.

PETE PEROT
OFFENSIVE LINE

As Pete Perot enters his third decade on the Louisiana Tech staff, Bulldog fans will be thrilled to see the former NFL player on the sideline once again this fall.

Perot returns an experienced offensive line in 2010, including four starters and all-WAC left tackle Rob McGill.

Perot's return to the Louisiana Tech sidelines resulted in an offensive line that paved the way for an offense that finished the 2009 season ranked 29th in the nation in rushing and 46th in the country in scoring. Perot's offensive line also paved the way for Daniel Porter to become the school's all-time rushing leader with 3,352 career rushing yards as he became only the second player in Tech history to record back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

After missing almost the entire 2008 season due to health issues, Perot returns in great shape and ready to once again prove he is one of the top offensive line coaches in the game as he enters his 21st year at LA Tech.

The long-time fan favorite was able to enjoy the Bulldogs postseason success as he returned to the Tech sideline to coach in the 17-10 Independence Bowl victory over Northern Illinois in late December.

Perot came to Louisiana Tech in 1986 as a volunteer assistant following an eight-year NFL career with the Philadelphia Eagles (1979-84) and New Orleans Saints (1985-86) which was highlighted by his start for the Eagles in Super Bowl XV.

In 1988, he was promoted to offensive line coach at Tech where he stayed until he departed for the same position at Southern Miss in 1997. After three years on the Golden Eagles staff, Perot returned to Tech in 2000 where he has been a mainstay on the Bulldog staff.

Perot has earned a reputation as one of the top offensive line coaches in the South, tutoring such greats as William Roaf (New Orleans Saints, Kansas City Chiefs), Grant Williams (New England Patriots) and Joey Chustz (Jacksonville Jaguars). Under Perot's tutelage, Roaf earned All-America honors in 1992 and was one of three finalists for the coveted Outland Trophy before being selected in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Saints.

The Natchitoches, La., native also coached former Bulldog left guard Aaron Lips, who earned All-WAC honors for three straight seasons while also starting a Tech Division I record 47 straight games. Lips was named to the Outland Trophy Watch List as a senior.

During his career at Tech, Perot's offensive lines have paved the way for the top eight single season rushing performances in Bulldog history, including Ryan Moats' record-breaking 1,774 yards and 18 touchdowns in 2004, and eight of the top 10 overall.

While at Southern Miss, Perot helped the Golden Eagles to three straight bowl appearances where his offensive lines paved the way for three straight 1,000 yard rushing performances (one by Eric Shaw in 1997, and two by Derrick Nix in 1998 and 1999). His 1999 line placed three USM players on the Conference USA All-Freshman team.

As a collegiate player, Perot started all four years on the offensive line at Northwestern State before being drafted in the second round of the 1979 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles.

The father of two also serves as the liaison between the Bulldog football program and NFL scouts.

Perot is married to the former Kate Adams of Hodge, La., and the couple has two sons, Joey and Josh. Kate is an admissions counselor at Louisiana Tech and is also a Tech alumna while Josh is employed by Learfield Sports as an account executive for Louisiana Tech Sports Properties.

TOMMY SPANGLER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR SAFETIES

Tommy Spangler enters his fourth season as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Louisiana Tech and his reputation as one of the college football world's top defensive minds has only grown over the last two years with the Bulldogs.

During that time, Spangler has taken a Bulldog defense that ranked dead last in the country (among FBS programs) in scoring defense, rushing defense and total defense prior to his arrival and coached them into one of the top defensive units in the Western Athletic Conference.

His energy and passion for the game and defensive philosophy are the reasons why former Louisiana Tech head coach Derek Dooley hired the veteran coach as the Bulldogs defensive coordinator and why, upon Sonny Dykes' arrive there was no better defensive coordinator to be found.

Prior to Spangler's arrival on campus, Tech ranked dead last in the country in total defense (483.33 ypg) and scoring defense (41.7 ppg) and next-to-last in rushing defense (225.38 ypg) in 2006. However, under Spangler's guidance, the Bulldog defense has made huge strides and propelled the program to the 2008 Independence Bowl title.

In 2008, the Bulldogs allowed only 103.9 yards per game on the ground, the best since the program joined the FBS in 1989 and an improvement of over 120 yards per game in only two years. Tech ranked 13th nationally in rushing defense and did not allow a single 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tech also allowed only 23.7 points per game, the best by a Bulldog team since 1992. It was an improvement of 18.0 points per game in the past two years. The Bulldogs also posted a 21-0 shutout over San Jose State during the season, the first shutout by a LA Tech team since 1996 (a span of 148 games). It was also the first road shutout since 1988 (a span of 225 games).

In his first two years at Tech, six Bulldog defenders earned all-WAC honors including safety Antonio Baker who has been a two-time first team honoree.

The 48-year-old Spangler spent the past two decades as a full-time coach on the college football sideline where he served the first 10 years at Georgia Southern, helping lead the program to a pair of Division I-AA national titles. He spent 10 seasons at Division II Presbyterian College in Clinton, S.C., where he served as the head coach from 2001-2006.

In 2006, Spangler's defense at Presbyterian ranked first in the South Atlantic Conference in scoring defense (13.2 ppg) and total defense (233.5 ypg) en route to a 7-4 record. In 2005, he led Presbyterian to a 10-2 mark, the South Atlantic Conference title and the school's first appearance ever in the NCAA Division II playoffs, earning him the league's Coach of the Year Award.

He also garnered two American Football Coaches Association Region 2 Coach of the Year Awards while at Presbyterian. His Presbyterian defenses were ranked in the top half of the South Atlantic Conference in all defensive categories each of his last eight seasons there, and his 1998 Blue Hose unit forced an incredible 48 turnovers in 11 games and ranked first nationally in turnover margin (+2.27).

After taking the job as the secondary coach at Georgia Southern in 1987, Spangler was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in 1990 and then took over the sole reins of the program's defense in 1992.

The Stone Mountain, Ga., native earned the Southern Conference Defensive Coach of the Year Award in 1993 as the Eagles won the league title and advanced to the playoffs. His defense ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense.

Spangler played defensive back at the University of Georgia from 1979 through 1982 and was a member of the 1980 Division I National Championship team that defeated Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl. He lettered his senior season helping Georgia to the 1982 Southeastern Conference title, the program's third straight.

He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Georgia in the spring of 1984.

Spangler is married to the former Kim Pierce of Ft. White, Fla., and they are the parents of three children: Pierce, Peyton, and Gracie.

MARK

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR INSIDE RECEIVERS

Louisiana Tech landed one of the top assistant coaches in the South when long-time special teams coach Mark Tommerdahl joined the Bulldog staff in 2009.

Coaching the inside receivers and serving as the special teams coordinator, Tommerdahl came to LA Tech with more than two decades of Division I coaching experience serving as an assistant coach on some of the top programs in the country. He has served as an assistant coach on 12 bowl teams as well as five league champions and two division champions.

Tommerdahl's coaching helped Dennis Morris garner all-America honors as well as being named the Tight End of the Year by the College Football Performance Awards. Morris finished his senior year at LA Tech with 38 catches for 623 yards and he had a national-leading 12 receiving touchdowns among tight ends in 2009.

Prior to spending the 2008 season at UL-Monroe, Tommerdahl served as the tight end and special teams coach at Texas A&M for five years. During his tenure with the Aggies, Tommerdahl helped lead the program to the Cotton Bowl (2004), the Holiday Bowl (2006) and the Alamo Bowl (2007).

He coached present-day Dallas Cowboys tight end Marcellus Bennett, who ended his Texas A&M career as the program's all-time positional leader in receptions and yards.

Tommerdahl's special teams units in College Station were also among the nation's best, ranking in the Top 20 in the nation in net punting 2006 (14th) and in 2007 (5th) and in kick-off returns in 2003 (10th), 2006 (2nd), and 2007 (20th).

The Alabama Crimson Tide were fortunate enough to land Tommerdahl's services during the 2001 and 2002 seasons as he served as the program's tight ends and special teams coach. He helped the Crimson Tide to the 2001 Independence Bowl and the 2002 SEC West Division title.

Tommerdahl also served as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator during stints at TCU (1998-2000), New Mexico (1997) and Minnesota (1995-96) where he coached a Lou Groza finalist at all three schools.

TCU's kickoff return units were ranked No. 1 in the nation in back-to-back seasons while his special teams units ranked No. 1 in the league in three of four statistical categories.

In 1997 at New Mexico, four of the Lobos special teams units were ranked in the top 20 in the country as the team won the WAC Mountain Division title.

The Fergus Falls, Minnesota native began his collegiate coaching career in 1984 as a graduate assistant at Wyoming where he spent the next 11 seasons serving in numerous capacities including the tight ends coach, offensive coordinator and backfield coach. He helped lead the Cowboys to four bowl appearances and three WAC titles.

Tommerdahl earned his bachelor's degree in business and physical education from Concordia College in 1983 and his master's degree in business administration from Wyoming in 1986. He is married to the former Annette Jondahl.

ZACH YENSER
GRADUATE ASSISTANT (OFFENSE)

Zach Yenser joined the Louisiana Tech football staff in March 2010 as a graduate assistant coach for the offense. Yenser comes to Tech after serving as the running backs coach and strength coordinator at Colquitt County High School in Moultrie, Ga.

While at Colquitt County HS, Yenser helped guide the Packers to an 11-3 record and an appearance in the Georgia 5-A state semifinals. Prior to coaching at Colquitt County HS, Yenser was an offensive line coach at Henderson State where his line only allowed 13 sacks in 430 attempts and the offense racked up 12 school records and on All-Gulf South Conference selection.

Yenser began his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater, Troy, where he was the offensive graduate assistant for the 2007 season, working specifically with the offensive line and special teams and helping the Trojans claim the 2007 Sun Belt title.

A 2007 graduate of Troy, Yenser was a four-year starter for the Trojans and helped the Trojans win the 2006 Sun Belt Conference championship, as well as the 2006 New Orleans Bowl title.

SCHIRRA FIELDS
GRADUATE ASSISTANT (DEFENSE)

Schirra Fields begins his second year as a member of the Louisiana Tech athletics program working and first working as the graduate assistant for the defense on the football team.

Fields joins the Louisiana Tech family after working at Tyler Junior College this past spring, coaching the defensive backs.

The Haynesville, La. native was a walk-on wide receiver at LSU from 2002 through 2005 during which time the Tigers won the 2003 National Championship title.

During his prep career, Fields lettered four years as a wide receiver and defensive back for legendary coach Red Franklin helping lead the Tornados to the 2000 Louisiana Class A state title.

Fields was named the Louisiana Class A State Defensive Player of the Year as a senior by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association.

He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology with a concentration in health and physical education from LSU in 2006 and plans to pursue his master's degree in sports management this spring.

ANNA KAY BANNISTER

Executive Assistant to Head Football Coach

Anna Kay Bannister joined the Louisiana Tech football staff in December 2009.

Anna Kay's duties include overseeing the day-to-day operations of the football office and providing administrative support to the head football coach.

Anna Kay graduated from Louisiana Tech University in March 2002 with a degree in psychology and has one daughter, Bailey.

KEITH BUNCH

Head Trainer

Keith Bunch enters his fourth year at Louisiana Tech as the head athletic trainer, where he oversees the Bulldogs' Sports Medicine Department while serving as the primary contact for the football program.

Bunch came to Ruston following a two-year stint as the associate head athletic trainer at Presbyterian College where he worked primarily with the Blue Hose football program. Prior to his time at PC, Bunch worked one year at Carolina Sportscare and Physical Therapy Clinic in Beaufort, S.C., while working with the area high school outreach program.

The 2002 graduate of the College of Charleston oversees a sports medicine department that works with Louisiana Tech's student-athletes from all 16 NCAA sanctioned programs.

Bunch earned his undergraduate degree in athletic training at the College of Charleston where he worked with the Cougars' women's soccer and baseball programs. While working on his bachelor's degree, Bunch completed a pair of internships with The Citadel football program in the fall of 2001 and Wando High School during the spring of 2002.

The Lodge, S.C., native earned his master's degree in higher education administration with a minor in sports management from Auburn in May of 2004. Bunch worked closely with the Tigers' football program during that time.

Bunch is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) and the Louisiana Athletic Trainers' Association (LATA).

JEFF COOPER

Athletic Turf Manager

Jeff Cooper begins his fifth year at Louisiana Tech working as the athletic turf manager.

His duties include maintenance of all intramural and Louisiana Tech athletics playing and practice fields. During football season, he and his staff handle upkeep, mowing and painting of the football practice fields and oversee the maintenance of the Field Turf at Joe Aillet Stadium.

He is also responsible for overseeing the field at the Lady Techster Softball Complex, J.C. Love Field at Pat Patterson Park and the newly constructed Louisiana Tech soccer field.

Cooper is originally from Ruston and graduated from Louisiana Tech in 1994 with a degree in finance. He and his wife Candace have three girls Farryn, Caroline and Harley.

MISSY FARRAR

Student Success Specialist

Missy Farrar enters her fourth year as the student success specialist for the Louisiana Tech football program, working closely with Assistant Athletics Director Lisa Merritt in the academic center.

Farrar oversees the academic progress of Bulldog players while also advising them regarding course schedules, monitoring eligibility status and providing general academic guidance.

Since joining the Tech athletics department, Farrar has teamed up with Merritt to help the University's student-athletes excel in the classroom. This past year, they were instrumental in helping eight of the 16 NCAA sanctioned programs at LA Tech earn their highest multi-year APR score ever while also seeing 94 student-athletes earn academic all-WAC honors.

Farrar's work with the Bulldog football players has shown results as this past year the program recorded its highest multi-year and single-year APR scores ever, while the team grade point average has also increased in each of Farrar's three years on staff.

During the past three years, 40 Bulldogs have earned their undergraduate degrees. Six student-athletes on this year's team that have already earned their degrees prior to stepping on the field for their final year of competition. Additionally, more than 25 LA Tech football players have earned academic all-WAC honors since 2007.

Former linebacker Quin Harris was named a 2008 National Scholar-Athlete by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame, earning him an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship. Harris was one of only 15 student-athletes to earn the award and was Louisiana Tech's first ever recipient.

The Delhi native served as the senior admissions counselor and recruiter in the Louisiana Tech admissions department since August of 2005 before moving to athletics. Farrar's experiences in the admissions department at Tech where she recruited, evaluated and advised students helped increase her awareness of the issues that affect student-athletes on a daily basis such as progression and eligibility.

She earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Louisiana Tech in 2002 while completing her master's degree in athletic administration from the University of Southern Mississippi in December of 2004.

THOMAS GRAHAM

Graduate Assistant (Strength and Conditioning)

After a four-year playing career at Louisiana Tech, Thomas Graham joins the Bulldog strength and conditioning staff for the upcoming 2010 season as a graduate assistant.

Graham followed in his older brother Matt's footsteps during the last four years where he started every game of his career as the Bulldogs' deep snapper, setting a new LA Tech career record for games played and started with 50.

After red-shirting in 2005 while his brother Matt finished his four-year career as the Tech deep snapper, Graham started all 50 games over the last four years, including the 2008 Independence Bowl victory over Northern Illinois.

In addition to the bowl victory, a couple of Graham's career highlights included recovering a fumble against Top 25 Boise State as a freshman and earning the LA Tech special teams player of the week award against Kansas as a junior.

Graham played three years for coaches Tommy Reeder and Billy Laird at Ruston High School where he earned all-state honorable mention honors his final two seasons.

LESLIE KILETICO

Recruiting Office Coordinator

Leslie Kiletico is in her fourth year with the Louisiana Tech football staff as the recruiting office coordinator.

Kiletico's duties in the football office include organizing recruiting visits for prospective student-athletes, planning travel for coaches' recruiting trips, compiling prospective player information and handling all mailings to recruits.

Kiletico graduated from Louisiana Tech in the spring of 2007 with a degree in marketing and is originally from Marrero.

HUNTER McWILLIAMS

Football Operations/Offensive Quality Control

Hunter McWilliams joined the Louisiana Tech staff in the spring of 2010 in charge of operations for the football program. McWilliams comes to Louisiana Tech after serving as a private deep snapper coach in 2009.

During 2009, McWilliams was not only a private deep snapper coach but he also coached offensive line at Westlake High School. McWilliams was also the defensive coordinator for Westlake's 7-on-7 team in 2005-06.

Since 2007, McWilliams has also worked as a financial advisor for Eltekon Financial.

A 2002 graduate of the University of Texas, McWilliams was a two-year starter at deep snapper for the Longhorns as a walk-on, converting 100 percent of his snaps.

McWilliams is the son of David McWilliams, former head coach of Texas and Texas Tech.

JACOB PEELER

Intern (Strength and Conditioning)

Jacob Peeler enters his second season as an intern in the Louisiana Tech strength and conditioning department under coach Damon Harrington.

Peeler returned to his alma mater after a short stint as the offensive line coach at Independence Community College in Kansas.

Prior to his time at Independence CC, Peeler served as the assistant offensive line coach at Itawamba Community College.

During his junior college playing career, Peeler played every offensive snap during his two years at Holmes Community College in 2002 and 2003 where he earned first team all-state and first team all-NJCAA Region 23 honors as well as All-American accolades.

After signing with LA Tech and redshirting in 2004, Peeler saw action in four games as a junior before starting all 13 games at center during his senior season helping pave the way for more than 4,000 offensive yards. He also earned Academic all-WAC honors.

Peeler earned his bachelor's degree in education from Louisiana Tech in 2006 and his master's in kinesiology from Mississippi State in 2008.

JEFFREY SPRINGER

Equipment Manager

Jeffrey Springer is in his fourth year serving as the equipment manager for the Bulldog football program.

Springer came to Louisiana Tech after holding the same position at The Citadel in 2007 where he joined the program in February of 2006.

The Slidell, La., native spent three years as the first assistant equipment manager at Louisiana State University where he worked primarily with football, as well as women's soccer, women's gymnastics, cheerleading, track and field/cross country and swimming and diving.

Prior to his time in Baton Rouge, Springer interned with the Miami Dolphins in the summer of 2001, followed by one year internships at LSU and Tulane University.

Springer earned a kinesiology degree from LSU in 2001. He is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and the American Football Coaches Association.

DAVID SNYDER

Director of Video Operations

David Snyder joined the Louisiana Tech football program in 2008 after serving at Indiana University and is now in his third year as Tech's Director of Video Operations.

Snyder is involved with all 16 NCAA sanctioned sports at Louisiana Tech, shooting, editing, putting together highlights and coordinating the efforts of the video department.

The Clemson grad played an integral role in helping coordinate the efforts of the new video board that was installed at Joe Aillet Stadium in the summer of 2009.

Snyder served as the Western Athletic Conference representative to the College Sports Video Association (CSVA) for the second year in a row.

While with the Hoosiers, Snyder worked as a graduate assistant for the football team's video department and earned a master's degree in sport management.

At Indiana, Snyder had responsibilities of filming and editing games, practices and opponents' film. He also maintained the cameras and related equipment.

Before his time at Indiana, Snyder earned his bachelor's in communication studies from Clemson where he worked as a student assistant videographer. At Clemson, he ran press conferences from a lighting and video aspect and also shot, edited and cut each sport's highlight tape.

Snyder also worked as a representative for the Big Ten Network for Indiana and has shot video packages for ACC Live, Fox Sports Net and ABC Sports.

Snyder married the former Elizabeth Davis in 2010. They both reside in Ruston.

CHRIS VASZILY

Intern (Strength and Conditioning)

Chris Vaszily returned to Louisiana Tech in 2010 as an intern for Damon Harrington with the strength and conditioning program. Vaszily comes to Tech after serving as the special teams coordinator for Louisiana-Monroe the past year.

Prior to his one year at Louisiana-Monroe, Vaszily served as the special teams coordinator for one year at Ouachita High School in Monroe after spending three years as a scout with the Atlanta Falcons organization.

Vaszily's first stint at Tech was from 2001-05 when he served as special teams, tight ends and wide receivers coach under former head coach Jack Bicknell. He was on staff when Louisiana Tech entered the Western Athletic Conference and won its first league title during the 2001 season.

Prior to his first stop in Ruston, Vaszily was the special teams coordinator and linebackers coach at Charleston Southern University for one season, a I-AA member of the Big South Conference. His year at Charleston Southern came after spending one season coaching tight ends, running backs and special teams for the Barcelona Dragons of the NFL Europe League.

Vaszily also has worked as the tight ends, receivers and special teams coach at Liberty during the 1999 season, was the defensive backs coach and assistant strength coach at Itawamba Community College during the 1997-98 seasons and was an a strength and conditioning intern for Mississippi State in 1994. He broke into the coaching ranks at North Penn High School in Lansdale, Pa., coaching defensive backs and receivers.

Vaszily is a 1990 graduate of Albright College and earned his master's in sport science from the United States Sports Academy in 1994.

DR. BILLY BUNDRICK

Head Team Physician/Orthopedic Surgeon

When it comes to athletic injuries at Louisiana Tech, the Bulldogs and Lady Techsters look to one of their own as well as one of the best in the United States -- Dr. Billy Bundrick.

Dr. Bundrick, who runs the Bone and Joint Clinic in Shreveport, La., has been a familiar face to the Louisiana Tech athletic programs for many years.

"I enjoy working with the athletes at Louisiana Tech," Dr. Bundrick said. "It is a joy to work with athletes because they are people who want to get better and get back on the field."

It was in 1957 that Dr. Bundrick, a young standout football player, decided to transfer to Louisiana Tech from Texas A&M. He earned three letters in football at Tech, including co-captaining the 1959 team to a 9-1 record. He gave up football after that season, graduated from Tech and went to LSU Medical School in New Orleans.

Ever since those playing days as a Bulldog, Dr. Bundrick has loved Louisiana Tech University and its athletic programs.

In 1969, Dr. Bundrick joined the staff at the Bone and Joint Clinic in Shreveport, and he has remained one of the chief orthopedic doctors in the South ever since.

He regained his connection with Louisiana Tech in 1973 when former Bulldog coach Pat Collins saw him at a Captain Shreve High School football game and asked him if he could travel to Ruston to help with the medical treatment of the players during practices. Dr. Bundrick agreed and has been going back and forth from Shreveport to Ruston for the past 30-plus years.

Dr. Bundrick's association with Tech has reached almost four decades and he says he still loves every minute of what he does. Most recently, he was honored by the American Academy of Sports Medicine with the Thomas Brady Award, which recognizes local excellence in sports medicine.

Funded by the generous support of Dr. Bundrick, the Tech Sports Medicine Department now has a state-of-the-art training and rehabilitation facilitiy in the William S. Bundrick Sports Medicine Center located in the Charles Wyly Athletic Center.

The 3,800 square foot facility contains a Swimex therapeutic pool, cardiovascular equipment, private staff offices and a physician's examination room.

Dr. Bundrick is married to Linda C. Covington.

DR. SHANE PHILLIPS

Team Physician

One of Louisiana Tech's own returned home six years ago as Dr. Shane Phillips opened his private medical practice and took over as the primary care physician for the Bulldogs and Lady Techster athletic programs.

Dr. Phillips attended Cedar Creek High School in Ruston before picking up his undergraduate degree at Louisiana Tech in 1993. He then moved on to medical school at Louisiana State University of Medicine in New Orleans where he graduated in 1999.

He completed his residency at the University of Alabama Family Practice Residency Program in Tuscaloosa and wrapped up his fellowship at the American Sports Medicine Institute in Birmingham.

During his fellowship, he worked closely with Samford University and Birmingham Southern University, serving as those schools' team physician.

The 39-year-old also serves as team physician for Cedar Creek High School.

Dr. Phillips, who is the great grandson of Thomas Assembly Center namesake Sam Thomas, is a member of TeamMD, an area high school sports medicine outreach program that covers 22 local high schools in the north Louisiana area.

Dr. Phillips is married to Lauren DeCou and he has a 16-year-old stepson named Zach, a three-year-old son named Beau and a one-year-old daughter Emma.

JOE AILLET STADIUM

Joe Aillet Stadium has been home to Louisiana Tech football for the past 40 years as Bulldog fans have watched legends such as Terry Bradshaw, Roger Carr, Fred Dean, Pat Tilley, Matt Dunigan, William Roaf, Troy Edwards and Tim Rattay all don the Tech red and blue.

Opened in 1968 at a capacity of 23,000, Joe Aillet Stadium -- which wasn't given its current name until Nov. 11, 1972, when it was dedicated in honor of the former Tech coaching legend -- has proven instrumental in some of the biggest wins in the program's 100-plus year history.

The facility was upgraded in 1985 when a luxury sky box was added to the press box and again in 1989, when an additional 7,600 seats were added, increasing the seating capacity to 30,600.

In the summer of 2006 Joe Aillet Stadium received a new surface as FieldTurf Mono -- which is considered the top of the line artificial turf -- was installed by FieldTurf Tarkett. In the summer of 2008, that turf was replaced with a new version to include the athletic department's new logo.

A brand new, state-of-the-art videoboard was installed in the north end zone in time for the 2009 season, a $2 million addition to the facility. Built by Daktronics, the national leader in scoreboard and videoboard manufacturers, it is 25' x 45' and can show one display or be split into multiple replays. In addition, the south end zone received a brand new LED scoreboard that all fans can easily see during the day or at night.

The stadium's namesake -- Joe Aillet is now a member of the Louisiana Tech Athletics Hall of Fame and the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame -- guided his Tech teams to a 151-86-8 record and nine conference championships from 1940-1966. The winning tradition Aillet established during his days of coaching at Louisiana Tech has continued as the Bulldogs have posted 10 perfect seasons in the facility's history.

From the first game ever played in the stadium, a 35-7 win over East Carolina on Sept. 28, 1968, to a 22-14 victory over SEC foe Mississippi State in 2008, Joe Aillet Stadium been the site of some of the most magical moments in Louisiana Tech football history.

Joe Aillet Stadium has proven to be a tough place for opposing teams to play for almost four decades. Over the course of the stadium's history, Tech has dominated opponents as the 127-50-2 record indicates, a winning percentage of 71.8 percent. Since Tech moved up to Division I-A in 1989, the Bulldogs have registered a mark of 65-24 at Joe Aillet Stadium, a winning percentage of about 73.0 percent.

In that inaugural game against East Carolina at Joe Aillet Stadium, a young quarterback named Terry Bradshaw guided the Bulldogs to the victory as Tech fullback Buster Herren scored the first touchdown ever at the stadium on a two-yard run with 6:20 remaining in the second quarter. It was just the first of many memorable moments for Tech fans in Ruston.

On two different occasions over the past 40 years, Tech has registered streaks of 18 straight wins at Joe Aillet Stadium.

The first such streak started with a 23-0 win over UL-Monroe in the final game of the 1971 season and ended with a 49-20 win over Tennessee-Chattanooga in the fifth game of the 1975 season. That run by coach Maxie Lambright's teams included two small college and one Division II national championship seasons.

During the late '80s and early '90s, the Bulldogs won their first 18 home games after joining the Division I-A ranks. Tech defeated Northern Illinois 42-21 in the first home game of the 1989 season to begin the streak with the last of the 18 wins being a 17-16 victory over Northern Illinois in 1993.

Included in that string of wins was a 31-30 victory over Colorado State on Nov. 17, 1990, that catapulted the Bulldogs into the 1990 Independence Bowl. Tech trailed 30-14 late in the third quarter before scoring 17 unanswered points, capped by Gene Johnson's 16-yard touchdown pass to Bobby Slaughter with 2:14 to play. The Bulldog defense held the Rams to four and out on their final possession as a wild celebration ensued, which ultimately ended in the goalposts in the south end zone being torn down by Tech fans.

One of the biggest individual matchups in the stadium's history came on Sept. 5, 1998, when two future NFL quarterbacks squared off as Central Florida's Daunte Culpepper led his team to a 64-30 win over Tech's Tim Rattay and the Bulldogs. Culpepper passed for 370 yards and four scores while rushing for 69 yards and two more touchdowns while Rattay passed for 524 yards and three touchdowns.

The 2000 season saw a milestone reached at Joe Aillet Stadium as the Bulldogs under head coach Jack Bicknell recorded the 100th win in the facility's history. True freshman quarterback Luke McCown tied an NCAA Division I freshman record by tossing six touchdowns in the milestone 48-14 victory over UL-Lafayette on Oct. 14, 2000.

Joe Aillet Stadium hosted its first nationally televised game on Dec. 5, 2002, when ESPN came to town to produce Louisiana Tech's game against Fresno State. Although Tech fell in the contest, it was another milestone for the program and the facility it has called home.

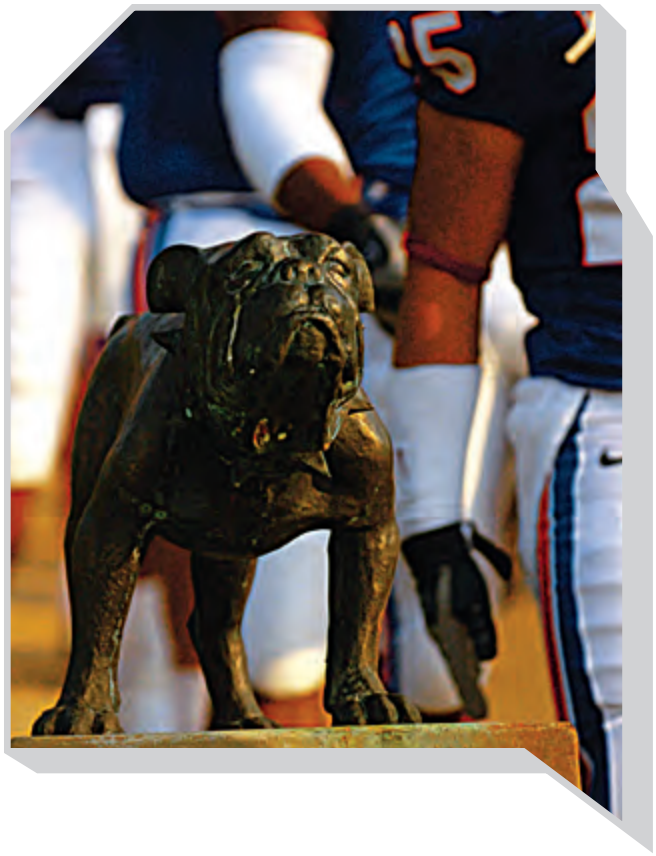
The 2004 season opened with another nationally televised home game, as the Bulldogs defeated Nevada 38-21 Sept. 6 on ESPN2. This was just a preview of things to come during the season at Joe Aillet Stadium.

Less than one month later, Tech fans were able to witness one of the greatest games in Joe Aillet Stadium history, as Louisiana Tech downed No. 17 Fresno State 28-21 on Oct. 2. Tech trailed 13-0 early in the second quarter before running back Ryan Moats and the Bulldog defense turned up their level of play. Moats rushed for 236 yards and four scores, including the game-winner with just under four minutes to play, which was set up by an interception deep in Fresno State territory.

The win was sealed when Tramon Williams intercepted Paul Pinegar with less than :30 remaining, starting a wild celebration that saw the goalposts in both end zones torn down.

These games and many more are what have made Tech fans the real winners over the years.

As the warm fall evenings approach and another year of Bulldog football begins, Joe Aillet Stadium will once again host some of the best college football the nation has to offer.



SPIRIT OF '88

At the south end of Joe Aillet Stadium stands a bronze Bulldog statue named the Spirit of '88.

The statue commemorates the 1988 Bulldog football team which blazed the path into Division I-A football for Louisiana Tech.

That 1988 team had to endure one of the most difficult schedules in school history. In what was the nation's 11th toughest schedule that year, the Bulldogs faced five I-A bowl teams including Houston, Florida State and Texas A&M.

The results were as expected: losses like 60-0, 56-17 and 66-3 ... but as a team, the Bulldogs grew. Those experiences likely played a key role in Tech finishing 5-4-1 the following year, its first in I-A, and 8-3-1 in 1990's Independence Bowl season.

The statue, which every Tech player touches as he walks down the ramp before every home game, also brought good fortune to the Bulldogs at home. On Oct. 14, 1989, when it was unveiled, Tech proceeded to pummel a very good Northern Illinois team, 42-21. That was just the start of one of the best runs in Tech football history.

Over the next four-plus seasons, home games were few and far between, but each one resulted in a win. The Bulldogs eventually reeled off 18 consecutive home victories, tying the all-time stadium record set by head coach Maxie Lambright's great teams of the early 1970s.

Some wins have been more magical than others. The endings to three of the biggest wins in school history have taken place in the south end zone ... almost as if the Spirit of '88 has played an integral role.

In only Louisiana Tech's second season in the Division I-A ranks, the Bulldogs trailed Colorado State 30-14 late in the third quarter and their bowl hopes looked bleak. However, 17 unanswered points later, Tech had rallied for a 31-30 win over the bowl-bound Rams to earn their own Independence Bowl berth.

The winning touchdown pass from Gene Johnson to Bobby Slaughter in the final minutes came fittingly in the south end zone, just in front of the Spirit of '88.

Eleven years later, Tech clinched a share of its first Western Athletic Conference title with a 48-42 win over Boise State at Joe Aillet Stadium. With the Broncos driving towards what looked like a game-winning score late in the contest, the Spirit of '88 magic struck once again.

Ryan Dinwiddie's potential game-winning touchdown pass bounced off the helmet of a Tech defender and high into the air before Bulldog defensive lineman Brandon Avance plucked it out of the air, giving Tech the victory.

Some might say it's a coincidence that the two biggest wins in the program's Division I-A history had been decided in the south end zone under the watchful eyes of the Spirit of '88.

However, the third time proved it was more than just chance.

On a warm Oct. 2 evening in 2004, Louisiana Tech found itself trailing No. 17 ranked Fresno State 21-20 late in the fourth quarter. Fresno State had the football and the momentum, trying to move out of its own end zone – the south end zone – against a Tech defense and its 12th man, or should we say Dawg.

On third down Fresno State quarterback Paul Pinegar was intercepted by Byron Santiago who returned the football down to the 16-yard line.

Two plays later, Ryan Moats gave Tech a 28-21 lead and the eventual win as he rushed eight yards to the right corner of the south end zone. The Bulldogs had defeated the 17th-ranked team in the nation.

A Joe Aillet Stadium crowd of almost 20,000 celebrated wildly with the Tech players, coaches and the Spirit of '88.

Some may say the powers of that bronze Bulldog are a fluke. Tech fans won't agree. The numbers say 65 wins and just 24 losses since the Spirit of '88 was unveiled.

So fluke or not, the Bulldogs will continue to touch it each home game and hope the wins continue.

All-Time Record: 127-50-2

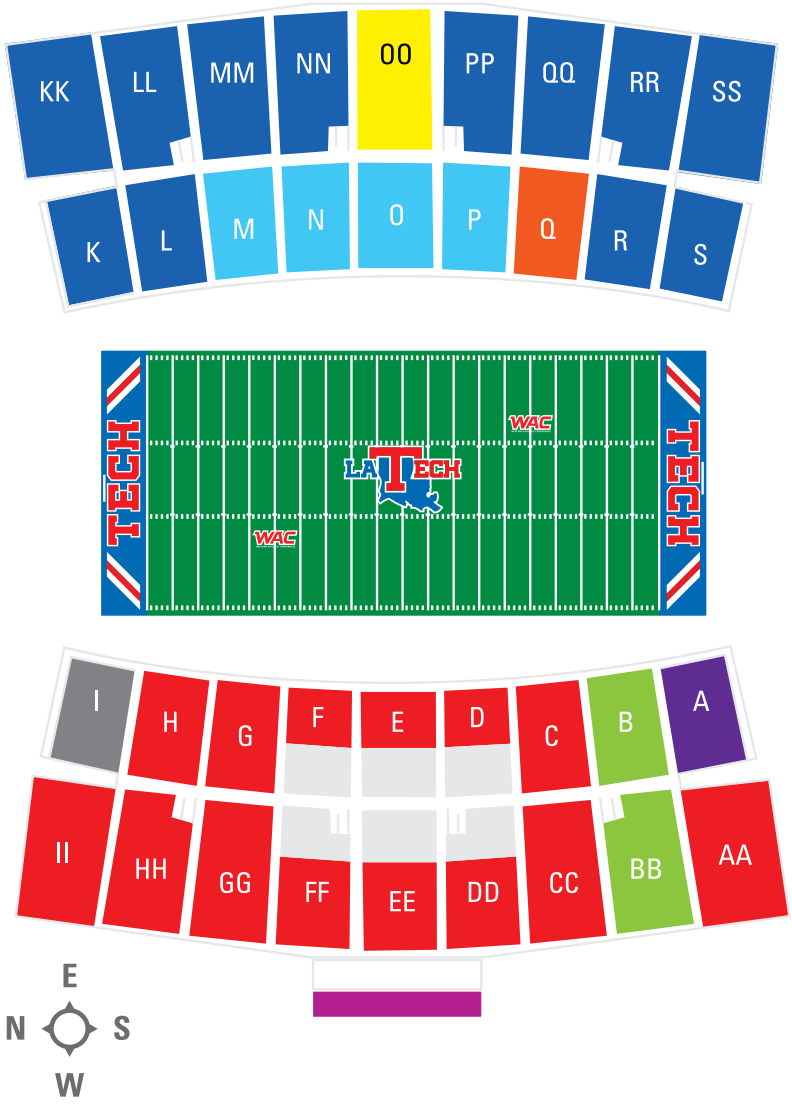
Playing Surface: FieldTurf Mono

Lighting: Eight banks of lights with 1,500-watt metal halite bulbs in the middle and incandescent bulbs on the outside of each set suspended on poles 150 feet above the field's surface.

Scoreboards: A newly-installed Daktronics light emitting diode (LED) video and scoreboard system measuring 25 feet tall by 45 feet wide at the north end of Joe Aillet Stadium. The videoboard can operate as a single giant display or can be divided into multiple zones to show a wide variety of statistics, information, graphics, animation and live and recorded video. A custom LED scoreboard also adds to the exciting game-day environment at the opposite end of the stadium. The scoreboard at the north end also includes a custom sound system, which delivers pounding bass energy, smooth mid and high range frequencies and high impact entertainment.

Press Box: A three-level structure with 67 seats on two seating platforms for the print media on the lower level, and eight radio/scouting booths and camera deck on the second level. Facility includes concessions service and lavatories. Levels one and two are served by a private elevator.

Skybox: Located on the third level of the press box, it features plush theater-type seating for more than 200 fans. Fully air-conditioned and heated, it is accessible by private elevator. Has two kitchen areas and lavatories. Guests are provided parking downstairs and are served a delicious catered meal.



INDEPENDENCE STADIUM

Independence Stadium and Louisiana Tech have a long, successful history together as the Bulldogs have played 70 games in Shreveport, including four trips to the Independence Bowl.

All-time the Bulldogs are 45-22-3 (.643) in games played in Independence Stadium.

Northwestern State is the most common opponent for Tech in Shreveport as the two programs met 48 times with the Bulldogs claiming a 34-12-2 mark in those games. The Bulldogs defeated the Demons 24-0 in their first game ever played in Shreveport in 1916.

Although the majority of the games that Tech has played in Shreveport came during the old State Fair Games against Northwestern State, starting in the late '30s and ending in the late '80s, Tech has played some other big-time college football games at the site.

In the last two decades, Louisiana Tech has faced Northern Illinois (2008), Houston (1988), Maryland (1990), Baylor (1996), California (1997), Texas A&M (1999), Oklahoma State (2002) and Miami (2003) at Independence Stadium. Thrilling last-minute victories against California (41-34) and Oklahoma State (39-36) highlight the Bulldogs' successful history in Shreveport.

In all, Tech has played 19 different teams at Independence Stadium, and the Bulldogs have appeared in four Independence Bowls, beating Louisville 24-14 in 1977, losing 35-13 to East Carolina in 1978, tying Maryland 34-34 in 1990 and defeating Northern Illinois 17-10 in 2008.

Louisiana Tech opened the 2003 season at Independence Stadium as the Bulldogs played host to five-time national champion Miami on Aug. 28, 2003, in a nationally televised game on ESPN, which saw a Louisiana Tech regular season home attendance record of 43,279.

[IB] - Independence Bowl

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The WAC champion will receive an automatic berth in one of the five BCS bowl games if ranked in the top 12 of the BCS Standings (and is the highest ranked team from a conference without an automatic bid) or if ranked in the top 16 of the BCS Standings and its ranking is higher than that of a champion of a conference that has an annual automatic berth in one of the BCS bowls. The BCS Standings are determined by a formula involving polls and computer rankings. This year's National Championship Game will be played in Glendale, Ariz. on Jan. 10, 2011.

NEW MEXICO BOWL

The fifth annual New Mexico Bowl will be contested in Albuquerque, N.M., on Dec. 18 (ESPN). The bowl will feature a WAC team against a team from the Mountain West Conference. Last year, Fresno State took a 28-17 in the fourth quarter, but lost 35-28 to Wyoming in double overtime.

SHERATON HAWAI'I BOWL

The ninth Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl will be played in Honolulu, Hawaii, on Dec. 24 (ESPN). The game will select a WAC team and will match it against a Conference USA opponent. Last year, Nevada made its second appearance in the bowl game losing 45-10 to SMU.

UDROVE HUMANITARIAN BOWL

The 14th uDrove Humanitarian Bowl will be contested in Boise, Idaho, on Dec. 18 (ESPN). The Bowl will select a WAC team and will match it against a team from the MAC. Last year, Idaho received its second invite to the bowl. The Vandals beat Bowling Green, 43-42, after scoring a touchdown and going for two with four seconds left in the game.

KRAFT FIGHT HUNGER BOWL

The ninth Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl (formerly Emerald Bowl) will by played at AT&T Park in San Francisco, Calif., on Jan. 9, 2011. The WAC will make its first appearance in the bowl game and will be paired against a team from the Pac-10.

SAN DIEGO COUNTY CREDIT UNION POINSETTIA BOWL

The WAC has a secondary tie-in with the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. The agreement stipulates that if Navy is not bowl eligible in 2010, the bowl will select a school from the WAC. The opponent would be a team from the Mountain West and the game will be played on Dec. 23 (ESPN).

WAC

WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

In its nearly 50 years of existence, the Western Athletic Conference continues to evolve and feature some of the nation's best intercollegiate competition. One thing that remains unchanged is the persistent nature of the nine schools in the WAC to advance their programs to contend at the top levels of the NCAA.

The WAC provides its student-athletes the chance to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation's most diverse markets. In addition, the WAC's student-athletes work to achieve the highest levels of success with the academic support of their respective institutions.

The WAC has experienced tremendous success. The WAC has sent a total of 31 teams to bowl games since 2001, including more than half of its teams in 2008 with a record-tying five teams. Boise State has won 102 football games since joining the conference, the most in the nation during that time span (2001-09). The conference has sent teams to BCS bowl games in three of the last four seasons as Boise State made a repeat appearance with a victory in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl this past year following Hawai'i's 2008 Sugar Bowl and Boise State's unforgettable victory in the 2007 Fiesta Bowl. In men's basketball, the WAC has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Tournament in 24 of the past 27 seasons. Every current school in the WAC has competed in the NCAA Tournament since 1990. In baseball, the WAC has boasted two national champions since 2003 including Fresno State's College World Series victory in 2008. In women's sports, Fresno State softball has competed in every NCAA Tournament ever held while Louisiana Tech basketball has played in all but three. In 2009, Hawai'i made its fourth trip to the NCAA Volleyball Final Four since 2000.

Current WAC alums have made their presence felt as well. David Carr (Fresno State) was the first player selected in the 2002 NFL Draft. Cheryl Ford (Louisiana Tech) was named the WNBA Rookie of the Year and helped the Detroit Shock win the league's championship in 2003. In 2004, the United States' softball team won the Olympic gold medal with former Fresno State players Laura Berg and Lovie Jung. Jeff Weaver (Fresno State) earned the win in the St. Louis Cardinals' World Series clinching victory in 2006. Quarterback Colt Brennan (Hawai'i) finished third in the 2007 Heisman Trophy voting, and in 2008, Natasha Kai (Hawai'i) helped the United States to a gold medal in soccer at the Olympics in Beijing.

In 2001, the WAC partnered with ESPN for coverage of football and basketball giving the conference national exposure from one of the most respected broadcast entities in the country. An extension was signed in 2008 that guarantees over 300 regular season WAC contests and 45 championship events will be aired on the ESPN networks through the spring of 2017. The WAC also officially added WAC.tv in 2006 to give fans streaming internet access to many of its post-season championships including volleyball, soccer, swimming and diving, basketball, gymnastics, softball and baseball.

The WAC is the sixth oldest among the nation's 11 Division I-A conferences. Its history traces back to July 27, 1962, when the original six-team league of Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming began competition.

The first championship was held in November 1962, when Arizona won the men's cross country title and New Mexico followed with the first WAC football title. Arizona finished second in the NCAA College World Series and, less than three years later, Arizona State claimed the league's first NCAA title when the Sun Devils won the College World Series trophy. Fresno State was the last WAC school to earn an NCAA team title when it won the College World Series in 2008.

Since 1962, several changes have occurred. UTEP and Colorado State became members in September 1967, while Arizona and Arizona State withdrew on June 30, 1978. The WAC then added San Diego State (1978), Hawai'i (1979) and Air Force (1980). Before 1990, the WAC sponsored championships only in men's sports. However, a merger with the High Country Athletic Conference formed a single conference under one administrative structure, and the 1990-91 athletic year was the first in which both men and women competed under the WAC name. Fresno State was added in 1992, and then in 1996, the women's programs from Air Force and Hawai'i along with six new schools (UNLV, Rice, San Jose State, SMU, TCU and Tulsa) came into the WAC. Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, UNLV, New Mexico, San Diego State, Utah and Wyoming withdrew on June 30, 1999. Nevada (2000), Boise State (2001) and Louisiana Tech (2001) were added while TCU withdrew following the 2000-01 season. The current membership was established on July 1, 2005, when Idaho, New Mexico State and Utah State joined the WAC

The WAC has had just five commissioners in its history. Paul Brechler was named the first leader of the conference and held the position from 1962-1968. He was followed by Wiles Hallock (1968-71), Stan Bates (1971-80), Dr. Joe Kearney (1980-94) and Karl Benson (1994-present).

Presently, the WAC crowns team and individual champions in 19 sports – eight men's and 11 women's. For the men, there are championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis, indoor track and field and outdoor track and field. Championships for women are held in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and volleyball.

The WAC office has been located in the Denver area since the conference's inception with the exception of a two-year stay in Phoenix from 1964-66.

KARL BENSON, WAC COMMISSIONER

When Karl Benson was named the fifth commissioner in the history of the Western Athletic Conference on April 20, 1994, he brought with him a wealth of experience and a personal history of success to the position.

Since that time, Benson not only has laid a strong foundation for the WAC's future, he also steered the conference through unsettled times during the late 1990s and again a few years later when the defection of member institutions threatened the WAC.

Through his leadership and vision, it didn't take long for the WAC to regain its place among the nation's top Division I conferences. Benson has spearheaded conference expansion with the additions of Nevada, Boise State and Louisiana Tech earlier this decade and an additional round of expansion with the invitations of New Mexico State, Utah State and Idaho a few years ago.

Nationally, Benson has earned the respect of his peers after serving on the NCAA Management Council from 1999-2002, and a five-year term on the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee from 2002-06.

Benson hit the ground running when he was hired in 1994 and initiated several programs that improved the conference's national position in virtually ever category. He was instrumental in developing multi-year agreements with the Holiday Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Copper Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl, Silicon Valley Football Classic, GMAC Bowl and currently, the Humanitarian Bowl, Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, New Mexico Bowl, Poinsettia Bowl and Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl.

In the summer of 2005, he implemented "Play Up" a new marketing campaign to improve the public and private perceptions of the WAC and its members through national, local and regional touch points. The conference officially added WAC.tv prior to the 2006-07 season, giving fans streaming video access to many of the postseason championships of the sports offered by the WAC.

In 1995-96, the WAC signed an exclusive multi-year agreement with ESPN for the unprecedented live telecast of its basketball and football. Included in that deal was a women's basketball contract, the first in conference history. In 2008, Benson negotiated an extension with ESPN that gives the WAC over 300 regular season contests and 45 championship events that will be aired through the 2016-17 season.

Benson came to the WAC after four successful years as the commissioner of the Mid-American Conference. There, he implemented several innovative projects and was instrumental in the formation of the Las Vegas Bowl.

Prior to taking the reins of the MAC, Benson served on the NCAA staff for more than four years where he was the director of NCAA championships when selected as MAC commissioner.

Benson joined the NCAA staff in January, 1986, as a compliance representative and was appointed assistant director of championships in June, 1987. He was promoted to director of championships in 1988. In that position, Benson actively supervised eight assistant directors in their administration of 68 NCAA championships.

A native of the state of Washington, Benson graduated from high school in Pullman in 1970, attended Spokane Falls Community College and then received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from Boise State University in 1975. He has also completed course work toward his master's degree in athletics administration at the University of Utah.

Benson played baseball at both Spokane Falls Community College and Boise State University before serving as the baseball coach at Fort Steilacoom Community College in Tacoma, Wash., for eight years and as the director of athletics at Fort Steilacoom from 1979-84. From 1984-86, he was an assistant baseball coach and an administrative assistant in the athletics department at Utah.

He received the Distinguished Alumni Award from Boise State in April of 2006.

Benson was born on December 1, 1951 and has one daughter, Jessie, 18.

AUBURN 37, LA TECH 13
SEPTEMBER 5, 2009
JORDAN-HARE STADIUM, AUBURN, ALA.

AUBURN, Ala. - Auburn quarterback Chris Todd connected with Terrell Zachary for a 93-yard touchdown pass early in the third quarter to ignite a strong second half by the Tigers who defeated Louisiana Tech 37-13 before over 81,143 fans Saturday night at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

The Bulldogs stood toe-to-toe with the Tigers (1-0) in the opening two quarters as only a 49-yard Wes Byrum field goal as time expired in the half separated the two teams as Auburn led 13-10 entering the locker room.

However, early in the second half with LA Tech driving, the Tigers defense intercepted Ross Jenkins on their own three-yard line. On a third down and five play following the turnover, Todd hit Zachary on an out-and-up and Zachary raced untouched to the end zone giving Auburn a 20-10 lead.

The Bulldogs would get no closer than 10 points the rest of the game as the Tigers outscored them 24-3 over the final two quarters.

Auburn racked up over 500 yards of total offense in the game, including more than 200 on both the ground and through the air. After not surrendering a 100-yard rusher in 2008, the LA Tech defense saw both Ben Tate (20-117) and Onterio McCalebb (22-148) eclipse the plateau. McCalebb became the first Auburn freshman to rush for more than 100 yards in their first career game since Bo Jackson accomplished the feat in 1982.

The Bulldogs totaled 245 yards of total offense and 19 first downs.

Daniel Porter led Tech with 56 yards on 17 carries while Jenkins completed 18-of-33 passes for 149 yards, one touchdown and one interception. Jenkins started the game hitting on his first 10 attempts, a career best, as his first incompletion didn't occur until less than four minutes remaining in the second quarter.

Auburn took an early 3-0 lead as the Tigers marched 69 yards on 13 plays before Wes Byrum connected from 26-yards out. The drive was aided by a roughing the passer call against the Bulldogs around midfield after it appeared Tech had stopped the drive on an incomplete third down pass by UA quarterback Chris Todd.

However, the Auburn lead was short-lived as the Bulldogs took their opening possession and drove 72 yards on eight plays as Ross Jenkins hit Dennis Morris on a 19-yard touchdown pass in the back of the endzone, giving LA Tech a 7-3 advantage. Morris leaped high between two Auburn defenders to pull down the scoring toss with 5:00 to play in the opening quarter.

The Tech scoring drive was also aided by the yellow flag as Auburn was penalized 45 yards on one pass interference penalty and two face mask penalties.

Auburn responded on its next offensive series as Kodi Burns scored from one-yard out with 1:33 to play in the first quarter, making the score 10-7 Auburn. The touchdown run capped a 10-play, 66-yard drive that was highlighted by a 26-yard toss from Todd to Mario Fannin.

Following the third score in the first three possessions of the game, the two defenses settled down. Auburn appeared to be driving midway through the second quarter when Bulldog defensive lineman Matt Broha recovered a Tigers fumble on the LA Tech six-yard line with 7:07 to play in the second quarter.

Tech's offense then put its best drive of the night together, converting four third downs on an 18-play, 90-yard march that led to a Matt Nelson 20-yard field goal, tying the game at 10-10 with only 0:23 remaining in the half. Nelson's field goal, the first of his career, came one play after Adrian Linwood pulled down a Jenkins pass in the corner of the endzone but came down just out of bounds.

On the drive Jenkins threw his first incompletion of the night after starting the game with 10 straight completions.

The game would not remain tied for long as Auburn started on its own 40-yard line and used three plays to set up a 49-yard Byrum field goal as time expired as the Tigers entered the locker room leading 13-10.

After Auburn scored the first 10 points of the second half, Nelson booted a 46-yard field goal attempt to close the margin to 23-13 with 00:52 to play in the third quarter.

However, the Tigers scored two touchdowns in the final 15 minutes - a 17-yard pass from Todd to Darvin Adams and a three-yard run by Onterio McCalebb.

Adrien Cole led Tech defensively with 10 tackles.

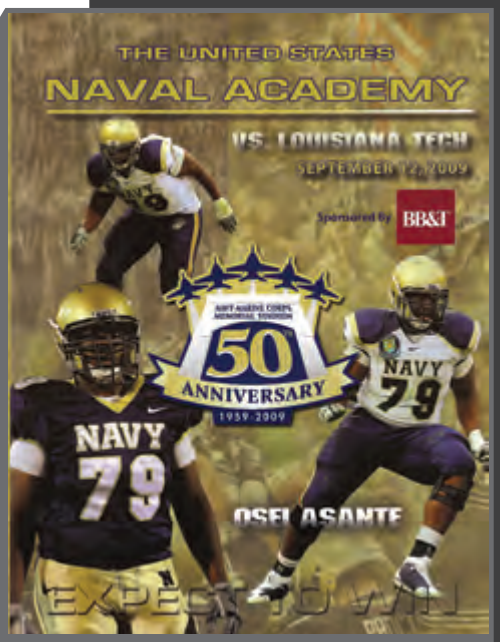
NAVY 32, LA TECH 14
SEPTEMBER 12, 2009
NAVY-MARINE CORPS MEMORIAL STADIUM, ANNAPOLIS, MD.



ANNAPOLIS, Md. - Louisiana Tech built a 14-point lead and then watched it disappear in a 32-14 loss to Navy Saturday afternoon at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

The Bulldogs jumped out to a 14-0 advantage less than six minutes into the game compliments of a Daniel Porter three-yard touchdown run and a Phillip Livas 85-yard punt return before Navy scored 32 unanswered points as LA Tech fell to 0-2 on the season.

Tech marched 74 yards on 10 plays on its opening possession as Porter gave the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead on the three-yard run with 11:15 to play in the first quarter. Quarterback Ross Jenkins orchestrated the drive, completing 6-of-7 passes for 74 yards, including a key 27-yard completion to RP Stuart down to the Navy three-yard line on a third-and-16 play.

After a three-and-out by the Midshipmen, Livas provided the Bulldog faithful an electrifying 85-yard punt return for a touchdown. Livas fielded the punt on the Bulldogs 15-yard line, burst up the middle and then took it outside racing untouched down the Bulldog sideline for an 85-yard punt return for a touchdown and a 14-0 lead.

"Well, he does what he's been doing for three years now, and it does not surprise us when he takes one to the house," Louisiana Tech head coach Derek Dooley said. "We just hope he gets a chance and they gave us a chance so we took advantage of it."

The punt return for a score was the third of Livas' career, tying him with Larry Anderson for the most in Bulldog history. It was also his fifth kick return (punt + kickoff) for a score, also tying Anderson for the most in the record book. It was the fifth longest punt return in Bulldog history and Livas' career long.

It was also the first punt return for a touchdown allowed by Navy since Aug. 30, 2001.

However, it would be the final offensive fireworks of the day for Tech which recorded only 167 total yards on the day, only 51 coming in the second half.

Navy made the score 14-3 with 4:31 to play in the opening quarter on a 43-yard field goal by Joe Buckley, the first of his college career.

The Midshipmen cut the deficit to 14-10 late in the first quarter on a 16-yard scamper down the right side by Cory Finnerty. The score was set up after Navy intercepted a Jenkins pass on a play where freshman Lyle Fitte had the pass bounce off his hands and into the air where Jabaree Tuani picked it off.

Navy took its first lead of the game on a three-yard touchdown run by Ricky Dobbs with 11:10 to play in the second quarter. Dobbs run capped a 48-yard scoring drive after Navy took over possession inside the Bulldogs side of the field following a 17-yard punt by LA Tech.

Neither team scored the rest of the half although Navy missed on a golden opportunity when wide receiver Doug Furman got behind the Bulldog secondary but dropped a sure touchdown pass from Dobbs around the LA Tech five-yard line. Navy would miss a short field goal attempt right before the half as the Midshipmen led 18-14.

After both team's offenses were unable to score in the third quarter, Navy put the game away in the final 15 minutes as Marcus Curry scored on a three-yard run and Dobbs added a two-yard run to give the Midshipmen the victory.

Jenkins finished the game 18-of-29 for 156 yards and one interception while Houston Tuminello (4-29), Porter (4-24), Stuart (3-43) and Dennis Morris (3-26) were the leading receivers for the Bulldogs.

For the second consecutive game, Tech struggled on the ground as the Midshipmen - who have led the country in rushing for four straight years - outrushed the Bulldogs 290-11. Porter led Tech with 44 yards on 10 carries.

Curry led Navy with 124 yards on 15 attempts while Dobbs was held in check by the Bulldogs with 47 yards on 25 carries.

Defensively, Antonio Baker recorded a game-high 12 tackles while Jay Dudley added nine, and Adrien Cole and D'Anthony Smith totaled eight tackles each.

LA TECH 48, NICHOLLS STATE 13
SEPTEMBER 19, 2009
JOE AILLET STADIUM, RUSTON, LA.

RUSTON, La. - Ross Jenkins passed for a career-high 357 yards and two scores to lead Louisiana Tech to a 48-13 win over Nicholls State before 19,400 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium Saturday night.

The Bulldogs (1-2) blew open a close game by scoring three touchdowns in the third quarter as Tech improved to 4-0 all-time against the Colonels (1-2).

"It was obviously a good win, as they all are," said Tech head coach Derek Dooley. "I was very proud of how we came out in the second half. I knew it was going to be tough. They're never easy. I told the team the third quarter was going to define the character of our football team, and the competitive nature of our team."

After struggling offensively in the second half of the first two games of the year, Louisiana Tech erupted by scoring five touchdowns over the final 30 minutes of action.

Leading 13-3 at the break, Tech struck quickly in the third quarter as freshman tailback DJ Morrow started the frame with a nine-yard touchdown run that capped a three-play, 60-yard drive coming out of the halftime locker room. The scoring drive was highlighted by a 50-yard connection between Jenkins and Phillip Livas on the first play from scrimmage in the third quarter.

"The first three minutes of the second half was pretty much the deciding factor," said Nicholls State head coach Jay Thomas. "Livas hit use with only one big play. It was a good call and we lined up on him wrong, didn't get the right leverage and had a new guy out there trying to cover him."

Just over one minute later, Tech's defense struck as Deon Young intercepted Jacob Witt – his second pass of the night - and returned it 32-yards down the left sideline for a score as the Bulldogs led 27-3. Young had intercepted a Witt pass on the second play of the game which set up a Matt Nelson 24-yard field goal and gave Tech an early 3-0 advantage.

The score remained 27-3 until Jenkins found Dennis Morris on a swing pass on a third down play as the tight end raced down the left sideline stiff-arming one Colonel defender for a 37-yard score and a 34-3 LA Tech lead with 4:47 to play in the third quarter. The play capped an impressive 10-play, 97-yard drive that took 4:43 off the game clock.

Jenkins opened the fourth quarter with his second scoring toss of the night, a six-yard strike to sophomore Houston Tuminello in the left corner of the endzone and the route was on. It was Tuminello's first career touchdown reception and the first scoring grab by a Tech wide receiver this season.

Jenkins ended the night completing 21-of-30 passes for 357 yards and two scores without throwing an interception. It marked the first 300-plus yard passing game by a Bulldog quarterback since Zac Champion threw for 305 yards in a win over North Texas in 2007.

"Ross had a great game, and it's about as good of a game throwing the football as we've had since I've been here," Dooley said.

Nicholls State scored their lone touchdown of the night on a 24-yard run by Witt with 10:47 to play in the game as the lead was cut to 41-10.

Red-shirt freshman quarterback Colby Cameron then saw his first career action for LA Tech and promptly drove the team 62-yards on seven plays, scoring from one-yard out on a quarterback sneak to cap the Bulldogs scoring on the night.

Nicholls State added a 42-yard Ross Schexnayder field goal to end the scoring.

After the two teams traded field goals to open the game, Tech took a 10-3 lead on a Daniel Porter two-yard run with 14:55 to play in the second quarter. Nelson added a 44-yard field goal with 1:19 to play in the second quarter to give the Bulldogs a 13-3 halftime lead.

Tech's defense forced four turnovers on the night, including an interception by Antonio Baker in the third quarter. It was Baker's ninth interception of his career, moving him into a tie for ninth place in the Bulldog record books.

Morrow led all Tech running backs with a career-high 89 yards on eight carries and the one score while freshman Tyrone Duplessis added 71 yards on eight carries.

Livas and Morris led Tech with 85 yards receiving on four catches each while tight end Dustin Mitchell added four receptions for 53 yards.

LA TECH 27, HAWAI'I 6
SEPTEMBER 30, 2009
JOE AILLET STADIUM, RUSTON, LA.

RUSTON, La. - The game was promoted as a Red Out. Most of the experts expected an offensive shoot out.

But in the end, Louisiana Tech turned the lights out as it pulled away in the second half for a 27-6 win over Hawaii before 21,260 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium Wednesday night.

Tech (2-2, 1-0 WAC) used a tenacious defensive effort in the victory as the Bulldogs recorded seven sacks, held the nation's top rated passing attack to only 308 yards and held Hawaii without a touchdown for the first time in 63 games.

"The sacks were just devastating," said Tech head coach Derek Dooley. "We had seven on the night. Coach (Tommy) Spangler had a great game plan. He was changing coverages and personnel. Everybody played with heart. I saw our entire team enjoy competing."

Bulldog running back Daniel Porter broke out of an early season slump and rushed for 160 yards and two scores as he led a Tech ground game that amassed 352 yards and averaged more than 6.0 yards per carry. Freshman tailback Tyrone Duplessis added a career-high 75 yards in the win.

"To be able to rush for 366 yards against anybody is one great feat," Dooley said. "Porter looked like himself tonight. We've got two good freshman runners (in Duplessis and DJ Morrow). You know I like to run the football. We had good command of the game, and I didn't want to lose that rhythm."

However, the story of the night was the Bulldog defense. Hawaii (2-2, 0-1 WAC) entered the contest averaging 32.0 points and 515.3 yards per game, but the Warriors never got a rhythm offensively thanks to the effort of the Tech defensive unit.

Hawaii managed only two Scott Enos first half field goals as the Bulldog defense came up with a couple of big plays inside their own five-yard line.

With Tech leading 10-3 late in the second quarter on the strength of a Porter 3-yard touchdown run and a Matt Nelson 28-yard field goal, Hawaii drove down to the field and had a first and goal on the Tech one-yard line. However, Tech stuffed two straight run attempts and Deon Young batted away a third down fade route to the corner of the end zone as the Warriors were forced to kick an 18-yard field goal as the Bulldogs led 10-6 at the half.

Tech's defense struck again early in the third quarter as Kwame Jordan intercepted a batted pass attempt by Hawaii quarterback Greg Alexander on the Warrior 26-yard line. Six plays later, Porter scored on a one-yard burst to give Tech a 17-6 advantage.

"It was a great win," Porter said. "The entire offensive line did a great job. The entire team deserves credit tonight. I got my mojo back tonight. I'm not going to say I was in a slump, but I wasn't getting my yards. I got it back."

After the Bulldogs forced punts on Hawaii's next two offensive possessions, Ross Jenkins and the Tech offense drove 56 yards on eight plays and grabbed a 24-6 lead on a six-yard touchdown run by Myke Compton with 2:22 to play in the third quarter.

Any chance of a Hawaii comeback was doused with Alexander was injured on a collision with Bulldog linebacker Adrien Cole with less than a minute to play in the third quarter. Alexander, who completed 20 of 34 passes for 199 yards and two interceptions, would not return to the game as backup Bryant Moniz finished the game.

With Tech leading 27-6, Moniz drove the Warriors into Tech territory. Moniz found Greg Salas on a 40-yard completion but Salas fumbled on the Tech one-yard line and Chad Boyd recovered for the Bulldogs in the end zone for a touchback.

"Give credit to Louisiana Tech," said Hawaii coach Greg McMackin. "The problem against the run was the worst exhibition of tackling in football. We were diving and not tackling the way we teach. We're not that kind of football team."

Defensively, Tech was led by Tank Calais (8 tackles), Antonio Baker (7 tackles, 1 FF) and D'Anthony Smith (3 tackles, 2 sacks).

The Bulldogs outgained Hawaii 449 to 301 and held Hawaii to negative seven yards rushing.

GAME 5

NEVADA 37, LA TECH 14
OCTOBER 9, 2009
MACKAY STADIUM, RENO, NEV.

RENO, Nev. - Colin Kaepernick threw for three touchdowns and ran for two more scores to lead Nevada to a 37-14 win over Louisiana Tech Friday night at Mackay Stadium.

For the third time in their three losses this year, the Bulldogs (2-3, 1-1 WAC) scored a touchdown on their opening possession of the game as senior running back Daniel Porter scored on a 15-yard run with 14:16 to play in the first quarter.

Porter's touchdown was set up after Phillip Livas returned the opening kickoff 84 yards to the Nevada 15-yard line. The score was Porter's 22nd of his career and one of the few bright spots for the Bulldogs.

Following an empty offensive possession by each team, Nevada marched 76 yards in 14 plays and tied the game on a three-yard touchdown pass from Kaepernick to Talaiasi Puloka on a third down and goal play with 4:34 to play in the opening quarter.

After a second straight three-and-out by the Tech offense, Kaepernick struck again as he scampered around the left end for a five-yard touchdown run giving Nevada a 14-7 lead with 0:29 to play in the first quarter. The run capped a 6-play, 79-yard drive by the Wolf Pack that was highlighted by Chris Wellington's 47-yard run on a reverse, setting up the score.

Nevada upped the advantage to 17-7 on a 40-yard field goal by Ricky Drake at the 10:22 mark of the second stanza, the first of his career. The score came after an eight-play, 35-yard drive that was set up by a fourth down stop by the Nevada defense on its own 43-yard field goal.

The Wolf Pack opened the second half with a methodical drive capped by Kaepernick's 24-yard touchdown pass to Brandon Wimberly. The score came on a nine-play, 80-yard drive that chewed up 4:45 off the game clock and it gave Nevada a 23-7 advantage.

Porter struck again for the Bulldogs on the next possession as he took a handoff from Jenkins, broke two tackles and outraced a third Nevada defender 64 yards for his second rushing score of the game. The extra point by Matt Nelson made the score 23-14 Wolf Pack with 9:56 to play in the third quarter.

On the run, Porter moved into seventh place in the Tech record books in rushing yards, passing Garlon Powell. However, it would also prove to be the final carry of the night for Porter, who ended the game with 99 yards and two scores on 11 carries.

Trailing 23-14, Tech's defense had an opportunity to close the gap as sophomore cornerback Terry Carter stepped in front of a Kaepernick pass on Nevada's next possession. However, Carter couldn't hold onto the pass as it fell innocently to the turf.

The Bulldogs defense did hold as Nevada was forced to punt. However, Jenkins forced a throw downfield on the first play from scrimmage that was intercepted by the Wolf Pack.

After each team traded punts, Kaepernick scored his second rushing touchdown of the game, this time racing 67 yards down the left sideline with 1:57 to play in the third quarter, upping the Nevada advantage to 30-14.

After another three-and-out for the Bulldogs offense, the Wolf Pack special teams unit struck as Nevada blocked a Cade Glasgow punt, taking over possession on the Tech three-yard line. Kaepernick tossed his third touchdown of the game, this one covering three yards to tight end Virgil Green with 14:49 to play in the game as the Wolf Pack lead increased to 37-14.

The win marked the fifth straight victory by Nevada over Louisiana Tech as the Wolf Pack increased their series lead to 6-4. It was also the 200th career win for Wolf Pack Hall of Fame coach Chris Ault.

Nevada racked up 511 yards of offense, including 345 yards on the ground led by Vai Taua's 107 yards, Kaepernick's 89 yards and Luke Lippincott's 57 yards. Kaepernick also completed 15-of-21 passes for 166 yards and three scores.

LA Tech managed 256 yards of total offense. In addition to Porter's night, Myke Compton rushed for 48 yards on 11 carries. Jenkins struggled, completing only 8-of-17 passes for 129 yards and one interception.

Freshman punter Cade Glasgow averaged 45.4 yards per punt, including a career-long 67 yard punt late in the second quarter - the fifth longest punt in Bulldog history.

True freshman Chad Boyd and sophomore Adrien Cole led the Tech defense with 10 tackles each while Cole also recorded his first career sack.

LA TECH 45, NEW MEXICO STATE 7
JOE AILLET STADIUM, RUSTON, LA.

RUSTON, La. - Louisiana Tech quarterback Ross Jenkins tossed three touchdowns and Daniel Porter recorded a 100-yard rushing day as the Bulldogs defeated New Mexico State 45-7 before a homecoming crowd of 20,773 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium Saturday afternoon.

While the LA Tech offense was clicking on all cylinders, the Bulldogs defense was stifling holding New Mexico State (3-4, 1-2 WAC) to 142 total yards of offense and zero offensive touchdowns - the Aggies lone score came on a 38-yard fumble return late in the game.

One week after struggling in a lopsided loss at Nevada, head coach Derek Dooley's team got off to a fast start and never looked back in winning for the third time in three tries at home this season.

"It was obviously a dominant performance by the team," said Dooley. "I'm proud of how well we hit the field, especially in the third quarter. We played hard for four quarters. The only disappointment was giving up the touchdown at the end."

Jenkins, who was under heavy criticism during the week for the Bulldogs offensive struggles in the loss to Nevada, completed 11-of-19 passes for 204 yards and three scores before departing the game with just over three minutes to play in the third quarter.

"He played a good game," Dooley said. "Ross is good when we play good around Ross. When we can manage our offense and run the ball, we can put 45 points. I don't know how much better you can get."

His main target throughout the contest was senior tight end Dennis Morris, who finished with career-highs in receptions (6), yards (126) and touchdowns (2).

After jumping out to a 3-0 lead on a Matt Nelson 26-yard field goal on its opening possession of the game, the Bulldogs marched 62-yards on four plays to grab a 10-0 lead on a Myke Compton 10-yard run with 4:07 to play in the first stanza. The big play of the drive was a 38-yard run by Porter, moving the Bulldogs inside the red zone.

Jenkins then gave Tech a 17-0 lead with 9:00 to play in the second quarter on a one-yard run, the second rushing touchdown of his career. The play capped an eight-play, 64-yard drive that took 2:41 off the clock.

With the first half winding down, Jenkins put another nail in the coffin as he found Morris over the middle for a 29-yard touchdown pass on a fourth-down-and-three play with only 57 seconds to play in the half, giving the Bulldogs a commanding 24-0 halftime advantage.

The Bulldog defense continued its dominance in the second half as it held NMSU to nine possessions of three plays or less with the longest drive by the Aggies totaling five plays for 46 yards - a drive that ended with an Olajawon Paige interception on the Tech goal line.

While the Tech defense was hounding the Aggies, the Bulldog offensive continue to shine as Jenkins found Adrian Linwood for a 32-yard touchdown pass and Morris with a 16-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter. It was Linwood's first career score and the first by a Bulldog wide receiver this season.

Freshman Lyle Fitte capped the Bulldogs scoring with an impressive 26-yard run with 9:15 to play in the fourth quarter, upping the advantage to 45-0. Fitte ended the game with 51-yards rushing on only three carries.

The lone score of the night for New Mexico State came with only 4:56 to play as Davon House scooped up a fumble by DJ Morrow and scampered 38-yards for a touchdown.

For the day, Tech totaled 540 yards of total offense - 315 yards on the ground and 225 through the air - and 30 first downs while holding the Aggies to only 142 yards and six first downs.

"From start to finish, it was just one of those days," said NMSU head coach DeWayne Walker. "I've been in games like this and it just wasn't our day. We have got to go back, evaluate the tape, get back to the drawing board and try to get our act together for next week."

Dominique Faust led Tech with six tackles, including a career-high 1.5 sacks, while Adrien Cole, Antonio Baker, Kwame Jordan and Tank Calais each added five tackles. Calais and Paige added interceptions while Deon Young recorded his first career fumble recovery.

UTAH STATE 23, LA TECH 21
ROMNEY STADIUM, LOGAN, UTAH

LOGAN, Utah - Louisiana Tech's road struggles continued Saturday afternoon as Utah State downed the Bulldogs 23-21 at Romney Stadium. Tech (3-4, 2-2 WAC) fell for the fourth time in four road games this season although unlike the first three road losses, this game came down to the final possession.

Trailing 23-7 after three quarter, the Bulldogs scored two fourth quarter touchdowns to make it a one possession game. Trailing 23-21 with 4:01 to play, the Bulldogs took over possession on its own 16-yard line following a Utah State punt. After two first downs moved the football to the Tech 45-yard line, Tech found itself looking at a third down and nine when Jenkins hit a wide open Dustin Mitchell on an out route.

However, after making the catch, Mitchell tripped and fell to the turf at midfield, setting up a fourth down and five play. Jenkins dropped back and under the Aggies all out blitz, fired a pass downfield that was off the fingertips of intended receiver Adrian Linwood as Utah State took over and ran out the clock.

After a scoreless first quarter, Utah State struck first with 13:31 to play in the second quarter when Diondre Borel found a wide open Stanley Morrison for a 41-yard touchdown pass down the right sideline, giving the Aggies a 7-0 lead.

On the ensuing kickoff, freshman Lyle Fitte fumbled and Utah State recovered on the Bulldog 30-yard line. Seven plays later, Chris Ulinski nailed a 28-yard field goal to up the Utah State advantage to 10-0 with 11:00 to play in the quarter.

However, on the next kickoff, Phillip Livas fielded the ball five yards deep in the end-zone, headed straight up field, broke the initial line of Utah State defenders cut back towards the middle of the field and outraced four Aggie defenders for a 100-yard touchdown return. Matt Nelson's extra point made the score 10-7 Utah State.

The 100-yard return tied the school record with five other Bulldog players, the last being Patrick Jackson against Fresno State in 2006. It was also Livas' sixth return (3 kickoffs, 3 punts) for a touchdown in his career, breaking the old record of five set by Larry Anderson in the 1970s.

It didn't take Utah State long to answer as the Aggies drove 80 yards on six plays and scored on a 44-yard run by Dervin Speight with 8:16 to play in the second quarter, giving the Aggies a 17-7 lead.

Utah State dominance in the opening 30 minutes was evidenced on the stat sheet as the Aggies totaled 10 first downs to Tech's 2 and outgained the Bulldogs 245-66.

After a third field goal by Ulinski - the lone scoring by either team in the third quarter - the Bulldogs offense finally found the end zone on some trickery as Jenkins hit RP Stuart on a 26-yard scoring toss off a flea-flicker with 10:39 to play in the final quarter. The touchdown capped an eight-play, 66-yard drive that took 3:37 off the clock. It was Stuart's first touchdown reception on the season.

The Bulldog defense stiffened forcing a three and out on the next Utah State possession as Tech's offense took over on its own 30-yard line.

After an 11-yard run by Porter, Jenkins hit Roosevelt Falls on a swing pass in the flat and Falls rumbled 29-yards thanks to a mammoth block by Dennis Morris as Tech had first and 10 on the Aggies 30-yard line.

After two more first downs, Tech had a first and goal on the USU nine-yard line. On first down Jenkins was sacked and after an incomplete pass on second down, the Bulldogs faced a third and goal from the Aggies 20-yard line. Jenkins then hit a wide open Dennis Morris down the right hash mark for the score, closing the gap to 23-21 with 6:15 to play.

On the tying two-point conversion attempt, Jenkins overthrew Stuart in the back of the endzone as the Aggies held onto a two-point lead, setting up the final few minutes of the game.

Jenkins ended the game completing 17-of-26 passes for 155 yards with two scores and one interception, although 121 of the yards came in the final quarter when the Bulldogs scored two touchdowns to make a game of it.

After being outgained 329 to 108 through the first three quarters, Tech outgained Utah State 164-16 in the fourth and final quarter.

Stuart (3-45-1 TD) and Cruz Williams (3-31) led all Tech receivers while Daniel Porter led the Bulldog rushing attack with 68 yards on 18 carries.

Jay Dudley posted a career day for Tech, recording 15 tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss and one sack while Adrien Cole added 12 tackles and one TFL.

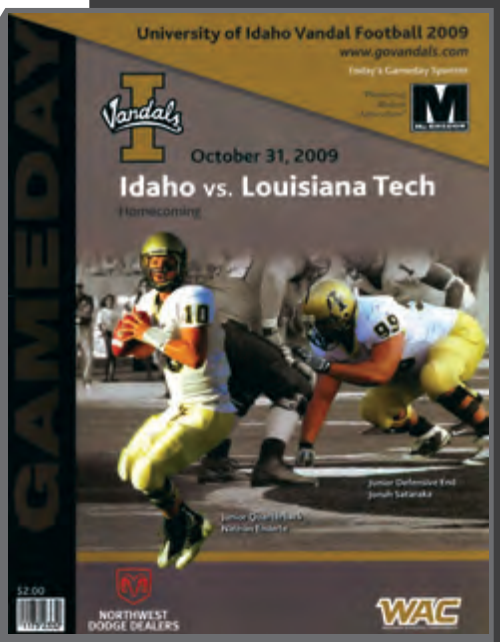
KIBBIE DOME, MOSCOW, IDAHO



MOSCOW, Idaho - Louisiana Tech true freshman Matt Nelson's 56-yard field goal attempt on the last play of the game was wide right as Idaho defeated the Bulldogs 35-34 Saturday afternoon in Western Athletic Conference action at the Kibbie Dome.

After Idaho took the one-point lead on a two-yard run by Vandal running back De'Maundray Woolridge with 52 seconds to play, redshirt freshman quarterback Colby Cameron led the Bulldogs 36-yards to set up the game-winning attempt. Tech (3-5, 2-3 WAC) lost for the fifth time in five road games while Idaho (7-2, 4-1) kept its impressive season intact. The Vandals led for only 2 minutes and 51 seconds of the 60-minute game but ended the game with the one-point victory.

The Bulldogs almost came away with the victory despite the fact that at least eight players listed on the two-deep either missed the entire game or a large portion of it due to injury.

After Idaho opened the game with a 94-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, the Bulldogs answered the Idaho touchdown as freshman Lyle Fitte took the ensuing kickoff and returned it 53 yards to the Vandals 47-yard line. Five plays later, Ross Jenkins hit Cruz Williams for a 17-yard touchdown with 13:01 to play as Williams leaped high over the Idaho defender to pull down the catch in the left corner of the end zone. It was Williams' first career touchdown reception.

Jenkins set up the score with a 36-yard completion to Williams down the left sideline, giving the Bulldogs first and goal on the Idaho nine-yard line. Following a five yard penalty and a three-yard loss on a rushing attempt, Jenkins hit Williams for the score.

After a three-and-out by Idaho, Tech marched 80 yards on eight plays and took a 14-7 lead on a Daniel Porter three-yard touchdown run with 9:27 to play in the opening quarter. The touchdown was the 24th of Porter's career, moving him into seventh place all-time in the Bulldog record books.

The Bulldogs added a third touchdown in the opening quarter as Jenkins found Morris on a 10-yard touchdown pass with 2:48 to play, capping an impressive 90-yard drive covering 11 plays.

Idaho took advantage of a questionable defensive pass interference penalty on a third down play on their next possession as the flag kept the drive alive. Vandals quarterback Nathan Enderle then found Max Komar on a 36-yard scoring toss with 14:49 to play in the second quarter, making the score 21-14 Tech.

After an empty possession by both teams, the Bulldogs took over at the midfield stripe and promptly drove 50 yards on 10 plays and scored on a 20-yard touchdown pass from Jenkins to Williams, their second of the day. It was the third scoring pass by Jenkins on the day with all three of them coming on third down and long plays. The Bulldogs racked up 360 yards of total offense and 18 first downs heading into the halftime locker room leading 28-14.

On Tech's first possession of the second half, the Bulldogs lost another key player as Porter was injured on a six-yard run on the opening play of the half and lost for the remainder of the game. After the Bulldogs were unable to record a first down, Tech punted as Idaho took over on its own 30-yard line. The Vandals then struck first as Enderle hit Komar on a 32-yard touchdown pass with 10:38 to play, capping a 70-yard drive in eight plays and making the score 28-21.

Red-shirt freshman quarterback Colby Cameron took over for Jenkins and promptly drove the Bulldogs 84 yards on 15 plays for a score as Myke Compton took it the final yard for his third touchdown of the season with 14:57 to play. Matt Nelson's extra point was wide right as Tech led 34-21. On the drive, Cameron completed 3 of 4 passes for 39 yards while also rushing twice for 16 yards.

After a three-and-out by Tech, Idaho took over at midfield with just over 10 minutes to play. On the first play from scrimmage, Enderle threw his second interception of the game as Antonio Baker played centerfield on a long pass play, picking off the pass on the Tech three-yard line. It was Baker's 10th career interception, moving him into a tie for eighth place in the Bulldog record books and 11th on the NCAA active leader list.

Midway through the final stanza, Enderle drove Idaho for a score as De'Maundray Woolridge scored on a one-yard dive with 5:51 to play making the score 34-28. Three plays before the touchdown, Tech defensive back Terry Carter stepped in front of an out route and appeared to have an interception and a touchdown but dropped the pass - giving Idaho new life and setting up the eventual game-winning drive with less than a minute to play.

Jenkins ended the game completing 17-of-30 passes for 219 yards and three touchdowns while Cameron was 10-for-16 for 110 yards and no scores. Tech outgained Idaho 547 to 462 in total offense, including 329 yards through the air and 218 yards on the ground. Livas led Tech on the ground with 69 yards while Porter added 52, and DJ Morrow 49. Williams led all Tech receivers with four receptions for 82 yards and two scores. RP Stuart added a career-high six receptions for 73 yards.

#5 BOISE STATE 45, LA TECH 35
NOVEMBER 6, 2009
JOE AILLET STADIUM, RUSTON, LA.

RUSTON, La. - Kellen Moore passed for 354 yards and three touchdowns to give fifth-ranked Boise State a 45-35 win over Louisiana Tech before 23,240 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium Friday night.

Moore's 12-yard touchdown to Austin Pettis with 7:41 to play in the game gave the Broncos some breathing room as LA Tech had cut a 20-point halftime deficit down to 30-28 after a pair of third quarter scores and a five-yard touchdown from Ross Jenkins to Dennis Morris with 14:07 to play in the game.

Boise State (9-0, 4-0 WAC) sealed the win on a Jeremy Avery 44-yard touchdown run that gave the Broncos a 45-28 lead with 4:52 to play after LA Tech failed to convert a fourth and six play with just over five minutes to play in the game.

The first half was anything but a fight as Boise State held the Bulldogs to a mere 64 yards of total offense, with 68 of that coming on a seven-play scoring drive on the second possession of the game. Daniel Porter capped the drive with a one-yard run at the 8:14 mark, giving LA Tech an early 7-3 lead.

However, the Bulldogs managed zero first downs and had seven three-and-outs on their other first half possessions while Boise State racked up 27 points and 219 yards.

The Broncos recorded touchdowns on a two-yard pass to Richie Brockel, a 2-yard run by Doug Martin and a 40-yard pass to Titus Young as well as a 34-yard Kyle Brotzman field goal - his second of the opening half as Boise State led 27-7 at intermission.

Boise State appeared ready to put the game away on their opening drive of the third quarter when Moore made an ill-advised pass under heavy pressure from D'Anthony Smith that was plucked out of the air by Tech cornerback Josh Victorian and returned 75-yards down the Bulldog sideline for a score, cutting the deficit to 27-14.

"Throwing that interception gave them quick points," Moore said. "That certainly kept them in the game. That was just my fault. I was trying to get the ball out of bounds. Obviously, I didn't get it there and their guy made the play.

"It was a stupid thing that shouldn't have happened. I was trying to throw it away off my back foot and nothing good ever happens from that for a quarterback."

After a third Brotzman field goal upped the Broncos lead to 30-14, Tech drove 73-yards on 11 plays and scored on a nine-yard Jenkins run with 1:30 to play in the third quarter. Matt Nelson's extra point made the score 30-21 Boise State.

Dooley and Co. then pulled out some trickery as Nelson successfully converted an on-side kick that he recovered on the Tech 41-yard line. Seven plays later, Jenkins found Dennis Morris for a five-yard score on an acrobatic catch of the Boise State defender as the lead was cut to two with 14:07 to play in the game.

"You aren't judged by how you play the first 30 minutes," Jenkins said. "We knew we played as bad as we could have in the first half. As players we were upset with how we were playing. We knew we had to take a deep breath, relax and play like we know how. That's what we did."

After a Brotzman missed 31-yard field goal on the Broncos next possession, Tech took over with an opportunity to take the lead but the Broncos defense stood tall, forcing a fourth down and one from the Bulldog 29 with just over 10 minutes to play.

The Bulldogs punted the ball back over to Boise State and the Broncos drove 56-yards on five plays as Moore hit Pettis high over the middle from 12-yards out on a third down and seven play.

"It was a two-point game, and we still had (10) minutes left," Dooley said. "I just felt if we went for it and didn't' get it, they were in scoring position. I didn't think it was the smart thing to do at the time."

After an empty Tech possession, Avery put the game away with the 44-yard scamper. Avery finished the night with 146 yards rushing on 25 carries.

For Tech, Jenkins completed 10-of-19 passes for 114 yards, one score and one interception while rushing for 19 yards and one score. Porter led Tech on the ground with 92 yards on 24 carries while Morris led the Bulldog receivers with 78 yards and one score on five carries.

Defensively, freshman CJ Broades recorded a career-high 10 tackles while Victorian added nine and Deon Young and Tank Calais each tallied eight.

The Bulldogs played the majority of the game without senior safety Antonio Baker, who suffered an injury on the first possession of the game.

#9 LSU 24, LA TECH 16
TIGER STADIUM, BATON ROUGE, LA.

BATON ROUGE, La. - An injury-riddled Louisiana Tech team silenced the more than 90,000 fans at Tiger Stadium for the majority of the game, but in the end the 9th ranked LSU Tigers simply had a little more in the tank as they defeated the Bulldogs 24-16 Saturday night.

LA Tech (3-7, 2-4 WAC), which entered the game with 18 freshmen and sophomores on their two-deep due to a plague of injuries to key starters, played toe-to-toe with LSU until a Keiland Williams nine-yard touchdown run with 7:01 to play gave the Tigers some breathing room.

However, it wasn't easy for Les Miles and Co. against a Tech team which entered the game having lost three straight games by a total of 13 points, including a 10-point loss to 5th ranked Boise State last week. In fact, the Bulldogs used some last second heroics in the opening half to send LSU into the halftime locker room trailing 13-10 under a chorus of boos from the homecoming faithful.

After driving more than 80 yards in over four minutes, Tech found itself faced with a fourth down and goal from the LSU one-yard line with only :02 to play in the second quarter. However, Dooley opted to roll the dice sending his offensive unit back onto the field.

With a three tight end set, quarterback Ross Jenkins started walking down the offensive line appearing to change the play. However, center Lon Roberts snapped the ball directly to running back Daniel Porter who ran up the middle before pulling up at the two-yard line and completing a Tim Tebow-esque jump pass over the mass of humanity at the goal line to tight end Dennis Morris who pulled down his eighth touchdown of the year. The play capped a 13-play, 83-yard drive and gave Tech a 13-10 lead, the first lead by a Bulldog team over LSU since 1904.

Offensively, Tech dominated the opening 30 minutes racking up 14 first downs to LSU's six and outgaining the Tigers 229 yards to 138. The Bulldogs also ran 45 offensive plays to LSU's 20 while holding onto the football for almost 21 minutes. However, the Tigers defense stiffened in the second half, holding Tech without any points until a Matt Nelson 36-yard field goal with :25 to play in the game cut the LSU lead to 24-16. The ensuing onside kick was unsuccessful as LSU escaped with the win.

LSU jumped out to an early 3-0 lead on a 35-yard field goal by Josh Jasper with 9:08 to play in the opening quarter, capping a nine play, 47-yard drive that was aided by a defensive pass interference penalty called on Josh Victorian on a third down and 20-play. The Bulldogs wasted little time in responding as Tech kept to the ground, grinding out a 10-play, 45-yard drive that resulted in a 30-yard field goal by Nelson.

LSU answered, driving 79 yards on six plays and taking a 10-3 lead on a 38-yard pass play from Jarrett Lee to Brandon LeFell with 1:55 to play in the opening quarter. LeFell caught a short slant and raced untouched to the endzone. LA Tech marched 43-yards on 10 plays as Nelson added a 33-yard field goal with 5:39 to play in the second quarter, cutting the Tiger lead to 10-6.

After another three and out by the Bulldog defense, Porter and Co. took over on their own 17-yard line and promptly drove down to the LSU one-yard line with :02 to play in the half. Instead of kicking a chip-shot field goal to cut the lead to one at the half, Dooley dug deep into the playbook and put his offense back out on the field as Porter tossed his first career touchdown pass. After neither team was able to move the ball on their first possession of the second half, LSU drove 59 yards on nine plays and took a 17-13 lead on a three-yard run by Keiland Williams with6:59 to play in the third quarter.

LSU took its biggest lead of the game with 7:01 to play as Williams recorded his second touchdown of the game, this one coming from nine yards out and giving the Tigers a 24-13 lead. The run capped an eight-play, 56-yard drive that was once again aided by a defensive pass interference penalty on the Bulldogs on a third down and long play.

"This was best in state team we've played," said LSU head coach Les Miles. "In fact LA Tech may be better than a year ago (when they won a bowl); they just don't have record to prove it. If they showed up in a bowl game, they would win it. It doesn't matter if you tell the guys that, they don't listen until you get into the game. We looked more like ourselves in the second half.

Tyrone Duplessis led Tech with 65 yards on 17 carries while Porter added 64 yards on 13 carries. Jenkins completed 16-of-31 passes for 143 yards and no interceptions while Myke Compton recorded five catches for 38 yards and Dustin Mitchell added five grabs for 37 yards.

Tech outgained LSU 322 to 246 while recording 23 first downs to the Tigers 15. However, 10 penalties for 100 yards were too much for the Bulldogs to overcome. The 16 points scored by the Bulldogs were the most ever in the 19-game history of the series. It was also the most points LSU has given up at home this year, including games against top-ranked Florida and Auburn.

FRESNO STATE 30, LA TECH 28
BULLDOG STADIUM, FRESNO, CALIF.

FRESNO, Calif. - Kevin Goessling's 35-yard field goal on the final play of the game lifted Fresno State to a 30-28 win over Louisiana Tech Saturday evening at Bulldog Stadium.

LA Tech dropped its fifth game in a row, with all five losses coming by a total combined total of 23 points. Four of the five losses were by one possession and three of them were by two points or less.

Goessling's third field goal of the game capped a game-winning drive that saw Fresno State dodge a couple of bullets while driving 68 yards on 16 plays over the final 2:21 of the contest.

After LA Tech punter Cade Glasgow pinned Fresno State on its 14-yard line with 2:21 to play, Colburn and Co. began the drive. Following a Colburn two-yard run that gave the Bulldogs a first down on their own 25-yard line, the signal caller made a poor decision and threw into coverage where Tech cornerback Terry Carter stepped in front of the pass.

However, Carter was unable to pull down the interception, keeping Fresno State's drive and hopes alive. The Bulldogs eventually moved the ball to the Tech 46-yard line where three straight Colburn incompletions set up a fourth-down and 10 play with less than a minute to play in the game.

Tech brought a blitz but under pressure Colburn found an open Chastin West for 19-yards and a Fresno State first down. West had beaten Tech defensive back Olajawon Paige, giving Fresno State the ball on the LA Tech 27 yard line.

A two-yard Robbie Rouse run and a nine-yard completion to Jamel Hamler set up the 35-yard Goessling game-winner.

The loss overshadowed an impressive offensive day by a trio of Bulldogs as quarterback Ross Jenkins passed for 206 yards and a career-high four touchdowns, including a trio of scoring strikes to tight end Dennis Morris who finished the day with a career-high seven catches for a career-high 131 yards and the three scores.

The Jenkins to Morris combination struck early as they teamed up for a 50-yard touchdown pass on just the second play of the game as Morris ran wide open down the middle of the field for the score. After Fresno State took a 14-7 lead, Jenkins found Morris again for a 12-yard score to tie the game at 14-14 late in the first quarter.

The duo hooked up for the third and final time with 10:44 to play in the second quarter as Jenkins found Morris running wide open down the middle of the field for a 39-yard score and a 21-21 tie.

Senior running back Daniel Porter also made his mark during the game, rushing 22 times for 137 yards to come the second leading rusher in Tech history moving past former Bulldog Ryan Moats. He needs 190 yards in the season finale against San Jose State to pass Jason Cooper for first place in the record books.

After Tech took a 7-0 lead on Morris' first touchdown grab, Fresno State came back and tied the game on a 23-yard touchdown pass from Colburn to Seyi Ajirotutu with 7:04 to play in the first quarter. Less than 20 seconds later, Fresno State capitalized on the first of three LA Tech turnovers as Ben Jacobs picked up a Porter fumble and raced 21-yards untouched to the endzone as the California-based Bulldogs led 14-7.

Tech responded on its next possession, driving 72 yards on seven plays and tying the game at 14-14 on the 12-yard toss from Jenkins to Morris with 3:07 to play in the opening quarter.

A Lonyae Miller five-yard touchdown run gave Fresno State a 21-14 lead early in the second quarter before Morris struck again with a 39-yard reception with 10:44 to play as the two teams were tied at 21-21.

Tech appeared ready to possibly position itself for a field goal before the half but Jenkins fumbled the ball away on the Fresno State 45-yard line with 17 seconds to play as the two teams entered the halftime locker room tied.

Goessling gave Fresno State a 24-21 lead early in the third quarter on a 24-yard field goal before LA Tech struck back, driving 72 yards on nine plays and taking a 28-24 advantage on a 36-yard pass play from Jenkins to freshman Cruz Williams with 4:44 to play in the third stanza.

For the game Jenkins completed 14-of-22 passes for 206 yards and four scores with no interceptions.

Goessling added a 23-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to cut the LA Tech advantage to 28-27. Tech's offense had three possessions to extend the advantage out but two punts and the third lost fumble of the game prevented the Bulldogs from pulling away, setting up the late Fresno State heroics.

LA TECH 55, SAN JOSE STATE 20
JOE AILLET STADIUM, RUSTON, LA.

RUSTON, La. - Daniel Porter ran for 199 yards and set the school's career rushing record as Louisiana Tech ran over San Jose State en route to a 55-20 victory in front of 15,324 at Joe Aillet Stadium Saturday afternoon.

Louisiana Tech (4-8, 3-5 WAC) snapped a five-game losing streak to end the season and won its third consecutive game over San Jose State as the Spartans (2-10, 1-7 WAC) struggled to stop a powerful Tech ground game.

Porter, who entered the game needing 190 yards to set the record, also ran for three touchdowns in the dominating win for Louisiana Tech. Porter was one of 12 seniors that were honored during the pregame ceremonies on "Senior Day."

Jay Dudley led the Tech defense with 10 tackles while Tank Calais' school-record 96-yard interception return for a touchdown almost prevented Porter for reaching the record. Porter was eight yards shy of setting a new school record for most of the fourth quarter and almost lost his chance when Calais ran the ball back for the touchdown. But a successful challenge by Tech verified Josh Victorian's interception with 3:38 remaining in the game gave Porter one final chance to set the record.

Porter ran past the record mark on a 16-yard run with under two minutes left in the game and was greeted by cheers from teammates and coaches on the sideline.

Tech was able to put Porter in position to set the record as the Bulldogs got out to an early lead after scoring touchdowns on five consecutive possessions in the first half. After the Spartans opened with a touchdown on a 16-yard reception by Marquis Avery, Tech quickly drove down the field and Porter ran the ball into the end zone from eight yards out on a six-play, 66-yard drive that lasted only 2:26.

San Jose State took their final lead of the game on the ensuing possession as Jala Beauchman caught a two-yard pass from Kyle Reed. Tech responded by driving 81 yards on four plays in less than a minute and a half as Porter scored again, this time from 39 yards out.

"They were one of the best football teams we have seen all year, despite of their record," said San Jose State head coach Dick Tomey. "They've just lost a lot of close games and that just illustrates how tough it is to win in college football because they have a really good team. I think Derek (Dooley) and Louisiana Tech are on the right track."

Tech would force a turnover on downs and pulled a rabbit out of a hat for its third score and first lead of the game. Early in the second quarter, the offense went into motion giving D.J. Morrow the ball on a direct snap. Morrow then threw the ball to a wide open Dennis Morris 19 yards for a touchdown, the second touchdown reception Morris has caught from a tailback this year.

Two plays later, Deon Young ran back an interception 55 yards for a touchdown to give the Bulldogs the 28-14 lead. That marked Young's 10th career interception, ranking him eighth in school history for INTs.

After a stingy Bulldog defense forced the Spartans to go three-and-out, the quick strike Bulldogs struck again as Lyle Fitte caught a 38-yard touchdown reception from Ross Jenkins to cap a three-play, 49-yard drive that lasted just over a minute.

Porter would reach the end zone one more time on a three-yard run and Matt Nelson would kick a 39-yard field goal as time was expiring as Tech entered halftime with a 45-14 lead and the most points a Tech team has scored in one half since at least 2000 when LA Tech scored 42 in the first half of a 63-10 win over Mississippi Valley State.

The second half would not be as offensively dominated with the Spartans striking first to cut the Tech lead to 45-20 on an Avery 80-yard reception from Jorda La Secla. That would mark San Jose State's final score of the game.

With 2:40 remaining in the third quarter, D'Anthony Smith recovered a fumble on the San Jose State 11-yard line that eventually set up a 32-yard field goal as a five-yard penalty and two incomplete passes forced Tech to kick the field goal for the 48-20 lead. Two possessions later for San Jose State, the Spartans' 12-play, 69-yard drive ended quickly when Calais returned the interception for a touchdown.

JOE AILLET

One of the main building blocks of success for a football program is stability in the coaching staff, and for 40 years, Louisiana Tech had not only stability but incredible talent.

Joe Aillet remains the winningest football coach in Louisiana Tech history and was one of the most respected in the country during his 26-year coaching career with the Bulldogs. Aillet produced a record of 152-86-8 and won or shared 12 conference championships between 1940 and 1966. He served as Tech's athletic director for an additional four years.

A member of several national coaching halls of fame, Aillet was instrumental in forming the Louisiana High School Coaches Association in the 1930s and the Gulf States Conference in 1948. Maxie Lambright replaced Aillet in 1967 and remained at Tech through 1978, producing a "Golden Era" of Bulldog football which included seven conference titles, three national championship seasons and two Division I bowl games. He produced 11 All-Americans and sent a dozen Bulldogs into the pros. He also built the nation's longest college football winning streak at 23 games during 1973 and 1974.

MAXIE LAMBRIGHT

Another building block at Louisiana Tech was Maxie Lambright. Lambright coached the 1972 Bulldogs to a 12-0 record as Louisiana Tech won the National Football Foundation national title with a 35-0 win over Tennessee Tech in the Grantland Rice Bowl. The following season, Lambright's Bulldogs claimed the Division II national title defeating Western Kentucky 34-0 in the championship game. During his 12 years on the Tech sideline, Lambright amassed a mark of 95-36-2 while winning seven conference titles.

BULLDOG HISTORY

The names ring like a Who's Who in the National Football League: Terry Bradshaw, Pat Tilley, Roger Carr, Mike Barber, Fred Dean, Matt Stover, Willie Roaf, Doug Evans, Tim Rattay and Troy Edwards.

They are just a few of the many great players who have donned a Louisiana Tech Bulldog uniform over the past century, and their accomplishments at Tech are even more impressive.

Starting with its very first game in 1901, Louisiana Tech has become a household name in collegiate football circles.

And over the years Louisiana Tech has produced numerous conference titles, numerous all-American honors, numerous professional players and two national championship titles.

This year's players and coaches should only add to an already impressive resume.

Although so much emphasis is placed on the present, with 107 seasons of Tech football in the record books, it's important to remember so many great moments, so many great players and so many great coaches that have already made Tech's history on the gridiron successful.

From the very first team to last season's squad, Tech football can be described with three words: TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE.

Coaches: Edwin Barber (1901); Frank Singleton (1902); Unknown (1903); E.G. Pierce (1904); J.Y. Bragg (1905); Z.T. Young (1906); George Watkins (1907); A.L. Cornell (1908); Percy Prince (1909)
Conference Affiliation (Years)/Titles: N/A
1901: First Recorded Intercollegiate Football Game

Louisiana Tech intercollegiate football history began with that 1901 season, as Edwin Barber — the first athletic coach employed by the young university — led the Bulldogs on the playing field.

And although records of some of the first years in Tech history are incomplete, Barber's team lost the only two games for which results do exist, falling to Louisiana State 57-0 and Arkansas 16-0. However, the Tech tradition had begun.

The November 1902 Industrialist, the first student publication at Tech, reported that Coach Frank Singleton led the second team to "a fairly successful season," although the record of that Bulldog squad is not known.

1904: First Recorded Intercollegiate Football Win

Coach E.G. Pierce led the 1904 Bulldogs to the first recorded win in school history with a 6-0 victory against Louisiana State during a 1-3 season. The game not only marked the inaugural win in Tech history, but also the first shutout.

Tech's first winning season was posted in 1906 as Z.T. Young led the Bulldogs to a 2-1-3 record with wins over Ouachita Baptist and the Ruston Athletic Club.

The following season, Coach George Watkins and the Bulldogs registered a 9-1 mark, which is still the most wins by a first-year head coach in Tech history. During that season, Tech outscored its opponents 248-37, with the lone setback coming against Louisiana State.

It is not known where those first Bulldogs played their games, but beginning with the 1904 season, all Tech athletic events were held in an athletic park, with a grandstand, located next to Harper Hall and present-day Howard Auditorium.

Coaches: Percy Prince (1910-1915); A. Flack (1916); V.S. Pugh (1917); Percy Prince (1918-1919)
Conference Affiliation (Years)/Titles: N/A

1910: First perfect season (7-0)

During this decade of Bulldog football, Prince coached Tech for seven seasons, including the school's first perfect year in 1910 with a record of 7-0. Prince was the first coach at Tech to coach for multiple seasons, finishing his career with a record of 24-16-5.

His 1911 and 1915 teams also posted winning records, recording marks of 4-2-1 and 3-1-2, respectively.

1916: First Recorded Game at Independence Stadium

In 1916, Coach A. Flack took over for Prince, but the Bulldogs struggled, going 2-4 with wins over Ouachita and Northwestern State. V.S. Pugh took over the coaching duties in 1917 and led Tech to a 2-3 season.

However, Prince came back and coached Tech for one last season in 1919 as Tech lost to Henderson State and Northwestern State in the only two recorded games.

Coaches: R.F. Clark (1920-1921); William Dietz (1922-1923); Phillip Arbuckle (1924); R.C. Kenney (1925); Hugh Wilson (1926-1927); F.A. Rockwell (1928-1929)
Conference Affiliation (Years)/Titles: Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association (1925-1929)/None

Six different coaches led the Bulldogs of the 1920s as Tech posted a winning mark of 38-34-8 during the decade.

Coach R.F. Clark helped start the 1920s right for Tech fans as his two Bulldog teams registered winning records of 5-1 and 6-0 in 1920 and 1921. After Clark's 1920 team lost the first game of the season 12-0 to Northwestern State, he proceeded to win 11 consecutive contests over the span of the next two years.

William Dietz picked up where Clark left off in 1922 and 1923 as the Dietz-led Bulldogs posted records of 5-1-1 and 6-2, including a 100-0 win over Clark College in 1922 and a 66-7 victory over Northwestern State in 1923.

After struggling through a 1-6-1 season in 1924 under Coach Phillip Arbuckle, Tech began its first athletic affiliation, becoming a member of the multi-state Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1925 under Coach R.C. Kenney.

Hugh Wilson coached the Bulldogs to a 5-2-2 record in 1926 and a 3-5 mark in 1927, a year that was highlighted by a game played against Mississippi College at Forsythe Park, the first intercollegiate football game played in Monroe.

1928: New Football Field Built

Then, in the fall of 1928, a new Tech athletic field was built immediately adjoining the men's gymnasium on the current site of A.E. Phillips Laboratory School. The field was dedicated on Homecoming day Nov. 5, before the game with UL-Lafayette (UL-Lafayette won 45-6).

Coaches: George Bohler (1930-1933); L.P McLane (1934-1938); Ray Davis (1939)
Conference Affiliation (Years)/Titles: Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association (1930-1938)/None; Louisiana Intercollegiate Conference (1939)/None

The nickname Bulldogs and school colors of red and blue were decided upon sometime during the early years of the university. However, T.J. "Cotton" and Henry Matthews, two Tech freshman brothers from Bossier City, donated Tech's first live bulldog in 1930.

On the playing field, Coach George Bohler led Tech into the 1930s as the Bulldogs posted a 3-6 season in 1930 before rebounding to record the school's third perfect season at 7-0 in 1931.

1935: 5,000 Seat Football Stadium Built

In 1934, according to The Tech Talk, the Louisiana Legislature appropriated $25,000 for a concrete stadium to be built beginning in January 1935. The stadium seated 3,000, and wooden bleachers holding an additional 2,000 were built on the east side of the field.

Again, Tech — under the guidance of Coach L.P. McLane — and UL-Lafayette dedicated the facility as Tech won the game 25-0 on its way to an 8-1 season. It also marked the first night game played at Louisiana Tech.

1937: Johnny Wyss Named Tech's First All-American

The 1937 season brought two more firsts for Louisiana Tech football as the school's first sellout came Sept. 17, 1937, in the season opener against Oklahoma City. Following a 6-3-2 season, Bulldog guard Johnny Wyss was named Tech's first All-American.

The 1939 season brought with it a new coach and a new conference as Ray Davis took over the Bulldog coaching duties, guiding Tech to a 5-6 mark in the school's first year as a member of the Louisiana Intercollegiate Conference.

Coach: Joe Aillet (1940-1949)
Conference Affiliation (Years)/Titles: Louisiana Collegiate Conference (1940-1947)/1941, 1945, 1947; Gulf States Conference (1948-1949)/1949

1940: Joe Aillet Era Begins

It is no coincidence that the first 10 years of Joe Aillet's tenure as football coach at Tech was one of the winningest decades percentage-wise in Bulldog history.

1948: Tech joins Gulf States Conference; Gulf State Championship

Aillet, who is still the school's winningest coach with 152 wins, took over in 1940 and promptly led the Bulldogs to four conference titles during the decade, three as a member of the Louisiana Collegiate Conference and one as a member of the Gulf States Conference which Tech joined in 1948.

Aillet, who was instrumental in forming the GSC, was the first president of the league.

Tech also posted eight winning seasons during the nine years of football in the '40s (football was discontinued during 1943).

Aillet, who is a member of the National Football Foundation's

College Football Hall of Fame as well as being a charter member of the Tech Athletic Hall of Fame, led Tech to a 6-4 record in 1940 before guiding the Bulldogs to the school's first conference title in 1941 with a mark of 5-4-1.

Tech also won the LCC title in 1945 (6-4) and 1947 (5-4), while capturing the GSC title in 1948 (7-2-1) and 1949 (7-2).

A number of All-Americans led the Bulldogs during the 1940s, including the likes of Jimmy Harrison (1949), Garland Gregory (1941), Mike Reed (1946, 1947) and Ed Stassi (1948).

Amazingly, Joe Aillet's second decade as the Bulldogs' head coach was more successful as his teams won an incredible 70 percent of their games during the 1950s while claiming six Gulf States Conference titles.

Tech registered 10 winning seasons during the 1950s, never losing more than four games in a year. Tech captured its first GSC title of the decade during 1952, when the Bulldogs went 6-1-2, including wins over Florida State and Memphis State.

Aillet also led Tech to Gulf States titles in 1953 (6-3), 1955 (9-1), 1957 (6-4), 1958 (7-3) and 1959 (9-1).

During the era, Tech had 33 players earn All-Gulf States Conference honors including the family foursome of Tommy (three times), Pat (twice), Bobby and Joe Hinton (twice).

Nine of Aillet's players were named All-American during the 1950s, including Charles Anderson, Gordon Brown, Joe Hinton, Pat Hinton, Tommy Hinton, Jerry Hudson, Russell Rainbolt, Leo Sanford and Jess Storts.

The 1960s saw plenty of change for Louisiana Tech late in the decade.

However, early on it was the same old winning ways for Joe Aillet and his Bulldogs as Tech opened the era with yet another Gulf States Conference title and an 8-2 record.

After recording marks of 5-4, 4-4 and 6-3 over the next three seasons, the Bulldogs captured another GSC title in 1964 with a 9-1 record. A 14-7 loss at the hands of Southern Mississippi kept the Bulldogs from obtaining the perfect record.

Following another 4-4 season in 1965, the change began. Aillet's 1966 squad, his last at Tech, fell to 1-9, breaking a streak of 21 consecutive years of non-losing seasons under the Tech legend. Aillet's 26-year tenure as the Bulldogs head coach was over after 152 wins and 12 conference titles.

1966: Maxie Lambright Era Begins

The following season, Tech hired Maxie Lambright to take over the duties and after posting a 3-7 record in his first season, the Bulldogs resumed their winning ways in 1968 with a 9-2 record, thanks in large part to a young quarterback named Terry Bradshaw.

1968: First Game played in Joe Aillet Stadium

During the 1968 season, the Bulldogs also moved into a new home, the 23,000-seat present-day facility named Tech Stadium, which was renamed Joe Aillet Stadium on Nov. 11, 1972, in memory of the Tech coach who had passed away the previous year.

Lambright, Bradshaw and the Bulldogs ended the decade claiming the 1969 Gulf States Conference title with an 8-2 mark, the school's last GSC championship.

Forty-eight Bulldogs earned All-Gulf States Conference honors during the 1960s, while Bradshaw, Tom Causey, Jerry Griffin, Joe Hinton, John Williamson, and Mickey Slaughter all earned All-American honors.

1969: Grantland Rice Bowl Appearance

Bradshaw was selected as the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL draft following his 1969 senior year.

It could easily be said that the 1970s was the premier decade in the long history of Louisiana Tech football.

1971: Pioneer Bowl Appearance

After opening the era with a 2-8 mark in 1970, Lambright guided the Bulldogs to a 9-2 record and a conference title in 1971, Tech's first season as a member of the newly formed Southland Conference. However, that was just the beginning.

1972: Grantland Rice Bowl Appearance

The next three seasons are considered the greatest three-year stretch in Tech football history. Lambright led the 1972 team to a perfect 12-0 record, and the Bulldogs defeated Tennessee Tech 35-0 in the Grantland Rice Bowl to claim Co-National Champion honors along with Delaware as chosen by the National Football Foundation.

1973: Camellia Bowl Appearance

The 1973 team would not be outdone, as Lambright and the Bulldogs finished the season 12-1 and defeated Western Kentucky 34-0 in the Division II National Championship game in Sacramento, Calif.

1974: Pioneer Bowl Appearance

Finally, the 1974 team made it three in a row by winning the United Press International College Division National Championship despite losing to Central Michigan, 35-14, in a Division II national semifinal game.

1977: Independence Bowl Appearance

The following season, Tech joined the Division I ranks for the first time, and two years later, the Bulldogs played in their first bowl game, defeating highly favored Louisville, 24-14, in the Independence Bowl in Shreveport.

1978: Independence Bowl Appearance

Tech made a return trip to the Independence Bowl in 1978 but was defeated by East Carolina, 35-13. The loss marked the end of another era at Tech, as Maxie Lambright retired from his 12-year coaching career with a 95-36-2 record, trailing only Aillet in number of victories as Tech football coach.

Larry Beightol was hired in 1979 and led Tech to a 3-8 record in his only season as the Bulldogs' head coach.

With the success Tech had during the 1970s, it is no wonder the Bulldogs had 66 players earn all-conference accolades, while the likes of Ron Alexander, Larry Anderson, Mike Barber, Roger Carr, Fred Dean, Ken Lantrip, Ardis McCann, Charles McDaniel, Joe McNeely, Chris Richardson and Billy Ryckman earned All-American honors.

The 1980s proved to be a turning point for Louisiana Tech football as the university made the decision to move up to Division I-A status starting in 1989.

However, the '80s started slowly with two straight losing seasons under new head coach Billy Brewer (5-6 in 1980 and 4-6-1 in 1981). However, Brewer's third and last season was much more successful as the Bulldogs posted a 10-3 record and won the Southland Conference title in 1982, after being reclassified into Division I-AA.

The Bulldogs, led by quarterback Matt Dunigan, won their first-round playoff game before falling to Delaware 17-0 on a rain-soaked afternoon at Joe Aillet Stadium.

A.L. Williams took over the coaching reins in 1983 and after a sub-par first year (4-7), Williams guided Tech to the Division I-AA National Championship game in 1984.

After winning the Southland Conference title, Tech defeated Mississippi Valley State and Jerry Rice, No. 1 Alcorn State and Middle Tennessee before losing to Montana State 19-6 in Charleston, S.C., in the national championship game.

1987: Tech begins its move to I-A

Tech played in the Southland Conference for the final time during the 1986 season as university President F. Jay Taylor's goal was to leave what he called "mandated mediocrity" — Division I-AA. The Bulldogs competed as a Division I-AA independent in 1987 and 1988 during the "Movin' Up" campaign.

During those two seasons, the Bulldogs fought an uphill battle, playing road games against the likes of Baylor, Mississippi State, Texas A&M, Houston, Wyoming, Kansas State, Southern Mississippi and Florida State in an effort to meet Division I-A scheduling requirements.

Another 6,000 seats were added to Joe Aillet Stadium as part of meeting those same requirements to move up to the next level.

1989: Tech gains I-A status

Finally on Jan. 20, 1989, the call came from the NCAA, and at the football banquet that evening, the official acceptance into Division I-A football was announced by Tech President Dan Reneau. Tech officially began competing in the NCAA's highest classification with the 1989 season opener at UL-Lafayette, a contest the Bulldogs won 40-14 on their way to a 5-4-1 record.

On Oct. 4, 1989, the Spirit of 1988, a bronze Bulldog statue guarding the south entrance to Aillet Stadium, was unveiled to commemorate head coach Joe Raymond Peace's Tech team of 1988, which endured the brutal schedule in order to meet Division I-A scheduling requirements.

Thirty-one Bulldogs earned All-Southland Conference honors during the 1980s, while three Bulldogs earned All-Independent honors in 1989. Matt Dunigan, Walter Johnson, Doug "Tank" Landry and Glenell Sanders were named All-Americans during the decade.

1990: Independence Bowl Appearance

Louisiana Tech football opened and closed the 1990s with a bang as the 1990 Bulldog team earned an Independence Bowl berth while the 1999 team earned the school's first ever Associated Press Top 25 ranking.

The 1990s also proved to be the decade for quarterbacks at Tech as the program produced two of the top signal callers in Bulldog history in Jason Martin and Tim Rattay.

Coach Joe Raymond Peace led the 1990 Bulldogs, in only the school's second year as Division I-A Independent, to an 8-3 record during the regular season and an invitation to the Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La. The Bulldogs tied Maryland 34-34 in front of over 48,000 fans in one of the most exciting bowl games of the year.

1993: Tech joins Big West Conference

The following season, the Peace-led Bulldogs dropped the opening game and then proceeded to win eight and tie two the rest of the year. After a 5-6 season in 1992, Tech joined the Big West Conference in an effort to help scheduling and secure a bowl tie.

However, the Bulldogs' three seasons in the conference never yielded much success as Peace's squads compiled a 10-23 mark from 1993-1995.

The 1996 season saw a number of changes and much more success as Tech once again joined the ranks of Division I-A Independents and offensive coordinator Gary Crowton was hired as head coach.

Crowton, who was known for his great offensive mind and wide-open passing attack, molded quarterbacks Jason Martin and Tim Rattay into two of the nation's total offense leaders.

In 1996, Crowton guided Tech to a 6-5 season, including a 38-23 win at Southeastern Conference foe Mississippi State, while Martin had 3,360 yards and 32 touchdowns. It was just a sign of things to come.

The following season, Tech posted a 9-2 mark with wins at Alabama and against California, while sophomore quarterback Tim Rattay led the nation in total offense, passing for 3,881 yards and 34 touchdowns.

Rattay shattered his Tech records the following season, passing for 4,943 yards and 46 scores while leading the Bulldogs to a 6-6 record. Rattay's main target was wide receiver Troy Edwards, who caught 140 passes for 1,996 yards and 27 touchdowns, the latter two marks setting new NCAA records.

In a nationally televised game against defending National Champion Nebraska to open the season, Rattay and Edwards showed a preview of what Tech fans had to look forward to as Rattay passed for a school record 590 yards, while Edwards snared 21 passes for 405 yards, a new NCAA single game record.

After Crowton departed to the NFL's Chicago Bears in 1999, Tech Athletics Director Jim Oakes hired Jack Bicknell III as the 30th head coach in school history.

Bicknell led Tech to an 8-3 season, a 29-28 upset victory over eventual Southeastern Conference champion Alabama and the school's first Associated Press Top 25 ranking. Rattay finished his career ranked No. 2 in NCAA history in career passing yards, total offense and touchdown passes.

The 1999 season was made even more successful with an October announcement that the university would be making an all-sports move to the Western Athletic Conference in the fall of 2001.

During the decade of the '90s, 54 Bulldog players earned all-conference honors, while Josh Bradley, Edwards, Marty Kent, Rattay, William Roaf, Bobby Slaughter and Willie Smith were named All-Americans.

Louisiana Tech finished its last season as a Division I-A Independent in 2000 with a 3-9 record. During the season, the Bulldogs played perennial powers such as Kansas State, Penn State, Auburn and Miami. Despite playing a difficult schedule, the Bulldogs were still one of the top offensive teams in the country, finishing 7th in the nation for passing offense.

2001: Tech joins Western Athletic Conference; Humanitarian Bowl Appearance

The Bulldogs made a splash in their new conference by going 7-1 in league play and claiming the 2001 WAC Championship. Louisiana Tech overcame an early conference loss to win its last six conference games to take the WAC title.

The championship earned the Bulldogs a berth in the 2001 Humanitarian Bowl, the school's first bowl appearance since the 1990 Independence Bowl. Despite a 49-24 loss to Clemson in the Humanitarian Bowl, the season was still a success and proved that Louisiana Tech would be a foe to be reckoned with in the Western Athletic Conference.

Tech began the 2002 season by defeating eventual Houston Bowl participant and Big 12 foe Oklahoma State to open the season in a thrilling last minute 39-36 contest. However, Tech's early non-conference schedule proved brutal with road losses to Clemson, No. 15 Penn State and No. 24 Texas A&M.

For the seventh straight season the Bulldogs ranked in the nation's top 10 in passing offense while senior running back Joe Smith earned first team All-WAC honors, becoming the first Tech player since 1994 to rush for over 1,000 yards.

The 2003 season started with a nationally televised home contest against defending national champion Miami at Independence Stadium in Shreveport as a Bulldog home record crowd of 43,279 witnessed the historic event.

And although the 2003 season didn't go as planned with Tech finishing 5-7, the Bulldogs did have plenty of bright moments topped by Tech's 20-19 come-from-behind road win over Michigan State, a team that went on to earn a Top 25 ranking and eventually earned a spot in the Alamo Bowl against Nebraska.

Individual highlights included senior kicker Josh Scobee becoming Louisiana Tech's second all-time scoring leader with 339 points. Senior quarterback Luke McCown finished his career ranked in the top 5 in NCAA Division I history in passing yards and total offense.

2004: Tech faces Top 25 schedule; Pulls upset over Fresno State

Tough wouldn't describe Louisiana Tech's schedule in 2004 as the Bulldogs played seven games against eventual bowl-bound teams and six games against teams ranked in the Top 25 at one point of the season.

And although Tech's 6-6 record fell one game short of being bowl eligible, it was still an accomplishment.

The biggest moment of 2004 came in Tech's 28-21 win over No. 17 ranked Fresno State Oct. 2 at Joe Aillet Stadium. Running back Ryan Moats rushed for 236 yards and four scores and the Tech defense intercepted two passes late in the game to seal the victory.

Moats shattered the school record with 1,774 yards rushing and 18 touchdowns before declaring himself eligible for the 2005 NFL Draft (third round, Philadelphia Eagles).

2008: Bulldogs Claim Independence Bowl Championship Title

Louisiana Tech opened its season with a visit from Southeastern Conference foe Mississippi State, the first SEC team to ever come to Joe Aillet Stadium. And after the Mississippi-based Bulldogs left after a 22-14 LA Tech win, they might be the last for a while. The win marked the first win over an SEC team since 1999 when Tech topped eventual SEC champion Alabama 29-28 in Birmingham, Alabama.

The Bulldogs continued their winning ways throughout the season, going 7-5 in the regular season and 5-3 in the WAC which was good enough for a second place finish. Included in the seven regular season wins was a 21-0 shutout victory at San Jose State, the first shutout by a Tech team since 1996 and the first road shutout since 1988.

Tech earned its first invite to a bowl game since 2001 as the Bulldogs received an invitation to play in the Independence Bowl against Northern Illinois.

Tech would capture the 2008 Independence Bowl title by virtue of a 17-10 victory over the Huskies, highlighted by a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Phillip Livas. The Bowl victory was the first bowl win for the Bulldogs since they won the 1977 Independence Bowl.

Running back Daniel Porter became the eighth Louisiana Tech running back to ever rush for over 1,000 yards in a season as he rushed for 1,164 yards and nine touchdowns in 2008. Tech also placed a program record seven players on the All-WAC team, led by first team members in Porter, Livas, defensive tackle D'Anthony Smith and safety Antonio Baker.

In 2009 Porter continued to showcase his rushing talents, becoming the school's all-time leading rusher with 3,352 rushing yards to his credit while Dennis Morris earned all-America honors and was named the College Football Performance Awards' National Tight End of the Year after leading the country in touchdown receptions among tight ends.

December 28, Shreveport, La.

Phillip Livas' 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown and a stellar defensive performance led Louisiana Tech to a 17-10 win over Northern Illinois at the 33rd Independence Bowl at Independence Stadium in Shreveport.

The win was Tech's first in a bowl since a 1977 and only the third bowl appearance since the program joined the FBS in 1989.

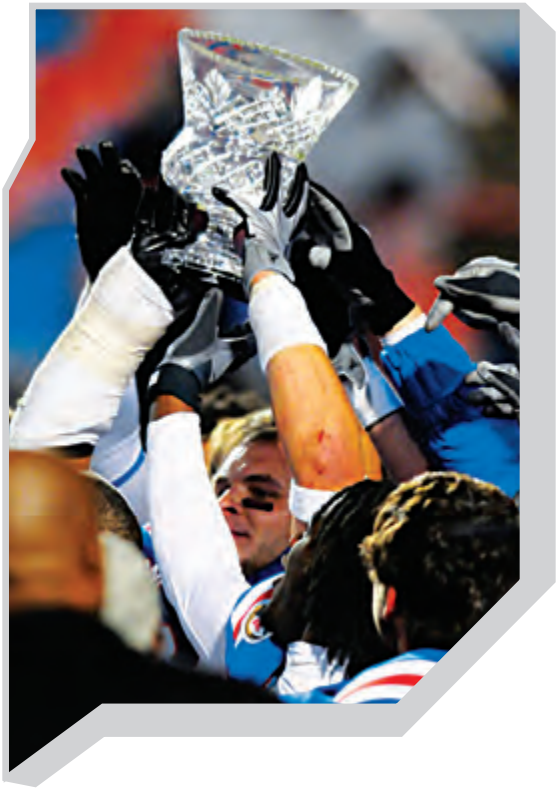
"Let me start by giving Northern Illinois a tremendous amount of credit," said Tech head coach Derek Dooley. "Coach (Jerry) Kill and his staff do a great job. They are an outstanding football team; every bit as good as advertised."

After Northern Illinois took an early 7-0 lead in the first quarter, Livas, who was named offensive MVP of the game, took the ensuing kickoff and galloped 97 yards for a score.

"The return was a sideline return," Livas said. "Once I got past the defender, I just knew I had to make a play. We needed to get the momentum back."

Livas' play ignited not only the partisan Bulldog crowd at Independence Stadium, but also the LA Tech defense.

After allowing a NIU touchdown on only its second possession, the Bulldog defensive unit limited the Huskies to three points over the final three quarters of play.



"It was a phenomenal defensive effort by both teams," Dooley said. "We got better as the game went on, and we knew it was going to down to the last drive. We talked to our players all week about playing to the last play of the game."

Senior defensive back Weldon Brown, playing before a home crowd – Brown prepped at Bossier High School – , earned defensive MVP honors after recording a career-high 14 tackles, one fumble recovery, one interception and a key pass breakup on a NIU fourth down play early in the game.

"This was great," Brown said. "It's a privilege to earn the defensive MVP honors, and I'm grateful to end my career (in Shreveport)."

Northern Illinois jumped out to an early 7-0 lead on an 8-yard pass from Chandler Harnish to fullback Kyle Skarb with 1:56 to play in the first quarter. The play culminated an 11-play drive covering 69 yards in 1:56.

The lead was short-lived as "Saturday Night" Livas took the ensuing kickoff, ran straight up the middle before veering left towards the Bulldog sideline and raced 97 yards for a touchdown.

It was Livas' second career kickoff return for a touchdown and the sixth longest in Bulldog history. Livas, who also has two punt returns for scores this season, now has four returns for scores in his career, the second most trailing only Larry Anderson with five.

The kickoff return was the second longest in Indy Bowl history and the first since Deuce McAllister returned one for Ole Miss against Texas Tech in 1998.

After a three-and-out by NIU on its next possession, the Bulldogs took a 14-7 lead on an 11-yard Daniel Porter touchdown run with 13:41 to play in the second quarter. The touchdown came on a draw play on second and goal and capped a 5-play, 42-yard drive over 2:04.

After another three-and-out by NIU, Tech appeared to have threatened again when senior Patrick Jackson took a handoff and raced over 50 yards inside the Huskies 10-yard line but a holding penalty negated the play.

The game remained 14-7 but the Bulldogs had a golden opportunity to take a bigger lead into the half when Weldon Brown recovered a fumbled punt return by the Huskies with only 36 seconds remaining in the half.

However, after three straight incomplete passes by Ross Jenkins, Brad Oestriecher had a 41-yard field goal attempt partially blocked by Jake Coffman as the Bulldogs entered the halftime locker room leading by a touchdown.

Oestriecher redeemed himself early it the third quarter as the Bulldogs marched 49 yards on eight plays and took a 17-7 lead on a 33-yard field goal at the 11:54 mark of the third quarter.

NIU came out of the lockerroom and marched 66 yards on its first possession of the third quarter before Tech's defense stiffened, forcing a 20-yard field goal by Mike Salerno. The big play for NIU during the drive was a third down completion from Harnish to Marcus Perez that covered 47 yards and gave the Huskies the ball on the Tech 8-yard line.

With the Bulldogs clinging to a seven-point lead, the Tech defense came through down the stretch.

Over the last five offensive possessions of the game for NIU, the Tech defense held the Huskies to only 103 yards and NIU ventured past midfield only once – the Bulldogs defense held on a fourth-down-and-five play on its own 46 yard line with less than two minutes to play.

The eight wins is the most by a Bulldog team since the 1999 Tech squad posted an 8-3 mark and the bowl win was the first since the 1977 Independence Bowl.

2001 Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl

Clemson 49, Louisiana Tech 24
December 31, Boise, Idaho

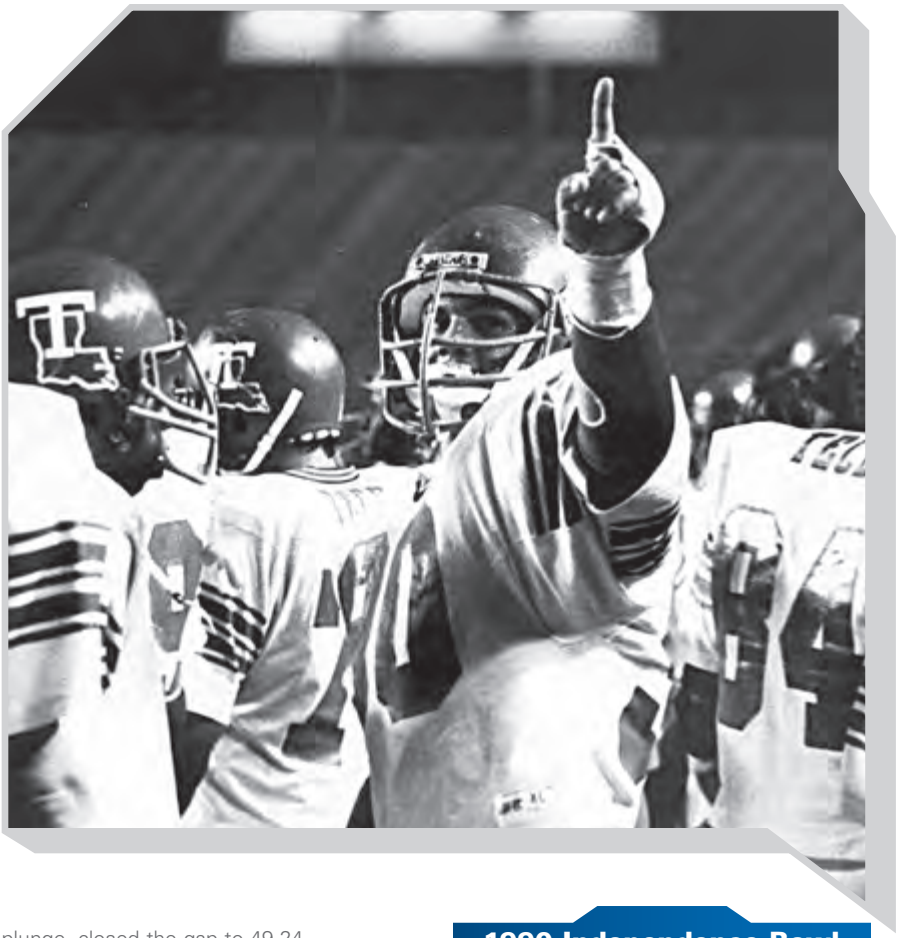
Four third-quarter touchdowns, including two Woody Dantzler scoring passes, were too much for Louisiana Tech to overcome, as the Clemson Tigers downed the Bulldogs 49-24 in the 2001 Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl before 23,472 fans at Bronco Stadium Dec. 31, 2001.

Trailing only 14-10 at the half, Tech failed to find an answer for Dantzler and company in the third quarter. Dantzler, who finished the afternoon completing 15 of 23 passes for 218 yards and four touchdowns, found running back Bernard Rambert for perhaps the game's biggest play early in the second half.

Leading 21-10, Rambert caught a short pass out of the backfield on third down, and after appearing to be stopped short, spun out of the arms of four Bulldog tacklers and raced 62 yards down the sideline to give Clemson a 28-10 advantage. The play seemed to take all of the life out of the Bulldogs.

A Rambert 21-yard touchdown scamper, followed by an Airese Currie 19-yard jaunt, increased the Tiger lead to 42-10 heading into the final stanza. The loss of All-WAC selections Bobby Gray and Jamie Nichols to first half injuries added to the Bulldogs' defensive difficulties.

After holding Clemson to only 14 points and 207 yards in the first half, the injury-riddled Bulldogs' defense allowed 35 points and 341 yards in the second stanza. Two Bulldog touchdowns in the fourth quarter, a 34-yard Luke McCown pass to Delwyn Daigre and a Joe Smith two-yard plunge, closed the gap to 49-24.



However, Clemson wasn't satisfied with the score. The Tigers drove down the field in the final three minutes and instead of running out the clock, attempted a pass into the end zone with under 30 seconds left before also attempting to run the ball in from the one-yard line on the game's final play.

Tech took an early 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a Josh Scobee 29-yard field goal on the Bulldogs' first possession. Clemson scored the game's first touchdown when Dantzler found tight end Mike Bailey from 10 yards out for a 7-3 lead with 5:48 remaining in the first quarter.

The Bulldogs retook the lead at 10-7 when McCown raced in from 11 yards away midway through the second quarter. However, a 15-yard penalty against Tech on the extra point allowed Clemson great field position on its next drive. Two plays later, Dantzler threw his second touchdown pass of the game and Clemson took a 14-10 advantage into the locker room.

One of the bright spots for Tech was the play of Daigre, who earned the most valuable player of the game award for the Bulldogs. Daigre caught 10 passes for 178 yards and one touchdown in his final game.

Despite the disappointing loss, the Bulldogs finished their season 7-5, including the program's first Western Athletic Conference title.

1990 Independence Bowl

Louisiana Tech 34, Maryland 34
December 15, Shreveport, La.

An Independence Bowl record crowd of 48,325 showed up to see Louisiana Tech and Maryland battle to a 34-34 tie in one of the most exciting games of the bowl season.

Chris Boniol's 29-yard field goal as time expired gave the Bulldogs the tie.

Louisiana Tech, participating in its first bowl game since joining the Division I-A ranks prior to the 1989 season, fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter as Maryland running back Troy Jackson scored on a one-yard run and a two-yard run.

However, the Bulldogs would not let the predominantly Louisiana Tech crowd down as they fought back to tie the game at 14-14 at the half. Tech's first touchdown came with 8:30 remaining in the second quarter on a five-yard Michael Richardson run, and Boniol's extra point made the score 14-7 Terps.

Head coach Joe Raymond Peace's team tied the game with only 0:17 remaining in the first half on a three-yard Jason Davis touchdown run as the two teams entered their respective locker rooms tied at 14.

Louisiana Tech came out in the second half and quickly took a 21-14 lead on a Richardson one-yard run.

Jackson scored his third touchdown of the game for Maryland, but the extra point failed as Tech led 21-20. The Bulldogs upped their advantage to 28-20 when Gene Johnson hooked up with Bobby Slaughter on a seven-yard scoring toss.

A Boniol field goal gave Tech a 31-20 lead. Maryland scored two fourth quarter touchdowns to pull ahead 34-31, the last coming with only 0:52 remaining on a 15-yard touchdown pass from Scott Zolak to Barry Johnson on a fourth down play.

Lorenzo Baker returned the ensuing kickoff 41 yards to the Terps 39-yard line setting up the final Boniol heroics.

Richardson (81 yards, two scores) and Davis (72 yards, one score) led Tech's ground attack, while Johnson and Sam Hughes combined to complete 11 of 17 passes for 115 yards and one score.

1984 NCAA Division I-AA Championship

Montana State 19, Louisiana Tech 6
December 15, Charleston, S.C.

After an impressive run in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs, Louisiana Tech struggled in the 1984 National Championship game as Montana State defeated the Bulldogs 19-6.

After scoring 131 points in its three previous playoff wins to advance to the title game, the Bulldog offense sputtered all afternoon long in large part because of the stellar play of the Bobcats defense, which sacked Tech quarterback Kyle Gandy 11 times.

Montana State opened the game with a 33-yard Mark Carter field goal on its second possession after Gandy threw an interception deep in Bulldog territory.

Two possessions later, following a blocked punt by Montana State, the Bobcats scored the game's first touchdown as Kelly Bradley hit Joe Bignell for a 17-yard scoring strike. Carter's extra point was wide left, but Montana State still led 9-0.

Montana State's defense held Louisiana Tech without a first down in the opening 15 minutes of play while forcing two Bulldog turnovers.

The second quarter started better for the Bulldogs as Tech marched down to the Montana State 27-yard line before Gandy fumbled and the Bobcats recovered, ending the Tech scoring threat.

Montana State upped its advantage to 16-0 as it drove 80 yards, capped by a Bradley to Bignell 33-yard scoring strike. Carter added a 48-yard field goal right before the half as the Bobcats took a commanding 19-0 lead into the locker room.

After gaining only 62 total yards of offense in the first half, Tech had little more success in the final two quarters of play. However, Gandy's 10-yard touchdown pass to Mike Sherman with only 0:48 remaining in the game was too little too late as Montana State won the 1984 Division I-AA National Championship.

Gandy finished the afternoon, completing 24 of 38 passes for 287 yards and the one score but was intercepted four times by the Bobcats defense.

Bradley posted stellar numbers for Montana State, completing 32 of 57 passes for 334 yards and two scores while Bignell registered 10 receptions for 130 yards and two touchdowns.

1984 NCAA Division I-AA Semifinal

Louisiana Tech 21, Middle Tenn. 13
December 8, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Louisiana Tech running back David Green racked up 107 rushing yards, including an 80-yard touchdown run, to help seal a 21-13 win against the Blue Raiders in Murfreesboro, Tenn., to advance to the national I-AA championship against Montana State.

Tech jumped on the board first when Richie Sims returned a blocked punt to take a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. Middle Tennessee got on the scoreboard in the second quarter with a field goal and trailed 7-3 going into the half.

The Blue Raiders took a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on a seven-play, 46-yard drive that ended with a two-yard touchdown by running back Gerald Anderson.

The Bulldogs regained the lead minutes later when quarterback Kyle Gandy connected with Todd Breske on an 11-yard pass that capped a 13-play, 72-yard drive.

Middle Tennessee moved within one point at 14-13 with a field goal in the fourth quarter, but that was as close as the Blue Raiders got. On the next play from scrimmage, Green added his game-sealing run to give Tech the victory.

Gandy hit 16-of-28 passes for 134 yards and one touchdown while Breske led all receivers with 44 yards on four receptions.

Louisiana Tech 44, Alcorn State 21
December 1, Jackson, Miss.

Louisiana Tech took on the SWAC Champs and the nation's No. 1 team in the 1984 quarterfinals in Jackson, Miss.

Both teams were held scoreless in the first quarter, but the Tech offense erupted in the second quarter. Running back Gerry Jones started the scoring on a five-yard run early in the second quarter to give the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead.

Three minutes later, wide receiver Mike Sherman hauled in a 12-yard pass from quarterback Kyle Gandy to push Tech's lead to 14-0. The Bulldogs added two points on a safety as the Tech defense sacked Alcorn's quarterback, Rich Myles, in the end zone. Gandy connected for two more touchdown passes in the quarter, an eight-yard pass to Lester Mills and a five-yard pass to Todd Breske, to give Tech a 30-0 lead heading into halftime.

Tech continued where it left off in the third quarter, scoring two more touchdowns on rushing plays by David Green and Garlon Powell to build the Bulldog lead to 44-0.

By the time the Braves got on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter, the 'Dogs had rolled up 448 yards of offense and held Alcorn State to minus 67 yards rushing.

Gandy connected for 19-of-31 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns. Sherman led all receivers with 160 yards on eight receptions while David Green led the running backs with 73 yards on 18 carries and one touchdown.

Defensively, the Bulldogs held Alcorn State to minus 56 rushing yards.

November 24, Ruston, La.

Tech fans had fun at this game, as the 'Dogs turned the tables on the explosive "run and shoot" of MVSU. Tech rolled up an NCAA playoff record 703 yards of total offense and also set or tied six other playoff marks.

The Bulldogs struck first in the game with a 49-yard George Benyola field goal in the first quarter. Three minutes later, Tech took a 10-0 lead as Todd Breske pulled in a 34-yard pass from quarterback Kyle Gandy.

Mississippi Valley scored its first touchdown at the end of the first quarter to close the gap to 10-6.

The Tech offense picked up in the second quarter as David Green scored on a one-yard run to push the Tech lead to 17-6. Tech's Gerry Jones scored two more touchdowns, an eight-yard pass from Gandy and a five-yard run to give the Bulldogs a 31-6 lead.

The Delta Devils scored with three minutes left in the second quarter to make the score 31-12, but Green answered with another Tech rushing touchdown with :33 left in the half.

However, MVSU was not done with its first-half scoring as future NFL star Jerry Rice scored on a 64-yard pass play as time expired to close the gap to 38-19 at halftime. It was the last time in the game that the Delta Devils scored.

The Tech offense picked up steam in the third quarter, scoring three touchdowns, including a 69-yard run by Cleve Bailey. The Bulldogs added a final score in the fourth quarter as Lester Mills pulled in a six-yard pass by Jordan Stanley.

Tech picked up 408 rushing yards in the game, led by Green who recorded 179 yards on 24 carries and three touchdowns. Gandy connected for 11-of-18 passes for 262 yards and three touchdowns while Breske led the receivers with 119 yards on three receptions and two touchdowns.

Delaware 17, Louisiana Tech 0
December 11, Ruston, La.

Playing under cold and rainy conditions, the Bulldog offense failed to score against the Blue Hens as Tech was eliminated from the Division I-AA playoffs.

Delaware picked up a 7-0 lead in the first quarter after gaining good field position following a blocked punt. The Blue Hens took over on the Bulldog 24-yard line and five plays later, picked up their first score.

Under the harsh conditions, neither team could move the ball effectively in the first half as Delaware took the 7-0 lead into the locker room at halftime.

Delaware finally sealed the win in the fourth quarter on a 2-yard run by Kevin Phelan, giving the Blue Hens a 14-0 lead. Delaware added a late field goal to finish out the scoring.

Matt Dunigan led the Tech offense, completing 22-of-47 passes for 239 yards. Frederick Brown led the receivers with 66 yards on five receptions while Carlton Jacobs led the running backs with 33 yards on 11 carries.

1982 NCAA Division I-AA Quarterfinal

Louisiana Tech 38, South Carolina State 3
December 4, Ruston, La.

Louisiana Tech rolled up 474 yards of total offense to advance to the 1982 Division I-AA Semifinals.

South Carolina State scored the first three points of the game but that was all, as the Bulldogs amassed 38 points throughout the contest.

The Bulldogs tied the score in the first quarter on a 27-yard field goal by Roberto Dager. Tech added a touchdown early in the second quarter as Gerald McDaniel caught a three-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Matt Dunigan. Dunigan scored on a quarterback sneak with two minutes left in the half to give the Bulldogs a 17-3 halftime lead.

Tech extended its lead in the third quarter as Carlton Jacobs hauled in a three-yard touchdown pass from Dunigan. The Bulldogs scored two more touchdowns in the fourth quarter with Dunigan rushing for a second score and Kyle Gandy hitting Chris Tilley for an 11-yard strike to close out the score at 38-3.

Dunigan completed 19-of-41 passes for 211 yards and two touchdowns. The All-American also rushed for 72 yards on 11 carries for another two touchdowns. Tilley led the receivers with 49 yards on three receptions and one touchdown.

1978 Independence Bowl

East Carolina 35, Louisiana Tech 13
December 16, Shreveport, La.

Tech's return trip to the Independence Bowl was quite different from the first as East Carolina defeated the Bulldogs 35-13. The Pirates forced four fumbles and intercepted Bulldogs quarterback Keith Thibodeaux three times en route to the victory.

ECU took control of the game early, scoring twice in the first quarter. The Pirates pushed their lead to 21-0 on a touchdown run early in the second quarter. The Bulldogs answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown strike. Tech cut the lead to 21-10 with a 36-yard field goal less than a minute before the end of the half.

The second half was virtually all East Carolina.

Swilley booted another 36-yard field goal six minutes into the third quarter, but that was the end of the offensive night for the Bulldogs. Pirate running back Theodore Sutton raced 45 yards for a touchdown with just under seven minutes remaining in the quarter.

The Pirates sealed the victory with another touchdown late in the game. ECU rolled up 278 yards rushing on the night, while holding the Bulldogs to only 12 yards on the ground.

Louisiana Tech 24, Louisville 14
December 17, Shreveport, La.

Tech used a high-powered passing attack and a stingy defense to defeat the favored University of Louisville, 24-14, in the school's first division I bowl game appearance. Bulldog sophomore quarterback Keith Thibodeaux was named the game's most valuable player, completing 19 of 39 passes for 287 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

The Cardinals looked to take control of the game early when safety Kevin Miller returned a Bulldog punt 60 yards for the game's first touchdown less than two minutes into the contest.

However, that was the end of the road for Louisville as Thibodeaux proceeded to pick apart the Cardinal secondary. The Opelousas native drove the Bulldogs 68 yards to paydirt, tying the score. Running back Charlie Lewis capped the drive, punching it in from one yard out.

Later in the first quarter Thibodeaux hooked up with receiver George Pree for a 41-yard scoring strike to give the Bulldogs a 13-7 lead. Tech never looked back, pushing its lead to 21-7 late in the first when Thibodeaux connected with tight end Larry McCartney from eight yards out and Lewis added the two-point conversion.

Tech added a 21-yard Keith Swilley field goal in the second quarter. Louisville ried to climb back into the game in the third, scoring on a 13-yard run by Miller midway through the quarter.

However, that was all the Bulldogs would allow. Tech fouced three fumbles, an interception and held the Cardinals to only 11 first downs. The Louisville offense could muster only 100 yards rushing and an astonishing 61 yards through the air.

1974 Pioneer Bowl NCAA Division II Semifinal

Central Michigan 35, Louisiana Tech 14
December 7, Wichita Falls, Texas

The Chippewas built a 35-0 lead before Tech, hampered by six interceptions, scored two TDs in the fourth quarter.

Both teams remained scoreless in the first quarter before Central Michigan took control in the second quarter with two unanswered touchdowns to take a 14-0 lead into the half.

CMU added one touchdown in the third quarter and two more in the fourth quarter before the Bulldogs jumped on the scoreboard.

Tech's Arry Moody pulled in a five-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Steve Haynes to put Louisiana Tech on the scoreboard. Moody later scored again on a 15-yard run.

Haynes completed 10-of-23 passes for one touchdown while Moody led the Tech receivers with 45 yards on two receptions and one touchdown.

1974 NCAA Division II Quarterfinal

Louisiana Tech 10, Western Carolina 7
November 30, Ruston, La.

In a game which included multiple turnovers, Louisiana Tech edged by Western Carolina 10-7 to advance to the Division II Semifinals.

Tech opened the scoring in the first quarter as Roland Harper broke away on a 54-yard scamper to give the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead. The score was the only one in the first half as Tech took the lead into halftime.

In the second half, Western Carolina tied the game at 7-7 late in the third quarter.

The game came down to a 22-yard field goal by Tech's Jerry Pope with 1:36 remaining in the contest. Pope's kick cleared the uprights and sent the Bulldogs to another victory.

Steve Haynes led the Bulldogs with 89 yards passing while Harper rushed for 114 yards on 14 carries.

1973 Camellia Bowl NCAA Division II National Championship

Louisiana Tech 34, Western Kentucky 0
December 16, Sacramento, Calif.

The Bulldogs blew out the Hilltoppers to win the NCAA's first Division II national championship. Tech amassed 336 yards of total offense, compared to just 76 for WKU. The opponents were held to minus 12 yards on the ground, and Tech picked off four passes.

Tech picked up its first points in the first quarter on a 33-yard field goal by Jerry Pope. Two minutes later, Charles "Quick Six" McDaniel scored on a 1-yard touchdown run to give the Bulldogs a 10-0 lead.

The Bulldogs added to their lead early in the second quarter when Danny Curtis intercepted a Hilltopper pass and returned it 11 yards for a touchdown. A little over a minute later, quarterback Denny Duron connected with Roger Carr on a 36-yard pass to give the Bulldogs a 24-0 lead going into the locker room.

Louisiana Tech added to its lead in the fourth quarter on a 31-yard field goal by Pope and a 28-yard touchdown pass from Steve Haynes to Pat Tilley.

Duron completed 4-of-14 passes for 78 yards and one touchdown while Haynes completed 6-of-13 for 72 yards and one touchdown. McDaniel rushed for 116 yards on 21 carries while Tilley recorded 106 receiving yards on seven catches.

1973 Division II Semifinals

Louisiana Tech 38, Boise State 34
December 8, Wichita Falls, Texas

In a high-scoring affair, Louisiana Tech's Denny Duron connected with Roger Carr on an 21-yard touchdown pass with :12 left in the game to lift the Bulldogs into the 1973 Division II National Championship.

The Broncos took an early lead, scoring two touchdowns in the first quarter before the Bulldogs answered on a touchdown run by Charles "Quick Six" McDaniel.

Tech added to its point total in the second quarter on a field goal by Jerry Pope and another rushing touchdown by McDaniel to give the Bulldogs a 17-14 halftime lead.

The teams traded leads throughout the second half as Boise State scored another touchdown early in the third quarter to take a 20-17 lead.

The Bulldogs responded with a nine-play touchdown drive that ended with a Duron-to-Carr pass to make the score 24-20 in Tech's favor.

Boise State and Tech traded scores early in the fourth quarter before the Broncos took their last lead on a touchdown play with 3:42 remaining in the game.

But the time allowed the Bulldogs to march down the field on an 11-play drive capped by Carr's touchdown grab to give Louisiana Tech the 38-34 win.

Duron completed 16-of-30 passes for 259 yards and two touchdowns while rushing 37 yards on 15 carries for another touchdown. Carr led the receivers with 117 yards on five receptions for two touchdowns while McDaniel rushed for 116 yards on 20 carries for two touchdowns.

1973 Division II First Round

Bulldogs 18, Western Illinois 13
December 1, Ruston, La.

Louisiana Tech gained 457 yards of total offensive to advance to the Division II Semifinals.

Western Illinois took an early lead in the first quarter on two field goals to give the Leathernecks a 6-0 lead.

The Bulldogs picked up their first score on a 1-yard rush by quarterback Denny Duron to tie the score at 6-6. Tech took the lead later in the quarter on a 1-yard score by Charles "Quick Six" McDaniel, giving the Bulldogs a 12-6 advantage heading into the second half.

The Bulldogs padded their lead with a 68-yard pass from Duron to Mike Barber, giving Tech an 18-6 edge in the third quarter.

Western Illinois scored once more but it was not enough as the Bulldogs held on for the 18-13 win. Duron completed 10-of-22 passes for 183 yards and one touchdown while rushing 10 times for 69 yards and another score.

McDaniel rushed for 91 yards on 20 carries and one touchdown while Barber caught three passes for 111 yards for one touchdown.

1972 Grantland Rice Bowl

Louisiana Tech 35, Tennessee Tech 0
November 9, Baton Rouge, La.

Louisiana Tech had a 375-94 advantage in total offense as the Bulldogs defeated Tennessee Tech 35-0 to win the 1972 Grantland Rice Bowl and complete a perfect 12-0 season.

The Bulldogs held a 7-0 lead after the first quarter but scored three second quarter touchdowns to take a 28-0 lead at halftime.

Tech added another score early in the third quarter and cruised the rest of the way to collect the victory.

Quarterback Denny Duron hit 11 of 20 passes for 227 yards and two scores while wide receiver Roger Carr had six catches for 141 yards including a 29-yard touchdown catch.

Running back Glen Berteau had 10 carries for 58 yards and two scores while linebacker Joe McNeely had a spectacular effort that included 12 individual tackles, a fumble recovery and a 31-yard touchdown run on an intercepted pass.

1971 Pioneer Bowl NCAA Division II Midwest Region Championship

Louisiana Tech 14, Eastern Michigan 3
December 11, Wichita Falls, Texas

Wenford Wilborn set a Division II record with a 91-yard punt return, and QB Ken Lantrip completed 14 passes for 170 yards and one touchdown as Louisiana Tech defeated Eastern Michigan 14-3.

The Bulldogs struck first as Lantrip connected with Glen Berteau for a 17-yard touchdown strike in the first quarter.

Eastern Michigan picked up a field goal in the second half as the Bulldogs carried a 7-3 lead into halftime.

The Bulldogs stretched their lead as Wilborn broke a punt return 91 yards for the final score of the game.

Lantrip completed 14-of-34 passes for 170 yards and one touchdown to lead the Bulldog offense. Roger Carr led the receivers with 40 yards on three receptions while Berteau caught three passes for 34 yards and one touchdown. Berteau also led the team with 31 yards rushing on 14 carries.

1969 Grantland Rice Bowl NCAA Division II Mideast Region Championship

East Tennessee 34, Louisiana Tech 14
December 13, Baton Rouge, La.

In Terry Bradshaw's final appearance as a Bulldog, he completed 20 passes for 299 yards, but he was sacked 12 times for 143 yards in losses as the Bulldogs fell 34-14 to East Tennessee in the 1969 Grantland Rice Bowl.

The Buccaneers got on the scoreboard first with a touchdown in the first quarter to take an early 6-0 lead. East Tennessee extended its lead to 13-0 in the second quarter on a 37-yard halfback pass for a touchdown and took that lead into the locker room at the half.

The Bulldogs finally found the end zone in the third quarter on an eight-yard pass from Bradshaw to fullback Buster Herren.

The Buccaneers added a third-quarter touchdown before the Bulldogs pulled within 20-14 on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Bradshaw to Tommy Spinks.

That was as close as Louisiana Tech got in the game though, as East Tennessee iced the game with two last stanza scores.

Louisiana Tech 33, Akron 13
December 14, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Playing in the school's first bowl game, the Bulldogs battled sub-freezing temperatures and the Akron Zips but came out with a 33-13 victory.

The Bulldogs didn't waste any time scoring, tallying three touchdowns in the first quarter. Quarterback Terry Bradshaw picked up the first score on a 16-yard run. Moments later, Bradshaw hit Tommy Spinks on a 36-yard pass to give the Bulldogs a second touchdown. Fullback Buster Herren added a third score on a 2-yard run to give Tech a 21-0 lead early in the game.

Akron picked up a touchdown in the second quarter and trailed 21-7 at halftime, then moved within eight points in the third quarter, making the score 21-13.

But the Bulldogs toughened up in the fourth quarter, scoring twice on plays led by Bradshaw. On the first score, Bradshaw shook off several Akron tacklers and hit tight end Larry Brewer on a 6-yard scoring strike. Later in the quarter, Bradshaw scored again on an 8-yard run to close out the scoring.

Bradshaw led the Bulldogs offensively, completing 19-of-33 passes for 261 yards and two touchdowns. The young quarterback also led the team in rushing, collecting 35 yards on 12 carries for another two scores. Spinks led the receivers with 12 receptions for 167 yards and one touchtown.

THE LEGEND OF THE BULLDOG

The story takes place in the autumn of 1899 when five Tech students were returning home from school. They came upon an old, hungry bulldog sitting under a tree. The boys fed the dog with what food they had and continued their journey.

When they finally reached their destination, however, they found that the dog had followed them. Being sensitive young men, they sought permission for the dog to stay the night, and the landlord agreed – if the animal remained in the kitchen.

That night the house caught fire.

Their overnight guest was the first to awaken. The dog ran from room to room, rousing everyone in the building. Then, after all the other occupants had made their way to safety, one boy remained inside. The bulldog re-entered the smoke-filled house in an apparent attempt to rescue him, not realizing the boy had escaped in a different direction.

After the fire was extinguished and smoke had finally cleared, the boys went inside to see if the dog had indeed made it out to safety. But when they entered they found the lifeless bulldog lying in an unburned corner of one room. He had died from the smoke and the heat.

Naturally, the young men were shaken due to the death of their new friend. So they picked him up and carried him to the place they had found him the previous day. They then dug a grave and wrapped him in two jackets – one red and the other blue.

When the boys returned to school and related their story, the entire campus mourned the death of the homeless dog. The dog with no name had found a place in the hearts of Tech students.

Two years later, Tech organized a football team and decided the team needed not only school colors, but a mascot. A unanimous decision was reached as the bulldog, the first hero of Tech, was given the honor and the red and blue blankets he was buried in were made the school colors.

ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS

A number of student-athletes attend Louisiana Tech as a result of endowed athletic scholarships, which have been established as a means of supporting intercollegiate athletics.

Tech athletics would like to thank and recognize the following individuals who have established scholarships to benefit athletics or in whose honor or memory a scholarship has been established. The financial boost provided by these endowed scholarships is critical to maintaining a successful athletics program.

TEAM TECH 100

The bridge to a new tomorrow

Team Tech 100 is a select group of supporters dedicated to changing the landscape of Louisiana Tech Athletics. A four-year financial commitment by these individuals and businesses allows Tech Athletics to make significant investments that directly impact winning. For complete information on becoming a part of Team Tech 100, please call Adam McGuirt at 318.255.7950.

DR. DAN RENEAU

University President

There's a lot to look forward to at Louisiana Tech, as university President Dan Reneau knows well. The university is growing with the increased enrollment of students and the construction of new facilities.

Under Reneau's leadership, the university is on track in its long-term Tech 2020 goal, a strategy to ensure the university stays in tune with academic, economic, and research trends in the state, region, and nation.

"The transformation of higher education in Louisiana is taking place before our eyes," Reneau said. "The faculty and staff of Louisiana Tech have chosen to use this transformation as an opportunity to strengthen their institution through a collective and progressive recruitment and retention effort."

The university has continually thrived with Reneau at the helm in a variety of areas, including:

* New construction and renovation of buildings. Currently, the first buildings of Tech's Enterprise Campus are being constructed, and renovations include the expansion of the Maxie Lambright Intramural Center, the Technology Transfer Center and the Visual Arts Center. The $20 million Quest for Excellence initiative was also announced in Summer 2010, and plans are in the works for the construction of a 90,000-plus square-foot multipurpose facility in the south end zone of Joe Aillet Stadium. The new facility will benefit all student athletes and will include a state-of-the-art sports medicine facility, a new strength and conditioning complex and a new academic center.
* All-time high average ACT score of entering freshmen. The average ACT score of beginning freshmen increased from 22.5 in the fall of 2004 to 23.5 in the fall of 2009.
* Received national accolades. The university was ranked among the nation's best colleges and universities and moved up to a Tier 3 ranking by U.S. News and World Report's 2010 Best Colleges publication. In addition, Louisiana Tech achieved the state's highest ranking among public colleges and universities, according to Washington Monthly's 2009 College Rankings.
* Performance-based Funding. Tech fared better than all Louisiana public universities for performance-based funding.
* National bookstore chain comes to campus. Barnes & Noble bought out the bookstore and will offer more book selections with plans to expand in three to five years.
* Increased enrollment recognized. In Fall 2009, Louisiana Tech's total enrollment stood at 11,289 students, which represents an addition of 339 students, an increase of 3.1 percent.

Reneau is leaving a lasting legacy with Louisiana Tech, especially with the engineering program. Reneau graduated with his bachelor's degree in chemical engineering from Tech in 1963 and received his master's in the same subject in 1964. He received his Ph.D. in 1966 from Clemson University.

Reneau became a faculty member at Tech in 1967 as an assistant professor of chemical engineering and made his way up the ladder to associate professor in 1969 and a full professor in 1973. Reneau's professional experience includes serving as a research engineer for both Esso and Humble oil companies and as a consultant for five other corporations and universities.

Reneau also has studied abroad at Johannes Gutenburg University in Mainz, West Germany, as an Alexander-von-Humbolt Stiftung visiting professor and also to England at Cambridge and Bristol universities as a visiting professor.

At Tech, Reneau established the biomedical engineering department and was named its head in 1972. The department became the fifth accredited department for its undergraduate curriculum in the United States, and the doctoral program was awarded a commendation of excellence by the Board of Regents.

In 1980, Reneau was promoted to vice president for academic affairs, serving as the chief academic officer to some 400 faculty in six colleges and three professional schools with more than 160 different degree programs. During his tenure as vice president, every major program became accredited, and he was also instrumental in establishing the Center for Biomedical Engineering and Rehabilitation Science.

Reneau was selected as the university's 13th president Feb. 20, 1987, and the public endorsed their new president before the decision was even made. The university paper, The Tech Talk, issued a rare endorsement for the Tech alumnus; the Student Government Association supported his selection through a resolution sent to Baton Rouge; many faculty members circulated a petition for his appointment; and even the Faculty Senate gave Reneau a stamp of approval.

When hurricanes Katrina and Rita devastated the Louisiana coast in 2005, under Reneau's leadership, Tech welcomed hundreds of evacuees and offered them shelter in Caruthers Residence Hall. Tech also opened its doors to students from various universities in New Orleans as well as the Tulane University football team.

Tech continues to flourish under Reneau's leadership. In 2007, the university and its president received a glowing review from a team led by national educational consultant James Fisher.

Tech's graduate programs continue to prosper, as well. A total of ten doctoral degrees are now available at Tech, including a new doctoral program in industrial and organizational psychology that began in 2009. In 2007, Tech produced the first graduate in the world who holds a bachelor's degree in nanosystems engineering. Last year, Tech reported a record graduate student enrollment with graduate enrollment totaling 2,530, an increase of 9.3 percent.

As Tech holds strong to its 2020 goal, progress is echoed by research, such as a study conducted by the Applied Research Technology Corporation of Baton Rouge. The study shows that Louisiana Tech students have an annual statewide spending impact of $145 million and contribute over 56 hours of volunteerism per student, per year. Over the past 10 years, 65 percent of Tech's graduates have stayed in Louisiana with total earnings of nearly $1 billion.

"One of Louisiana Tech's greatest strengths has always been the quality of its students," Reneau said. "Their success, both during and after college, will impact not only the future of our university, but also the future of our region and our state. As a campus community, we have a responsibility to do everything we can to continue recruiting, educating and graduating the next generation of Louisiana's leaders."

Reneau, a native of Woodville, Miss., was born June 11, 1940. He started as a student at Tech in 1959 and met his wife, the former Linda Digby, of Bernice, while a student at Tech. Reneau and his wife have two children, John and Dana, who are both Tech alumni as well. John lives in Las Vegas, and Dana lives in Baton Rouge with her husband, Jim Bernhard, and their two sons, Michael and Ben.

BRUCE VAN DE VELDE

Athletics Director

Bruce Van De Velde was named Louisiana Tech's athletics director in February of 2010 by Louisiana Tech President Dr. Dan Reneau.

"Bruce is well qualified by national standards to fill the position of athletics director at Louisiana Tech," Reneau said. "I feel that we made an excellent choice in selecting him to lead Tech athletics to national prominence and to serve the needs of our student-athletes."

Van De Velde, who joined the University in June of 2008 as deputy athletics director and chief operating officer, took over full leadership of a department that fields 16 NCAA Division I sanctioned programs, including nine women's and seven men's sports, that compete in the highly-competitive Western Athletic Conference.

"It is an honor to be named as the director of athletics at Louisiana Tech University," Van De Velde said. "I look forward to serving our student-athletes, faculty, staff, alumni and fans. Our vision is to build a program to a level where we can be associated with universities that aspire to academic and athletic excellence at the highest level.

"This goal is consistent with the vision President Reneau has established for the University which is to become north Louisiana's premier national research university. In order to accomplish this vision we must engage all of our 80,000 alumni, fans and supporters and ask them for their participation. It takes resources to achieve our goal, and we need every one to support the program."

During his tenure Van De Velde has been instrumental in a number of accomplishments that have helped further the advancement of the University's athletic department, including:

• Developed, negotiated and implemented $6.75 million multi-media and marketing rights agreement with Learfield Communications. Contract more than doubled revenue derived from corporate sponsorships and created state-wide radio network for Louisiana Tech athletics. Negotiated purchase of $1.6 million Daktronics large screen high-definition video board for Joe Aillet Stadium.

• Upgraded ticket operations by negotiating new contract with Ticketmaster. Improved customer service, marketing and communication efforts. Developed e-commerce capabilities by implementing on-line ticketing. Established new record for football season ticket sales. Sold allotment of 12,000 Independence Bowl tickets.

• Reorganized annual giving program doubling the number of donors and increased total annual contributions to the program by 75 percent. Developed marketing efforts to strengthen outreach and established an agenda for growth. Implemented new giving plan for 1,150 new chair-back seats for football.

• Led a national search in January of 2010 to hire head football coach Sonny Dykes from the University of Arizona. Was instrumental in hiring head women's basketball coach in Women's Basketball Hall of Fame member Teresa Weatherspoon.

• In 2010, the Louisiana Tech athletic department earned the PRISM Award for excellence in athletics management under Van De Velde's leadership.

•Organized a $20 million fund raising campaign for Louisiana Tech athletics "Quest for Excellence." Oversaw the development of the design of a new $20 million athletic sports complex.

Tech has also seen plenty of success on the fields and courts since Van De Velde's arrival at Tech as the Bulldog football team captured its first bowl victory in more than 30 years with the 2008 Independence Bowl title. The Lady Techster basketball team won the 2009 regular season Western Athletic Conference title and the 2010 WAC Tournament title, and the women's indoor and outdoor track and field teams won both the 2009 and 2010 league titles.

The University's student-athletes have also seen success in the classroom since his arrival on campus as this past year saw eight of the 16 program's record their highest multi-year APR ever and seven record their highest single-year APR ever. During the 2009-10 season, Tech saw 94 student-athletes earn Academic all-WAC honors for their work in the classrooms while senior sprinter Antoinette Cobb earned the Honda Inspiration Award for her work both on the track and in the classroom while overcoming a battle with cancer.

Van De Velde came to Tech with impressive credentials, having served as an administrator in intercollegiate athletics for over 20 years. Van De Velde served as athletics director at Iowa State University and Utah State University and as a senior administrator at the University of Oklahoma, University of Missouri and Kansas State University.

Van De Velde's tenure at Iowa State University included an unprecedented five bowl appearances in six years and the highest national AP football poll ranking (9th) in school history. Iowa State's 2001 average football attendance of 45,172 reached its highest watermark in 18 years. In 2002 and 2003, total football attendance exceeded 300,000; the most at ISU in two decades.

The emergence of the Cyclone football program on a national stage with Van De Velde at the department helm was affirmed in 2002 when Iowa State was chosen to play No. 1 Florida State University in the Eddie Robinson Classic. During Van De Velde's tenure at Iowa State, the men's and women's basketball teams won Big XII conference championships and participated in the 2001, 2002 and 2005 NCAA basketball tournaments.

Van De Velde, with a track record for generating revenue, increased the total annual operating revenues for the Cyclone athletic department from $19.6 million to $30 million dollars over a five year period. Revenue generated from fundraising, ticket sales, marketing and corporate sponsorships, licensing, radio and television reached all-time highs during his tenure.

In 2005, total fundraising increased from $4.85 million to $8.6 million and the annual giving achieved the highest membership total in its history with more than 5,500 donors participating and a record $4 million dollars in annual contributions. Under Van De Velde's leadership, over 2,000 new donors joined the National Cyclone Club. Including capital project gifts, scholarship endowments and annual contributions, over $40 million dollars was raised from 2001 through 2005.

Iowa State's graduation rate of 89 percent for student-athletes who complete their eligibility was second in the Big XII Conference, and graduation rates for minority student-athletes more than tripled during Van De Velde's tenure. In 2004-05, Iowa State was one of eight universities nationally to have its football team win a bowl game and have its men and women's basketball teams participate in the NCAA tournament. The Sporting News in 2001 rated Iowa State as the seventh best athletic program among more than 115 NCAA Division I-A programs nationally. The ranking considered competitive success, graduation rates, fan support and NCAA compliance to determine national rank.

During his time as athletic director at Utah State University, Van De Velde made his mark by hiring Stew Morrill as the head men's basketball coach. Morrill has guided Utah State to nine straight postseason tournaments and is the winningest coach in the history of the Utah State program.

While serving as the associate athletic director for football operations under head coach Bill Snyder at Kansas State University, Van De Velde was part of the resurrection of Wildcat football in Manhattan as the program became a national power participating in five bowl games. Van De Velde was recipient of the Admiral U.S. Grant Sharp Award at the 1997 Holiday Bowl for his contributions to the Kansas State football team when the nationally ranked Wildcats finished with a 10-2 record.

As the senior associate athletic for external affairs at the University of Oklahoma, Van De Velde served as the senior administrative officer for the athletic department and oversaw the areas of fundraising, marketing, corporate sponsorships, ticket sales, media relations and licensing. Van De Velde managed units that generated in excess of $35 million in annual revenues.

Van De Velde directed the Campaign for Sooner Sports, a $100 million dollar capital campaign to fund facility improvements and scholarships. As associate athletic director for development at the University of Missouri, Van De Velde planned and initiated a $50 million dollar capital campaign for facility improvements for the Sports Park at MU.

Van De Velde received the General Robert Neiland Award from the National Football Foundation in 2005 for his service and contributions as an athletic director.

Throughout his career in college athletics, Van De Velde has served on numerous NCAA committees including the Championships and Competition Cabinet, the Football Issues Committee, the Financial Aid Committee and the Peer Review Committee for NCAA certification.

He and his wife Debbie, who is a Kansas State alum and who works in the LA Tech College of Business, are the proud parents of 10-year-old daughter, Ashley who is entering the fourth grade.

MARY KAY HUNGATE

Deputy Athletics Director/ Senior Woman Administrator

Deputy Athletics Director and Senior Woman Administrator Mary Kay Hungate returns for her 26th year as a member of the Louisiana Tech athletics department and has proven to be an integral part in the recent emergence of the Tech teams on the playing fields and in the classroom.

Not only does Hungate serve as the sports administrator for men's and women's basketball, women's soccer, softball, women's tennis, women's bowling and women's volleyball, but she is also in charge of NCAA compliance for all of the university's 16 NCAA sanctioned programs.

As one of the top two ranking administrators in the Tech athletics department, Hungate is part of a senior staff that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech athletics department has also finished in the Top 10 the past two years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

Hungate serves a vital role in the hiring of coaches. Hungate proved instrumental in the decision by former Tech Kodak All-American and WNBA All-Star Teresa Weatherspoon - who played for Hungate in the late-80s - to return to Louisiana Tech in June of 2008. Weatherspoon was promoted to head coach in February of 2009 where she led the Lady Techsters to the WAC regular season title and a berth in the WNIT. This past season, she led Tech to the 2010 WAC Tournament title and a return to the NCAA Tournament.

She also served as the point person in the hiring process of head women's soccer coach Kevin Sherry and head women's volleyball coach Matt Sonnichsen. Sherry led the Lady Techster soccer team to two straight winning seasons the past two years - the first in program history - and the program's first ever WAC victory.

In only his second season at the helm, Sonnichsen, who was a three-time All-American and two-time National Champion during his playing days at UCLA, led the Lady Techsters to 15 wins - the most since 2005 - as well as a program record in WAC victories.

Another of Hungate's responsibilities includes overseeing the academic side of the Tech athletics department, another area which has improved drastically as proven by the fact LA Tech's graduation rate continues to be one of the highest in the state (Federal Graduation Report), including ranking No. 1 in the state of Louisiana and the Western Athletic Conference in recent years.

This past year eight of the 16 NCAA sanctioned programs at LA Tech earn their highest multi-year APR score ever while 94 student-athletes earned Academic all-WAC honors.

Hungate also plays an important role in LA Tech's NCAA Certification process. As a member of the Steering Committee and the liaison between the athletic department and the University's Self Study Committees, she provides the information needed for the committees to write their reports. In 2006, LA Tech completed its second NCAA Certification cycle and once again was certified without conditions.

Hungate joined the Louisiana Tech staff in 1985 as an assistant women's basketball coach and remained in that role for five years. During that time, the Lady Techsters participated in four Final Fours and won the NCAA National Championship in 1988.

In 1990, Hungate made a move out of coaching and became assistant athletics director for academics and compliance as well as senior woman administrator. One of Hungate's early accomplishments as assistant director of athletics was the creation of the Louisiana Tech Athletic Academic Center program.

Hungate has served terms on the NCAA Division I Academics/ Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet, the NCAA Division I Interpretations/ Legislative Review Subcommittee, the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators Wade Trophy Selection Committee and as an NCAA Peer Reviewer. She has also served on the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Issues Committee since 2004.

She currently serves on the Western Athletic Conference Council, the Conferences' Legislative Review Committee, the Finance Committee and the Code Book Committee. In addition, along with Athletics Director Bruce Van De Velde, she represents the athletics department as an ex-officio member of the LA Tech Athletics Council.

Hungate's professional career began as Women's Sports Coordinator and head volleyball, head basketball and head softball coach at Illinois' Carl Sandburg Junior College. She spent four seasons at the college where she guided the basketball team to a mark of 80-22 which included an 11th place finish in the 1976 NJCAA national tournament.

In 1978 Hungate took over the head coaching position at Richwoods High School in Peoria, Ill., and quickly compiled one of the top prep coaching records in the nation.

During her seven seasons at Richwoods High School, Hungate's team ran up an impressive record of 195-13, including a state-record 63 consecutive victories. Hungate was named the National Coach of the Year by USA Today in 1985. Before coming to Louisiana Tech, Hungate amassed a career coaching record of 275-35.

ERIC BUSKIRK

Associate Athletics Director/ External Affairs

Eric Buskirk enters his fourth season as the associate athletics director for external affairs at Louisiana Tech University.

Buskirk directs fundraising, corporate sponsorships, ticket sales, community relations, licensing, branding, marketing, promotions, video board productions, and the Learfield Sports partnership for Louisiana Tech athletics. Buskirk is a member of the NACMA Board of Directors, and is also an adjunct professor in the College of Business for an advanced level sports management course.

Under Buskirk's direction, Louisiana Tech's external affairs have seen a wave of new developments, and national recognition for its accomplishments. LA Tech athletics has reached record totals in all three major revenue generating areas including fundraising, season ticket sales and corporate sponsorships. Buskirk's external team was named the winner of the 2010 PRISM Awards for department excellence, and has been selected as the NCAA Pack the House Challenge winner three years in a row.

The revenue generating advancements have been supported by the addition of multiple strategic business processes being installed. The advancements include the creation of LTAC, Team Tech 100 and the LA Tech Kids Club in the fundraising area. Ticketmaster was contracted to implement the full Archtics ticketing package, and a newly formed call center was established to support the tickets sales efforts.

Under Buskirk's first two years leading the external affairs department, corporate sponsorships tripled with a restructured sponsorship sales approach, and advancements will continue as Learfield Sports was contracted to officially operate LA Tech Sports Properties, officially beginning operations for the 2009 season. Additional upgrades include contracting Rickabaugh Graphics as a part of the rebranding of new logos, and the partnership with CBS sports as the official website provider for LA Tech athletics.

The external affairs advancements have also made way for a new Daktronics state-of-the-art high definition video display scoreboard for the 2009 season. The HD-16 mm video display board will be the largest in the Western Athletic Conference.

Buskirk came to Louisiana Tech after working at UTSA as the assistant athletic director for external affairs. Buskirk oversaw the external affairs areas of fundraising, marketing, corporate sponsorships, ticket sales, merchandising, trademark licensing, branding, website revenue generation, courtesy car program, promotions and spirit squad, along with being the assistant tournament manager for NCAA Championships including the NCAA Final Four.

During his time at UTSA, Buskirk was recognized as one of the "Top 40 under 40" Rising Stars by the San Antonio Business Journal.

Under his direction, UTSA athletics experienced a dramatic increase in its external components, including more than doubling corporate sponsorship revenue in Buskirk's first 12 months directing the department. Buskirk was instrumental in negotiating with XOS Technologies to be the official website provider of UTSA athletics while also instituting the UTSA athletics re-branding campaign.

Buskirk was heavily involved in the direction of the NCAA Championships that the City of San Antonio hosts. He was the assistant tournament manager and directed marketing efforts for the 2006 NCAA Volleyball Championship, 2006 NCAA Women's Basketball San Antonio Regional, and the 2007 NCAA Men's Basketball South Regional. Buskirk was also a key committee member for the 2008 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Final Four hosted by UTSA.

Other additions to the UTSA external department included partnerships with local media giants Clear Channel, FOX TV, and Time Warner Cable. Buskirk also instituted new creative ticket sales strategies including a telemarketing call center that dramatically increased ticket sale efforts.

Prior to his time at UTSA, Buskirk served as the athletics marketing director at Lynn University in Boca Raton, Florida, where he also served as an adjunct professor in the College of Business and Management. The Columbus, Ohio, native served as a market research analyst for the NBA's Miami Heat before joining the Lynn staff. Buskirk earned his bachelor's degree in sports management from Ohio State and an MBA in sport management from Florida Atlantic University.

During his time at Ohio State, he also worked as a coach for men's and women's tennis at Columbus West High School and as assistant men's basketball coach at St. Charles Prep in Columbus.

A native of Columbus, Ohio, Buskirk lettered in football, basketball, tennis and golf at West High School, where he was a teammate of Michael Redd, who starred at Ohio State and now plays for the NBA's Milwaukee Bucks.

Away from the office, Buskirk is an avid golfer who is always working to lower his handicap, and enjoys reading books on leadership and motivation. Buskirk's wife Audrey is the coordinator of marketing and healthy woman advisor for the Northern Louisiana Medical Center.

MALCOLM BUTLER

Associate Athletics Director/ Media Relations

Malcolm Butler begins his 12th year in the Louisiana Tech athletics department, his fourth as the associate athletic director in charge of media relations.

A 1994 graduate of the Louisiana Tech journalism department, Butler joined the athletic department in July of 1999 as the assistant athletic media relations director.

Butler was then promoted to the director's position four months later and served in that capacity until the fall of 2007 when he was promoted to associate athletic director.

The 40-year-old is in charge of media relations for women's basketball, softball and men's golf and also serves as the secondary contact for football while overseeing the daily operations for the entire department.

During his time at Louisiana Tech, Butler has been instrumental in promoting numerous high-profile student-athletes such as Jacksonville Jaguars quarterback Luke McCown, Minnesota Vikings running back Ryan Moats, and former WNBA Rookie of the Year Cheryl Ford.

He has also worked closely with a number of highly-successful head coaches, including 4-time Hall of Famer Leon Barmore, current Tennessee head coach Derek Dooley and current Lady Techster women's basketball coach Teresa Weatherspoon.

Over the course of his tenure, Tech's media relations department has proven to be one of the best in the state of Louisiana. Over the past nine years, members of the Tech media relations department have won a total of 28 awards at the annual Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA) state SID contest – the second most behind only LSU.

During that same period of time, Butler has garnered 22 of those awards which is tied for the most among any state SID with LSU Associate Athletics Director Michael Bonnette.

Butler is part of a senior staff at LA Tech that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech athletics department has also finished in the Top 10 the past two years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

He was instrumental in the forming the partnership between Louisiana Tech and CBS College Sports in the fall of 2007 in the redesign and hosting of the athletic departments website, www.latechsports.com. The website has undergone two redesigns since the inaugural release.

As part of the agreement with CBS College Sports, a new web-streaming platform - LA Tech All-Access was created - which allows fans from all over the world to watch live streams of almost all of the university's home athletic events. In 2009-10, LA Tech All-Access streamed more than 100 live events.

Butler has served as the host media coordinator for three NCAA Women's Basketball First- and Second-Round sites hosted by Louisiana Tech (2000, 2001 and 2003) while also serving as the host media coordinator for the 2008 WAC Baseball Championships hosted by Louisiana Tech at J.C. Love Field in Ruston.

In addition to his media relations responsibilities, Butler has served as the radio broadcaster for the nationally-prominent Louisiana Tech Lady Techster basketball team for the past 11 years, including the past 10 as the play-by-play announcer.

During that time, he has broadcast more than 325 women's basketball games - including 14 NCAA Tournament games. He has also broadcast in excess of 50 softball games, including four in the 2008 NCAA Tournament, and served as the color commentator on 10 Bulldog football broadcasts. Butler is also the host of Inside Tech Basketball with Teresa Weatherspoon, a 30-minute radio show.

Butler implemented a fundraising campaign for his department in the fall of 2007 and over the past four years he has raised over $25,000, which has been used to purchase additional equipment, software, and other essentials.

He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA), United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) and Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

MARIE PIPES

Associate Athletics Director/ Chief Financial Officer

Marie Pipes will begin her 26th year at Louisiana Tech and her third as associate athletics director - chief financial officer in the athletic department.

She is responsible for the day-to-day business operations of the athletic department, including overseeing the individual budgets for 16 varsity sports, monitoring athletic funds of the Louisiana Tech Athletic Foundation, serving as liaison with the university's business offices and supervising the athletic ticket office.

Pipes is part of a senior staff at LA Tech that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech athletics department has also finished in the Top 10 the past two years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

Pipes previously served as the budget manager for the College of Engineering for six years where she had similar. She was also in the College of Liberal Arts as the dean's assistant handling day-to-day business in the office while working with budget planning for the year.

In 2002, she received the Distinctive Professional Performance and Conduct Award from the Institute of Micromanufacturing at Louisiana Tech.

Pipes graduated from Louisiana Tech in 1999 with a degree in liberal arts and a minor in speech communication. She also earned her certificate in technical writing in 2007.

She is a current member of the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA). She is also actively involved in the American Cancer Society and serves as the co-chair for the Relay for Life Survivor's Dinner as well as on the Executive Committee for the ACS Relay for Life in Lincoln Parish.

LEAH BEASLEY

Assistant Athletics Director/ Marketing and Game Management

Leah Beasley enters her sixth year as a member of the Louisiana Tech athletics department staff, including her fifth as the assistant athletics director for marketing and game management.

Some of Beasley's responsibilities include game management supervision, coordinating the booking of many of the halftime activities for Tech home events, serving as the main liaison between the Tech athletics department and the Tech student body and faculty and staff, as well as working closely with many of the coaches for marketing ideas for their programs.

During her time at Louisiana Tech, Beasley has proven her merit as she has been directly and indirectly associated with numerous department awards.

Since its inception by the NCAA in 2007, Beasley has taken the lead on Louisiana Tech's participation in the NCAA's Pack the House Challenge - a marketing promotion geared towards increasing the awareness of women's basketball across the country.

Beasley's creative marketing campaigns have helped LA Tech earn top spot among the Western Athletic Conference schools for three straight years, making it one of only two programs in the country to win it every time joining Hartford of the America East Conference.

Her 2010 NCAA Pack the House marketing campaign of "Cage the Tigers" won the bronze award given out by NACDA for the Best Single Day Attendance Promotion.

Beasley has also been a part of a staff at LA Tech that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech Athletics Department has also finished in the Top 10 the past two years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

Beasley also served as the athletic department's point man for Bulldogs Tackling Breast Cancer, a fundraiser started by Dr. Allison Dooley, wife of former LA Tech AD and head football coach Derek Dooley in 2007. During its three years, this fundraising campaign raised more than $50,000 for the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure Foundation in northeast Louisiana.

She also serves on several campus and conference committees, including the WAC's Championships Committee and Game Management Committee, and the University's Marketing Advisory Board, Spirit Squad Committee and Traditions Committee.

Beasley lettered for four years at Louisiana Tech as an outfielder on the Lady Techster softball team, earning Academic all-WAC honors every season and earning all-America Scholar Athlete awards two seasons.

The Ruston native earned her bachelor's degree in marketing in May of 2005 and her master's degree in marketing in August 2006.

LISA MERRITT

Assistant Athletics Director/Academics

Lisa Merritt is now in her fourth year as a member of the Louisiana Tech athletics department staff serving as assistant athletics director for academics.

Merritt joined the athletics department after serving for 11 years in the speech department with her husband Kevin where she has taught speech classes while serving as an academic advisor for students majoring in speech communication.

Since joining the Tech athletics department, Merritt has teamed up with student success specialist Missy Farrar to help the University's student-athletes excel in the classroom. This past year, they were instrumental in helping eight of the 16 NCAA sanctioned programs at LA Tech earn their highest multi-year APR score ever while also seeing 94 student-athletes earn Academic all-WAC honors.

LA Tech's student-athlete graduation rate continues to be one of the highest in the state and honors include numerous individual success stories such as sprinter Antoinette Cobb earning the 2010 Honda Inspiration Award and catcher Clint Ewing earning a spot on the 2010 ESPN The Magazine Academic all-American Team. Outfielder Clint Stubbs was named the outstanding speech communication student this past April.

Tech's student-athletes also show incredible diversity when it comes to majors as each of the University's five colleges and virtually every degree program on campus boast at least one Tech student-athlete.

In her current role, Merritt oversees the student-athletes' academic progress and success while advising them regarding class schedules and degree plans, monitoring eligibility status and providing general academic guidance.

Merritt also runs the athletic academic center, provides "Life Skills" seminars for student-athletes, meets with prospective recruits, and serves as faculty advisor for SAAC (Student-Athlete Advisory Committee).

SAAC is a pro-active group of student-athletes communicating views or comments on WAC and NCAA rules and governance, which helps to ensure academic and athletic excellence for all student-athletes. Members of SAAC are also active in various community service projects such as hosting an annual Halloween carnival as well as serving as greeters for the annual St. Jude's Radiothon, participating in the Big Event, and supporting the WAC's charity of choice.

Merritt oversees and reviews the advising process to ensure compliance with both university and NCAA policies and serves as a liaison between faculty and coaches, as well as speaks at "New Faculty Orientation" each fall and during the year to the University Senate. She also meets recruits and their families to describe the college experience and how it will affect the student-athlete.

Merritt earned her bachelor's degree in agricultural economics in 1991 and master's in speech communication consultancy in 1994 both from Oklahoma State University.

She and her husband taught conversational English in Kyoto, Japan, for one year before coming to Louisiana Tech.

Outside of work, Merritt is a huge health and fitness buff who loves cycling (road and mountain), running and swimming. In 2002, Merritt and her husband completed the Florida Ironman Triathlon

Merritt and her husband Kevin reside in Ruston and have a six-year old daughter named Maisie and the couple are expecting their second child in December.

ZACH WILLIAMS

Assistant Athletics Director/ Ticket Operations

Zach Williams begins his second year as a member of the Louisiana Tech athletic department after joining the staff in April of 2009 as the assistant athletics director in charge of ticket operations.

Williams returned to his alma mater after spending the past three years at Northwestern State where he served as the athletic ticket manager and assistant marketing director.

During his first year at LA Tech, Williams led the transition of the ticket office to the Ticketmaster Archtics system, implementing their AccountManager, AccessManager, MailManager, and ticket forwarding programs to improve customer service and increase accessibility to Louisiana Tech athletic events.

The improvements paid off as Williams saw an increase in ticket sales in all four revenue generating sports during the 2009-10 season.

Williams has also seen the Tech Ticket Office undergo substantial renovations this summer thanks to a generous donation from a LA Tech alum. The renovations include all new furniture, new flooring, new carpet, new paint and new dividers which will only add to the day-to-day dealings with customers.

During his inaugural year at Tech, Williams has also been a part of a staff at LA Tech that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech Athletics Department has also finished in the Top 10 the past two years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

While at Northwestern State, Williams earned invaluable experience as he oversaw all ticket operations for the Division I athletic department. He created, executed and promoted season ticket drives and renewals for six sports while also hiring, training and supervising all staff members for Demon athletic events.

Prior to his time in Natchitoches, Williams spent more than a year as the Wildcat Athletic Association coordinator for the Louisiana College Athletics Department. Williams also spent a year at Georgia Southern, where he assisted in the compliance office.

He earned his bachelor's degree in history from Louisiana Tech in 2004 and his master's degree in sport management a year later from Georgia Southern.

Williams is a native of Woodworth and is married to the former Susan Strain of Alexandria, who is also a 2004 Louisiana Tech graduate. Their first son, Bennett Hardy Williams, was born on March 8, 2010.

MASON ELLENBERGER

General Manager/
LA Tech Sports Properties

Mason Ellenberger serves as general manager for "LA Tech Sports Properties", the Ruston-based entity designed to oversee all aspects of the 10-year partnership between the University and the collegiate marketer Learfield Sports.

At LA Tech, Ellenberger is responsible for spearheading all elements of the relationship between LA Tech and Learfield Sports, which was announced in late July 2008 and includes managing and selling multimedia and sponsorship rights for the Bulldogs and Lady Techsters.

Ellenberger is also responsible for all aspects of the LA Tech Sports Network which broadcasts over 250 Louisiana Tech game broadcasts, Daily Shows and Coach's Shows throughout the year.

In Ellenberger's previous role as the Team Sports Marketing Manager for Alltel Wireless, he led Alltel's strategic team sports marketing efforts in the United States. He oversaw the national promotions and activation of the sponsorship stable owned by Alltel Wireless in the US including the professional and collegiate sponsorships.

During the 2009-10 athletic season, Ellenberger and his team at LA Tech Sports Properties were recognized as the #1 new growth property in the Learfield Sports portfolio.

Prior to his years at Alltel, Ellenberger spent the previous thirteen years in strategic sales leadership, sports marketing and public relations roles in the telecommunications and entertainment industries.

The Birmingham, Ala. native has served on numerous endowment boards and board of directors for sports and education organizations including Pagnozzi Charities and the Arkansas Aeronautical Education Center.

He has been honored by White House Communications Agency for providing critical communications for the President of the Unites States and White House Staff. Ellenberger holds a BBA and MBA in Marketing both of which he graduated Summa cum Laude. Ellenberger is also an Eagle Scout and a long-time supporter of the Boy Scouts of America.

He is married to the former Wanda Jackson from Mobile, Ala., and the couple has two sons, James and Hunter.

TOMMY SISEMORE

Facilities Director

In the ever-changing world of college athletics, one of Louisiana Tech's main constants has been Tommy Sisemore.

Sisemore begins his 31st year at Louisiana Tech and his 12th as director of athletic facilities.

Some of Sisemore's varied duties include serving as travel coordinator and business manager for the football team, handling all aspects of team travel, including hotel, food and travel arrangements.

Sisemore also handles all the financial expenses incurred in the travel process.

Sisemore is part of a administrative staff at LA Tech that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech athletics department has also finished in the Top 10 the past two years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

Prior to working in the athletic department, Sisemore spent 17 years working in the Louisiana Tech Physical Plant.

Sisemore and his wife Stephanie, who is a Louisiana Tech graduate, are the proud parents of two daughters. Jessica is a Louisiana Tech graduate and currently working on her master's degree while Anna-Claire is a sophomore at Louisiana Tech.

JOSH PEROT

Account Executive/LA Tech Sports Properties

Josh Perot serves as account executive for LA Tech Sports Properties, overseeing every aspect of the Bulldogs' and Lady Techsters' rights, including certain television rights, radio, corporate hospitality, print sponsorships, event marketing, official athletic Web site advertising and venue signage.

Perot and General Manager Mason Ellenberger joined forces this past year to help make LA Tech Sports Properties the #1 new growth property in the Learfield Sports portfolio.

Perot also assists Ellenberger in all facets of LA Tech Sports Properties, including growing the LA Tech Sports Network which broadcasts over 250 games, daily shows and coach's shows throughout the year.

Perot returned to his alma mater from Texas A&M Sports Properties in College Station, where he previously served in an internship capacity while completing his master's degree in sports management. Prior to joining Learfield, he was a student assistant for Texas A&M Compliance. Additionally, Perot served as a student marketing assistant for Louisiana Tech athletics while finishing his bachelor's degree in sociology in 2007.

In June 2009, Perot married the former Haley Nardini of Alexandria, La., also a graduate from LA Tech. The couple resides in Ruston.

PATRICK WALSH

Associate Media Relations Director

Patrick Walsh begins his second year at Louisiana Tech as part of the media relations department, his first as the associate media relations director, serving as the primary contact for football, men's and women's cross country and men's and women's track and field.

Walsh came to Louisiana Tech from The Citadel, where he last served as the primary contact for baseball and cross country while serving as the secondary contact for football, as well as the webmaster for CitadelSports.com. He also oversaw game operations duties for The Citadel Baseball at Joseph P. Riley, Jr. Park.

At The Citadel, Walsh was involved with a trio of publications that were recognized on a national scale by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), with his 2007 track and field media guide finishing 24th in the nation. Walsh was heavily involved with the 2008 football guide that finished eighth among Division I-FCS programs and the 2006 football guide that was 12th among I-AA teams.

A member of CoSIDA, Walsh also serves on the Publications Committee and was a judge for the 2007 women's golf media guide publications contest.

Walsh arrived at The Citadel following a seven-month stint as the Sports Information Assistant at Newberry College in Newberry, S.C., a NCAA Division II member of the South Atlantic Conference. At Newberry, Walsh was responsible for media relations and game operations for Indians baseball, cross country, tennis and volleyball, as well as being the assistant contact for men's basketball.

Walsh was also in charge of marketing and promotions for several Newberry sports. His work helped lead Newberry Volleyball to a NCAA Division II top 20 ranking in attendance. In addition to those duties, Walsh was also the play-by-play announcer for Newberry volleyball and baseball radio broadcasts.

Walsh is a 2005 graduate of the University of South Carolina where he majored in Sport and Entertainment Management and was a member of the South Carolina Honors College. At USC, he was a student assistant in the Sports Information office where he worked with several Gamecock sports and was the public address announcer for South Carolina Baseball at Sarge Frye Field.

While at South Carolina, he was recognized by the College Sports Information Directors Association (CoSIDA) for his work on the 2003 South Carolina Track and Field Media Guide, which was named second in the nation, and for the 2002 South Carolina Volleyball Media Guide which placed first in the region.

Walsh, born in Oxford, Ohio, currently resides in Ruston along with his wife, the former Blair Brandon of Fort Worth, Texas.

LTAC Director

Adam McGuirt begins his fourth year with the Louisiana Tech athletics family as the Director of the Louisiana Tech Athletic Club (LTAC), working in the Division of University Advancement.

At Louisiana Tech, McGuirt is responsible for all areas of athletic development, including donor relations and booster club administration.

During his previous three years at LA Tech, McGuirt has been instrumental in helping more than double the number of LTAC members which has resulted in a large increase in private donations.

McGuirt also works closely with the Alumni Association in the development and implementation of events for alumni and friends throughout the state of Louisiana and surrounding areas.

McGuirt has also been a part of a staff at LA Tech that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech Athletics Department has also finished in the Top 10 the past two years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

A native of Shreveport, McGuirt graduated from Louisiana Tech in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

McGuirt is married to April, and they have three daughters, Lily, Sophie and Emily. April works as a customer service representative at First National Bank in Ruston.

Working Credentials

Requests for press box seating should be made directly to the LA Tech Media Relations Office before Monday of game week. Admission to the press box of Joe Aillet Stadium is by credential only and credentials are distributed to working members of the media only – no family members or friends. Passes will be mailed if time allows; otherwise, left at Will Call on the stadium's west side at the press box elevator entrance.

Radio/TV Policy

Permission to broadcast from Joe Aillet Stadium and Independence Stadium must be obtained through the LA Tech Athletics Media Relations Department. The visiting team's official network will be provided free broadcast rights. For information concerning courtesy phone lines, contact Patrick Walsh at (318) 257-5305. Additional phone lines can be obtained by calling BellSouth directly at 1-800-866-6701 (outside Louisiana). The third level of the LA Tech Press Box offers an unobstructed view for television cameras.

Press Parking

Parking is limited and passes will be issued on a priority basis. The Joe Aillet Stadium press parking lot is located on the southwest corner of the stadium, just off West Alabama Avenue.

Press Box Services

All vital game information is provided by the LA Tech Stat Crew. An internal press box PA keeps members of the media informed of each play. Post-game quotes from head coach Sonny Dykes and selected players, as well as the visiting coach, are also available. Telephones and high-speed internet are available for media usage and a pre-game meal is served at each home game starting approximately two hours before kickoff. Level one provides working space for print and electronic media and the LA Tech Stat Crew along with LA Tech and visiting athletic director booths. Level two provides space for cameras and houses home and visiting radio booths and coaches' booths.

Directions to Joe Aillet Stadium

Will Call

Media Will Call is located at the press box elevator on the west side of the stadium.

Daily Media Availability

The following is a general weekly schedule of media availability for the Louisiana Tech football team. Members of the media are expected to adhere to these policies at all times. All interview requests should be made to Louisiana Tech Associate Director of Media Relations Patrick Walsh at least 24 hours in advance. All media availability times are subject to change. Please contact Patrick Walsh for any changes in the schedule. (Note: First year players are not available to the media unless by special request.)

Monday: Sonny Dykes participates in the WAC's Weekly Coaches' Teleconference at 11:46 a.m. CT. LA Tech's weekly media luncheon starts with food served at 11:30 a.m. and statements/interviews beginning around noon. A few players will also be made available. Dykes' radio show airs from 6 p.m. – 7 p.m. live from the Dawg House in Ruston.

Tuesday: All coaches and players^ are available following practice.

Wednesday: All coaches and players^ are available following practice.

Thursday, Friday and Sunday: No availability.

Saturday: Post-game availability only. Members of the LA Tech Athletics Media Relations Staff will escort media representatives to the media room with five minutes remaining in the game. The Louisiana Tech locker room, home or away, is closed to the media at all times. Post-game interview requests should be submitted to Patrick Walsh before the five minute mark in the fourth quarter.

For games in Ruston, all Louisiana Tech post-game press conference will be held in the Jarrell Room located in the Charles Wyly Athletic Center after each game following a 10-minute cooling off period. No interviews will be allowed on the field with players and/or coaches immediately following games. Coach Dykes and selected Louisiana Tech players will be available in the press conference following games. Opposing coaches will be available outside the visiting locker room following a 10-minute cooling off period.

Social Media

Louisiana Tech fans can access the most in-depth information regarding all the University's programs through social media opportunities available online.

LA Tech All-Access – LA Tech All-Access is a subscription based platform that Tech fans can access live video/audio streams of almost every Tech home sporting event and live audio streams of road football, men's basketball, women's basketball and selected baseball and softball games plus press conferences and other special events. For only $9.95 per month or $79.95 for the year, Bulldog and Lady Techster fans can be a part of all of the action.

Facebook – Louisiana Tech athletics has its own facebook page that updates daily with all of the latest information on the Bulldogs and Lady Techsters. Become a friend of LA Tech athletics at http://www.facebook.com/LATechAthletics.

Twitter – Members of the Louisiana Tech media relations department will be tweeting throughout the year with the latest news and in-game score updates. To follow them, simply find them on www.twitter.com.
LATechMButler – football, women's basketball, softball, men's golf and more
LATechPWalsh – football, men's and women's cross country, indoor track and outdoor track
LATechSSchoon – soccer, men's basketball, tennis
LATechAStaton – volleyball, baseball, bowling

CoverItLive – Louisiana Tech will be conducting its own chat rooms during games this year for football, men's basketball, women's basketball and baseball. LA Tech fans can join in the chat throughout the in-game action for the majority of the contests for these sports. Simply log onto www.latechsports.com 30 minutes prior to the start of the contests and click on the CoverItLive icon.

LA Tech Sports Network

For the 12th straight year, the LA Tech Sports Network will team up with KXKZ-FM (107.5) Ruston as the flagship station for Tech Athletics.

In addition to KXKZ, the LA Tech Sports Network will be comprised of KLKL 95.7 FM (Shreveport/Bossier City), ESPN 97.7 FM (Ruston), KPCH 99.3 FM (Ruston) and KBYO 92.7 FM (Monroe). Tech games can be accessed via the Internet on LA Tech All-Access on LATechSports.com.

All 12 Bulldog football games can be heard live on the LA Tech Sports Network as Dave Nitz enters his 36th season as the Voice of the Bulldogs having called Tech football, basketball and baseball since 1974.

In addition to his duties at Tech, Nitz is the radio broadcaster and media relations director for the Sioux City Explorers, an independent minor league baseball team in the American Association.

The West Virginia native also served as the radio announcer for the Shreveport Sports for 14 years (Double-A affiliate of the San Francisco Giants) and also worked in minor league baseball in Oklahoma City.

Joining Nitz as part of the Tech Radio Network team this season will be Steve Davison, Benny Thornell, Jack Thigpen and Sam Newman.

Davison, a former Louisiana Tech baseball star, enters his sixth year as part of the Bulldog football broadcasts. He is the developer of Squire Creek Country Club.

Thornell will serve as the sideline reporter. Thigpen will serve as the statistician for all Tech games while Newman handles the engineering for all broadcasts.

Nitz and Co. will host a one-hour pregame show prior to each game.

Tech Gameday, a two-hour pre-pregame show, will air prior to all home games and selected road games. During Tech's five home games, the show will air live from Tailgate Alley while being aired in-studio for the road games.

A 30-minute postgame show will follow all broadcasts as Nitz and Davison will interview head coach Sonny Dykes while also wrapping up all of the day's action.

For more information on the LA Tech Sports Network, call General Manager Mason Ellenberger at 318-257-5331.

Inside Bulldog Football With Sonny Dykes

Louisiana Tech head coach Sonny Dykes will team up with the long-time Voice of the Bulldogs Dave Nitz each week during the season for Inside Bulldog Football with Sonny Dykes.

The one-hour radio show will air each Monday from 6 to 7 p.m. at the Dawg House Sports Grill in Ruston.

The show can be heard each Monday on ESPN Radio 97.7 FM and via the Internet on LA Tech All-Access at LATechSports.com as Nitz and Dooley review the previous contest and preview the upcoming game.

LA Tech players and coaches will also be live at the Dawg House Sports Grill each week to answer football and non-football related questions as Tech fans get an opportunity to get an inside look at the student-athletes.

The show also includes a special segment entitled Where Are They Now where former Louisiana Tech letterwinners are interviewed. The list of former letterwinners who have appeared on the show included Terry Bradshaw, Mike Barber, Roger Carr, Tim Rattay, Luke McCown, Matt Stover, Josh Scobee, Tramon Williams, Chris Boniol, Ryan Moats and Matt Dunigan.

LA Tech Daily Shows

Bulldog and Lady Techster fans can keep up with all of the news inside the athletic department each week by tuning into listen to the LA Tech Daily Shows with Malcolm Butler and Dave Nitz.

This three-minute radio show which will air every weekday on the LA Tech Sports Network will feature news on games, upcoming events and much more.

Check your local listings for the air times.

WAC Football Coaches' Teleconference

The WAC will hold a weekly football coaches' teleconference every Monday beginning August 30 and running through November 29. The teleconference will begin at 11:30 a.m. (CT). The coaches will be available for a seven-minute time period to preview the upcoming opponent and answer questions from the media.

The schedule for the teleconference is as follows (times listed are Central):

11:30	Dave Chaffin, WAC (10:30 MT)
11:32	Mike MacIntyre, San Jose State (9:32 PT)
11:39	Greg McMackin, Hawai'i (6:39 HT)
